MEMORANDUM

To: File - PFR - 11

From: Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review

Re: Hagan, Rev. James [Resigned],

Date: March 27, 2007

In attempts to follow up on information provided by  in his allegation of sexual abuse against the former Rev. James Hagan, I called and spoke with Sr. Elizabeth Lynch, OP on March 22, 2007. Sr. Elizabeth was principal of St. Denis at the time of the alleged abuse by Fr. Hagan. When asked, Sr. Elizabeth informed me that Ms. Ellen Murphy was a former school secretary at St. Denis. Sr. Elizabeth provided Ms. Murphy's contact information of

I called and spoke with Ms. Murphy via phone today. After introducing myself, I informed Ms. Murphy that Sr. Elizabeth had provided me with her name and contact information. I then provided Ms. Murphy with a brief verbal description of my office and reason for the phone call. When asked, Ms. Murphy stated that she would be willing to speak with me. Prior to continuing, I informed Ms. Murphy that this was a confidential matter.

I asked Ms. Murphy if and when she was a school secretary at St. Denis. Ms. Murphy stated that she was a school secretary there for seven years and that she left in October 1992. I informed Ms. Murphy that the allegation that I was investigating was made against the former Rev. James Hagan. I then asked Ms. Murphy if there was ever a practice where she would call students out of the classrooms either through the PA system or in a different matter to come to the school office. Ms. Murphy stated that it would have been "unlikely" for her to call for a student to come to the office via the PA system. She stated that there were occasions when she would have gone to a classroom to get a child if the child's parent had called the office in an emergency type situation. I then asked Ms. Murphy if Fr. Hagan or any other priest ever asked her to call a child out of a classroom to come to meet with him. Ms. Murphy stated that Fr. Hagan never asked her to call a child out of class for him. She also stated that it would have stood out in her mind if that did happen [Fr. Hagan ask her to call a child out of class] or if she observed something like that.

I thanked Ms. Murphy for her assistance. When asked, Ms. Murphy stated that she did not need my name or contact information.

Having received the recommendation of the Archdiocesan Professional Responsibility Review Board that information at least seems to be true that James Hagan, prior to his resignation from priestly ministry, engaged in sexual misconduct with [REDACTED] a minor at the time of the alleged incident, I have concluded that this constitutes information which "at least seems to be true" (c. 1717).

Therefore, in accordance with the aforementioned canon, I decree that an inquiry be done into the facts and circumstances of this accusation, as well as its imputability to James Hagan.

Since my other duties prevent me from conducting this investigation personally, I hereby appoint Ms. Leah McCluskey to act as the investigator in this matter. In carrying out these duties, Ms. McCluskey will have all of the authority of an auditor, in accordance with cc. 1428 and 1717. She is to collect any additional proofs she deems necessary in accordance with the norm of law as they relate to the present allegation. She is delegated to take testimony from the accused and from any witnesses (cc. 1530 – 1538 and 1547 – 1573), to obtain any necessary documents (cc. 1540 – 1546), to enlist the services of any experts deemed necessary (cc. 1574 – 1581), and to have access to places or things which she deems necessary for her investigation.

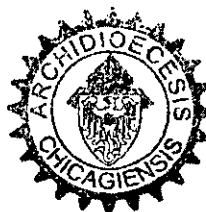

In conducting her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to take care that such an investigation does nothing to harm James Hagan's name or to violate his right to protect his privacy.

After she has concluded her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to make a written and oral report to the Professional Responsibility Review Board, no later than one hundred eighty days from the date of this appointment. This report is to address the facts, circumstances, and imputability concerning the alleged offense.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note of 8 October, 2003 in response to your letter of September 23, 2003, regarding the matter of James Hagan, a priest ordained for the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from ministry many years ago, and the allegations of sexual misconduct that were made against him by [REDACTED]. I understand that a Review for Cause was conducted by the Review Board on 20 September, 2003.

