6/16/81 – Associate Pastor, St. Mary's Parish, Hales Corners, WI

1/28/82 Vicar Log Entry No. 100. Doyle upset because of repercussions from an incident that happened last summer. A young man, 17 at the time, accused Doyle of making a homosexual pass. Doyle claims he put his arm around him and allowed him to sleep over. He spoke with the youth minister at the parish who recommended he see Fr. Charlie Walter. Doyle explained the situation to Fr. Walter, Doyle then called a therapist. Doyle was told Walter could counsel the young man that he was misinterpreting the situation. Doyle knows he used extremely poor judgment by letting the young man to sleep over. (33884)

2/2/82 Vicar Log Entry No. 107. Walter called to say he and the DRE at St. Mary's Parish spoke to the young man who made the complaint against Doyle. Walter thinks they have convinced the man to forget the whole matter. However, the man is sticking to his story and claims he and Doyle attended the PAC last month and had alcoholic drinks before and after the event. It was on the way home he claims Doyle made another pass at him. Walter is concerned about the drinking. He intends to confront Doyle with this matter. (33884)

4/12/82 Vicar Log Entry No. 310. Vicar informed of concern about Doyle's drinking. At one time Doyle admitted to being an alcoholic. Says that it seems that there is personality change when he drinks. Outside intervention is growing near. (33871)
