- 6/12/92 Vicar Log Entry (RTV). Indicates call to Effinger to inform him of report made by person while he was assigned in Kenosha. Individual did not show up for his appointment with the Venne. Venne called the individual and spoke to individual's wife who said individual was not available. Because the individual had told Venne that he had not told his wife, Venne did not provide more information. (8632)
- 8/18/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 576 (RTV). Indicates receipt of call from Kenosha individual who previously reported abuse in June. Individual had an appointment that the individual did not keep. Vicar had attempted to contact the individual after the missed appointment, but was unable to. Individual stated that he purposefully did not keep the appointment because he wanted to see what the church would do. Vicar told the individual that they informed Effinger of the allegation. Vicar said that they could not verify someone calling in and not wishing to be identified. Will schedule a meeting with the individual in September. (8632)

- 9/8/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 628 (RTV). Indicates visit with individual abused by Effinger's in 1971. Wanted Effinger out of the parish and if they didn't do anything, he would report the past incident to the Sheboygan paper. Vicar told Weakland and Sklba. (8631)
- 9/14/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 641 (RTV). Indicates meeting with Effinger to discuss allegations. Spoke of Guest House and St. Luke's Institute. Effinger asked about speaking to the individual making the report. Effinger told that such a meeting was not appropriate and that the Archdiocese only did this when the person reporting abuse requested it. Vicar will call the individual reporting abuse to report on the substance of the meeting with Effinger. (8631)
- 9/22/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 677 (RTV). Indicates discussions regarding the reason that could be given for Effinger leaving the parish for Guest House. (8630)
- 9/29/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 698 (RTV). Indicates finalizing Effinger's last day at Holy Name Parish. Vicar called individual who reported the abuse and told him that Effinger would be moving from the parish by the end of October. The individual was agreeable to this, and the Vicar told him to contact the Vicar if the Archdiocese could assist him in any way in the future. Vicar contacted Guest House regarding arranging for Effinger's treatment. (8630)
- 9/30/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 565. Sklba spoke with a man who reported about an anonymous woman and her 25 year old son who report inappropriate activity on the part of Effinger some eight years ago. (8630)
- 9/30/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 707. Sklba reported the substance of the phone call to the Vicar. The woman and the son do not wish to be identified. (8630)
- 10/5/92 Vicar Log Entry No 715 (RTV). Person who previously reported contacted the Vicar after a friend of the man reported to him that Effinger was leaving the parish, but didn't say why. Told him that over the years Effinger received help because of some alcohol issues, and it would not automatically be concluded there were others who were abused. (8629)
- 10/19/92 Vicar Log Entry No. 626. Frank Yaniak reported that there was a lot of conversation about Effinger and his past activity amongst the families at St. Francis de Sales. (8629)