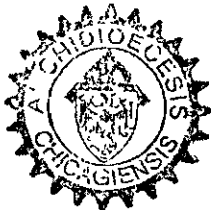

I accept the Review Board's determination that there is reasonable cause to suspect that James Hagan engaged in acts of sexual misconduct with a minor. Since he is no longer engaged in priestly ministry, there is no ministerial behavior to be monitored.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim AY's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on March 14, 2003, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Rev. James Hagan. The alleged abuse consisted of fondling and oral sex. The alleged abuse occurred from approximately 1982 to 1986, occurring roughly once a month between the time Victim AY was 14 and 18 years old. The alleged abuse occurred at St. Richard's parish, St. Gertrude's parish, at a movie theater, and once during an out-of-state trip to an amusement park where he was forced to share a bed with Hagan. Victim AY also recalls Hagan having groups of kids watch R-rated movies in the rectory. Victim AY reported that Hagan invited him to go on outings and then back to the rectory approximately once per month.

Dear Cardinal George

As you recall I informed you in April last year that Father James Hagan molested me when I was a youngster at St. Catherine/St. Lucy parish. Just last month Leah McCluskey from the Archdiocese told me that the review board determined that my allegation is true. It was extremely consoling for me to hear that the Church believed me

I am asking you to go with me to every parish where Father James Hagan served to invite other victims to come forward to get healing. Other victims of Father Hagan may never come forward if they do not hear from you. Your joining me and speaking at those parishes may empower other victims of Father Hagan to come forward for support and comfort and to begin a journey of healing in their lives.

I am also asking that you immediately release the names of all priests who have been found by the archdiocesan review board to have been perpetrators of sexual abuse. It is important for two reasons: 1) So that all those abused will know they are not alone and that they may come forward to get healing and 2) So that no more children are abused by these men. The adults surrounding the perpetrators need to be put on notice so that children will not be allowed around these perpetrators. Children are at risk and won't be if you, Cardinal George, make their names public.

Despite the disclosures that occurred about the clergy abuse crisis in 2002, many people in the church still have not seen enough action on the part of church leaders to protect children and to search for other victims of priest abuse.

Thanks you for your consideration.

Sincerely

Dear Archbishop Cardinal George;

[REDACTED]

The Church was an integral part of my childhood, and I remained active into my teen years. My education began at [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Catherine of Siena in Oak Park.

[REDACTED] I soon became an altar boy and helped serve at Masses and funerals.

[REDACTED]

One day, [REDACTED] were invited to the rectory to see Father Hagan. We were sitting in the rectory as he put on some music. He had a Marantz stereo and we were impressed. I got up to get something; [REDACTED] As I sat down [REDACTED] I felt a large hand forcing its way under my behind. [REDACTED] Father Hagan sat there, a smile on his round, bearded face. He began to move his fingers, fondling me, still smiling. [REDACTED]

This event, the sexual abuse perpetrated upon me by a priest of the Catholic Church, has had a profound and long-reaching effect upon my life. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I need for you, for the Church, to respond to this, and to recognize your part in this situation, and to rectify the wrongs that have been done. [REDACTED] Please contact me at [REDACTED] so that we can schedule an appointment.

Sincerely,

James Hagan [JH] contacted Fr. Tivy [VP] via phone at 10:00am from the Vicar for Priests Office for the scheduled appointment. JH stated that he has "absolutely no memory of this incident or of having [redacted] eighth graders in my room." He again clarified that "I definitely don't remember him [redacted] or the incident that he described." JH described the rectory of St. Catherine/St. Lucy as "an open place" where there was "much interaction." However, "[having [redacted] boys in his room] during school time doesn't click at all." JH then stated, "I believe that I would remember this [details of [redacted] allegation]... I think that I'd remember what he's describing."

JH stated that it is a ‘great possibility’ that [REDACTED] was in his room due to the fact that [REDACTED] knew that JH had a [REDACTED] “in his [JH’s] possession ” JH then described his room as including a love seat and two chairs. You made yourself available in what could have been a very explosive situation. Your openness and honesty with both groups greatly helped the leadership of this parish to deal with the difficult news that was being presented and to begin to move forward. The information you provided was also useful on the weekend, since parish leadership was able to respond to most of the questions being asked by parishioners and therefore resolve many of their concerns.

I am also grateful for your assistance in helping us deal with the issue of reducing our daily Mass schedule. You offered useful information and pastoral options, allowing parish leadership to make the best decision for this parish. I could not have asked for a more appropriate and useful response. I have enclosed a copy of the announcement of our decision to parishioners, which has appeared in the bulletin for several weeks. To the best of my knowledge, we have received no complaints, and no one has asked to have an intention moved to another date.

I offer my prayers and gratitude to you as you continue in your ministry.

In the peace of Christ,

Dear Parishioners,

At this time I wish to thank you for the hundreds of letters and notes, the prayers and kindnesses you have sent my way. Never doubt the powerful effect they have had and the deep affection and regard I hold for all of you. Your faith and love have been a sustaining and positive force through these many months. However, after much prayer and reflection I have asked Cardinal Bernardin to allow me to step down as your pastor. He has agreed to my request. These are important moments in your history and as long as part of your focus remains on me, it prevents you from dealing with the issues and possibilities you face. Painful as the letting go is, it's important for both of us to move on. You are in good hands. God has abundantly blessed this parish with the right people to lead you through the coming transition.

It has been a high privilege to serve you. These have been years of grace and growth. Being at St. Denis and the vision we forged together will have lasting effect in all our lives. I so deeply believe that this parish has and will continue to be a welcoming light and a sign of hope for all who are looking for a community to call home. The levels of your talent, your generous spirits, the quality of your faith and leadership made pastoring with you a joy. I ask for your continued prayers for all involved that good, healing, and new life will emerge. I bid you peace and hold you forever close in my prayers and thoughts.

Sincerely,

Dear Father McBrady:

In anticipation of your meetings with the parish staff and the pastoral council at St. Denis Parish, I am writing to provide you with information regarding the matter of Father James Hagan.

The Professional Fitness Review Board conducted a Second Stage Review on Wednesday, August 21, 1996. This was in keeping with Archdiocesan policies and procedures which provide that such a review shall ordinarily be initiated and scheduled to occur no earlier than 30 and no later than 120 days after completion of the First Stage Review. Father Hagan's First Stage Review was completed on April 22, 1996.

In light of all the information gathered and reported by the Professional Fitness Review Administrator at the Second Stage Review, the Board determined that it is not reasonable to return Father Hagan to ministry and recommended that his withdrawal from ministry continue. Cardinal Bernardin has accepted this determination and recommendation. The people of St. Denis Parish should be informed of this decision. They should also be informed that Cardinal Bernardin has accepted Father Hagan's resignation as pastor of St. Denis Parish.

The Cardinal has expressed his concern for Father Hagan, for those who brought the allegations, and for all the people of St. Denis Parish. He acknowledged that this is a time of grief in many respects. Mindful of the pain and hurt being felt at this time, the Cardinal expressed his hope that true healing may come to Father Hagan and to all involved in this process.

With every good wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Cardinal Bernardin,

Having contemplated this letter for months and repeatedly changing my mind on its contents, I am writing to express my strong conviction that Father Jim Hagan should return to parish ministry as soon as possible.

Today a recurring recollection refers back to the Pastor Evaluation a few years ago. I recall the question, "What do you like about your pastor?" My response then and now is everything. Father Jim is spiritual, diligent, caring, generous, friendly, daring and fun-loving.

Throughout 31 years of school administration in the Archdiocese, I have been privileged to work with tremendous pastors. I have enjoyed and learned from each but none can surpass Father Jim's devotion to his priesthood and achievements in engendering creative and dynamic parish life. He is an exceptionally talented man who constantly challenges himself, those with whom he works, the parishioners and children he serves. He gladdens liturgies and all diverse pursuits.

Please know of my continued support and appreciation for all you do for the Church of Chicago. I pray for your health and intentions. I pray, too, for all involved in the resolution of Father Jim's situation and that a process would never override the fact that we are dealing with a decent and loving individual.

Dear Cardinal Bernardin,

On April 23, shock and disbelief shook St Denis Parish. We were told that a decision should be forthcoming in four months. It is our heartfelt hope that Fr. Jim Hagan can return for the reopening of school. Here we will strive to heal, care for and love a priest that gave us so much leadership, joy and laughter.

We, too, are victims and no one seems to care. The elderly weep openly at the sound of his name. The young are saddened and confused at his absence.

May I ask one more time why a 10 year old wound is so important and our needs as a parish so unnoticed? We know Father Jim is human, he is honest and he is suffering; we're not afraid or ashamed to welcome him back with the love and forgiveness of Jesus. Neither do we want to wait 10 years. Let us get on with celebrating our lost pastor.

Sincerely,

Sister Nara Brady, O.P.

I. Review Board Matters

A. Matter of PFR-11, REV. JAMES HAGAN

The Board conducted a Second Stage Review pursuant to Article 1104.10 of the Review Process For The Continuation Of Ministry. The Board determined it is not reasonable to return Fr. Hagan to ministry in view of all the facts and circumstances. As a result, the Board recommended Fr. Hagan's withdrawal from ministry continue.

Moreover, the Board recommends that the protocol for supervision and restriction undertaken as a result of Fr. Hagan's withdrawal should be modified. Therefore, the Board recommends Fr. Hagan not be alone with persons under eighteen (18) years of age without the presence of another responsible adult, and that Fr. Hagan abstain from illegal substance.

Also, the Board recommends Fr. Hagan receive individual and group therapy at Isaac Ray Center and that Fr. Hagan meet with the Vicar for Priests to obtain spiritual direction. The Board requested that the Administrator communicate its recommendations to the Cardinal.

Conference Call

PRA arrived at the Vicar for Priests Office just prior to the 2:30 pm scheduled meeting time. Rev. Edward Grace began the meeting by calling civil attorney Patrick Reardon's office, where the former Rev. James Hagan had joined him.

PRA began by asking Mr. Hagan and Mr. Reardon if they had any questions prior to continuing. Mr. Reardon asked if a copy of [REDACTED] allegation against Fr. Hagan had been sent to his office. PRA confirmed for Mr. Reardon that it had been sent. When asked by PRA, Mr. Hagan stated that he did not need a separate copy of [REDACTED] allegation sent to him. Mr. Reardon then stated that due to pending litigation, Mr. Hagan would not offer a response to [REDACTED] allegation.

PRA proceeded to read the allegation against Mr. Hagan in its entirety.

After PRA read the entire allegation, Mr. Reardon stated that there would be no response given at this point in time. Mr. Reardon added that if there would be any further response, that would be given at a later date.

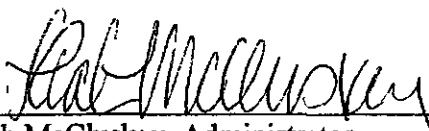

Mr. Reardon then asked PRA if "...anyone had talked to these others [substitute teacher, librarian, principal, or janitor referred to by ██████ in his allegation]." PRA responded that none of the individuals had been talked to at this point in time.

PRA and Fr. Grace thanked Mr. Hagan and Mr. Reardon for their time. Mr. Hagan was informed that a draft report of the January 16th conference call would be sent to him in care of Mr. Reardon.

Prior to ending the phone call, Mr. Reardon remarked that the only true statement [in ██████ allegation] was the reference to Fr. Hagan "...cracking backs..."

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim BD's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on May 27, 2004, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Rev. James Hagan. The alleged abuse consisted of fondling, masturbation, and one incident of oral sex. The alleged abuse occurred at St. Catherine's parish, St. Richard's parish rectory, and in Fr. Hagan's car. The alleged abuse began when Victim BD was in sixth or seventh grade and continued until he was approximately 18 years old between approximately 1975 and 1980, and occurred during counseling sessions with Fr. Hagan. Victim BD also reported that he stayed overnight in the rectory numerous times over a period of several years, and that other priests at St. Catherine would see Victim BD entering and leaving Hagan's room. Victim BD also reported that he smoked marijuana in St. Catherine's rectory when other priests may have been in the building.

From: Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator

Re: Hagan, Rev. James [Resigned]

Date: February 8, 2005

PRA spoke with Rev. John J. Carolan via phone today in connection with the investigation of  allegation of sexual misconduct against the former Rev. James Hagan. Fr. Carolan was assigned to St. Catherine of Siena/St. Lucy in Oak Park with Fr. Hagan from 1977 through 1981. Fr. Carolan was ordained in 1951 and is currently retired, residing at St. Catherine of Siena/St. Lucy.

PRA began by briefly informing Fr. Carolan of the purpose and function of the Office of Professional Responsibility. When he was told that the phone call was in connection with an investigation of an allegation against a priest who was assigned with him at St. Catherine of Siena/St. Lucy, Fr. Carolan immediately indicated that he knew it was about Fr. Hagan. When asked if he had a few minutes to talk this morning, Fr. Carolan indicated that he did.

When asked, Fr. Carolan stated that he never observed an inappropriate behavior on the part of Fr. Hagan while they were assigned together. He added that is the reason why it was such a complete surprise to him when the allegations against Fr. Hagan first surfaced. When asked, Fr. Carolan stated that he never saw Fr. Hagan with any minor boys in his room at all and/or any inappropriate behavior with minors. Fr. Carolan shared that Fr. Hagan was a good photographer and used to take pictures of "...the kids playing..." and that he was artistic. However, Fr. Carolan never saw Fr. Hagan behave inappropriately with and/or around minors. When asked by PRA, Fr. Carolan stated that he never knew of/saw Fr. Hagan spend one on one time with minors in a therapeutic or mentoring capacity.

PRA then asked Fr. Carolan if he ever knew of Fr. Hagan abusing any substances such as alcohol or marijuana. Fr. Carolan stated that Fr. Hagan never drank alcohol and that he was opposed to drinking. He stated that Fr. Hagan was not even a cigarette smoker and was unaware of any suggested substance abuse [smoking marijuana].

Reminding Fr. Carolan that this investigation was confidential, PRA asked if he would feel comfortable being told the name of Fr. Hagan's accuser [to determine if he remembered the boy and/or his family]. Fr. Carolan agreed to have PRA reveal the identity of the alleged victim. When PRA shared [REDACTED] name with Fr. Carolan, he immediately indicated that he knew him and his family. Fr. Carolan stated that the [REDACTED] Family was a part of St. Catherine of Siena/St. Lucy parish and that Fr. Hagan was "...very close to the family." [REDACTED]

PRA thanked Fr. Carolan for his time, assistance, and cooperation this morning. Fr. Carolan was asked to call PRA at any time with any questions or concerns.

Fr. Carolan may be reached at St. Catherine of Siena/St. Lucy rectory at [708] 386-8077.

- That PRA ask [REDACTED] the circumstances as to how he was able to come forward with his allegation at this time.
- That PRA determine if any of the other priests assigned with Mr. Hagan during the time of the alleged abuse of [REDACTED] are still alive. If so, for PRA to speak with those priests regarding Fr. Hagan.

Re: [REDACTED] / Rev. James Hagan

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Per our discussion, I am following up on your letter of October 15, 2003 regarding the above matter. I have passed your correspondence on to Ms. Leah McCluskey, the Professional Responsibility Administrator of the Archdiocese of Chicago. It is my understanding that she has been in contact with you about this matter. As you know, either you or your client can contact Mr. Ralph Bonaccorsi (312-751-8293), Assistance Minister of the Archdiocese, for therapy from a licensed therapist selected by your client at the Archdiocese's expense while this matter is being processed.

We would also note that, on September 19, 1996, [REDACTED] notified the Archdiocese that he had been abused by an Archdiocesan priest. He said that [REDACTED] Although [REDACTED] did not name the priest who was the perpetrator, he said that he wanted to make sure that the priest was receiving help with his problem and that he was in a place where he could not harm anyone else. He described the priest as "more than my molester, he was a good teacher and another soul struggling to come to terms with life, and a friend (albeit dysfunctional)" and said that he wanted to "share my feelings and thoughts [with the perpetrator] (I think we can help each other heal ... at least somewhat." When [REDACTED] came forward again in October 2003, we learned that the priest was Father Hagan, who resigned from the priesthood on March 31, 1997.

James Hagan

Dear Jim,

I hope things are going well for you. The new Archbishop has made some good first impressions on everyone around here. So, we are all into some new forms of life this Easter season.

Enclosed in the reimbursement check for the Loyola tuition. I trust classes are at least involving if not demanding. I hope they provide you with stimulating ideas for the future and even the occasion to meet many new people.

Not many people know that you have left as far as I can tell. I have heard no conversation about this. In fact both Bernadette and Ed Siedlecki were "a little miffed" with me when it was discovered by each of them that you were no longer around.

I did pass on this address to Bernadette. I trust you may have left the same forwarding address at the Retreat House.

I am hoping we can set a dinner or luncheon date sometime at the end of May.

Peace,

Dear Sister Nora:

I am in receipt of the copy which you sent me of your letter of October 11, 1996 to Cardinal Bernardin, regarding Fr. James Hagan. As the Cardinal's Delegate to the Professional Fitness Review Board, which recommended Father Hagan's withdrawal from St. Denis Parish, I must express my objection to your letter.

It is simply wrong for you to assert that Cardinal Bernardin has "destroyed" Father Hagan. It is Father Hagan, not the Cardinal, who is responsible for the consequences of his own actions. Yes, we are a Church of love and forgiveness, but it is not revenge to protect children from the risk of abuse. The legal system did not prosecute because of the statute of limitations. The protection of children is a present concern, however. It would have been irresponsible for the Cardinal and the Church to have acted otherwise.

I commend you for your 48 years of dedicated religious life as an Adrian Dominican Sister. I can appreciate the great sense of loss and emptiness that you must feel with what has happened at St. Denis Parish. But that does not justify the type of letter which you sent to the Cardinal. Given the Cardinal's terminal illness, your letter was, at least, insensitive. Moreover, for you to say that the Cardinal "destroyed" Father Hagan is insulting and offensive.

I believe you owe Cardinal Bernardin an apology.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Cardinal Bernardin,

Father Jim Hagan's resignation and the Process Team's untimely verdict has caused severe grief and pain to the people of St. Denis.

I have always loved the Church but now I'm not so sure. In my 71st year of life and now having a distrust of church authority is frightening. As an Adrian Dominican Sister of 48 years, I have loved and labored with joy for a Church I believed was just, kind and merciful.

If you would take a moment to visualize the great loss of pastor, associate pastor, changing neighborhood and the emptiness of life, maybe you would be patient with me and answer my questions.

How can the destruction of a human spirit reward a 10 year allegation? Do 2 wrongs make a right? Isn't love and forgiveness more of the Church's teaching than revenge? Since the judicial system wouldn't be bothered with the allegations, why did the Process Team get so vehement in punishment? How can you ask a retired priest to baby-sit us and then uproot another man's life to fulfill a legal mentality.

If you would stop for a moment to humanly visualize inside St. Denis Rectory and see Fr. Jim's office stripped bare (like his life) and Fr. Bill's office empty. It feels colder than the morgue.

It doesn't help to tell me you are going to give us the "best you can muster up." We had the very best and you have destroyed him.

Bewildered and saddened,

Sister Nora Brady, O.P.

Dear Jim:

I have received your letter of August 23, 1996 in which you offered your resignation from the pastorate of St. Denis Parish. In light of your letter, and the reasons you mentioned, I hereby accept your resignation, effective immediately.

Through a copy of this letter, I will inform the Vicar, the Dean and also Father Tkachuk, who has faithfully and capably served the parish through this interim period.

Jim, I know this was a very difficult decision for you and I can appreciate the respect and love you have for the people of Saint Denis. I know, too, that your decision was motivated by your deep love for your parishioners so that they can move on to more permanent pastoral leadership. Be assured of my gratitude for all you did for the people of Saint Denis during your eight years there.

I know, Jim, that this is a time of grief for you in many respects. Mindful of the pain and hurt being felt by yourself and others at this time, I will pray that true healing may come to you and to all involved in this process.

Re: Jim Hagan

During the wake and the funeral, I gave permission for Jim Hagan to stay at the motel in Broadview. At the time he had given me the phone number. I have it written down somewhere but I cannot locate it right now. I just wanted to pass this information of my approving a change in his protocol

Also, he had mentioned at the wake that when the funeral was over he intends to go away for a while with his brother. I hope he has been in touch with you for this change in protocol. In the past few days I have not been able to make contact with him. I hope this is not interpreted as any break of his protocol on his part or any mettling on my part. It seemed practical and pastoral at the time. If this behavior on my part seems problematic please let me know.

July 1, 1996

Dear [REDACTED],

I have received your letter of June 21, 1996 in which you ask me to reach out to you as I have to the homeless, those dying of cancer, those torn by the tragedy of abortion or violence in the home. I will write to you as I do to them, with candor.

Let me begin by apologizing for any hurt, affront, injustice or disrespect you have experienced because of those of us you name "Catholic Church administrators." In their names, I ask your forgiveness. Forgive from your heart, [REDACTED], and now put the difficulty of the past behind you and move on. I hope you can explain to your children that you have taken the Lord's teaching very seriously: "I forgive all who have injured me and ask pardon of all I have injured." Your example will help your children now and for their difficult times in years ahead.

When I write to cancer victims like myself, I try to encourage them not to question the Lord's action in their lives but to place themselves in God's care. The tendency to ask "Why me?" is strong in all of us. The mystery of suffering demands very strong faith as response.

This letter is not going to try to explain or comment on every point you make in your letter. I do not have the facts to enable me to do that. I must say, however, that the allegations you reference about Father James Hagan must, by policy, be forwarded to the Vicar for Priests Office and to Bishop Conway, as you suggest.

Please put the past behind you by refusing to think of the injuries. I will pray for you and your family that peace of heart and mind may be yours.

Memo to File (hagan08)
From: Rev. Daniel Coughlin
Date: 6/2/96
Re: James Hagan

On May 28 I had a long phone conversation with Fr. Bill Tkachuk. On that evening they were planning an evening service designed to deal with some of the needed healing of the parishioners and to commend the parish, Jim Hagan and others to the Lord in prayer.

In the course of conversation, Bill expressed a great deal of concern and described his personal determinations on how to respond to the pastoral concerns which were surfacing from the people. Many in the community have great affection for Jim Hagan and want to know more about him, his well-being and the procedures with which he is being handled.

Most recently a Lutheran minister spoke to some people about what he knew, which was not very much, and Bill in turn called the Lutheran minister and expressed his concerns that although there needs to be consideration for Jim Hagan there also needs to be concern for the victims.

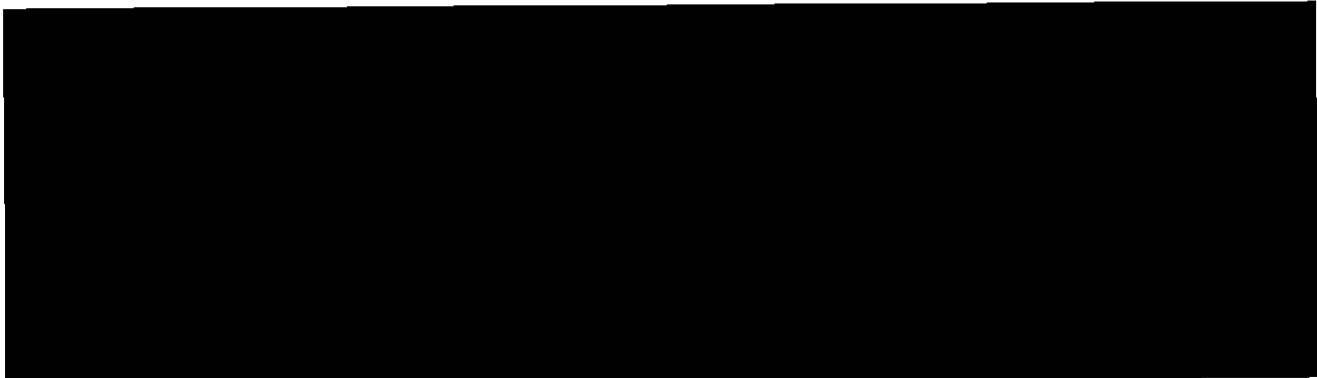

In the course of conversation Bill mentioned that he had designed an item for the Parish Bulletin in which he wanted to acknowledge and thank people for their prayers and cards, which were being sent to Jim Hagan. This would appear in next week's bulletin. Bill agreed to FAX a copy of the article to us here. Pat O'Malley and I looked at the article and the first few paragraphs were very good and were right on the mark but we had some objections to the third paragraph because it used the word "rumors" and we thought that the whole last paragraph did not quite fit with the others and if rumors were going to be addressed it was better to use the language of questions and concerns.

Late on Tuesday, May 28, I got in touch with Bill Tkachuk again and told him of our concerns. It was his judgement that it was best to address the article as written and perhaps it was too late for any revision.

In turn I asked him how the evening of prayer was received. Bill described it as a service of evening prayer with the rosary, about 200 persons attended.

In the structure of the rosary each decade was announced for a specific intention. The first was for Jim Hagan himself, the second was for young people who may have been victims, the third was for the parish, the fourth was for abuse in everyone's own lives and the fifth was for all the professionals who are involved in such matters. Bill described a reception afterwards where people talked to each other and talked very freely. Everyone was of the mind that such public prayer was very helpful. It calmed everyone. It had a deep and personal effect. The public prayer was a way of focussing individuals' personal prayer. In the course of conversation Bill found himself commenting not only on the public prayer but also stating that there was no intention of manipulating or re-directing anyone's individual or personal prayer. In the end, people were stating that perhaps they should meet monthly for such a prayer service. Bill said that he would wait to see whether this was an invitation that came from a number of people or just from one or two.

On Sunday, June 2, I tried to reach Jim Hagan at Koenig Hall to express my concern about him. He had just left to visit his mother. I asked that he call me the following day.

On Monday June 3, I spoke with Hagan. He in turn informed me that he has been in touch with [REDACTED] After some delay and another contact with [REDACTED] office the raw data was finally forwarded.

On Monday June 10, Jim Hagan informed me that his mother suffered a rather serious stroke. They do not know yet the extent of the damages. [REDACTED]

Later today I spoke with [REDACTED] (her pager is: [REDACTED]) As they prepare a substantial program for JH, she asked if I thought that they might interview any alledged victims. I told her that I have not met them nor do I know them. I had been told however that they were close friends and desired to remain anonymous. But I said I would confer with Ralph B and get back to her.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

The protocol and the task for Ralph [REDACTED] [REDACTED] were reaffirmed with Ralph B on the phone on Wed. June 12.

At the convocation Tom Dore talked to DC again about another possible victim. DC again encouraged Tom to urge the man to come forward so that the church could help this person. This would not necessarily change JH's situation with the FRD. Ralph was also informed that this may all happen. I encouraged that Ralph and Bernadette meet with the man. The Vicar's office would say out of this and there was no reason to put the man thru this more than once before help could be offerd to him.

On June 17 we were informed that the family was not disposed to allow JH to celbrate any public service for his mother. If she were to die they can only imagine a "private ceremony".

Ralph was told of [REDACTED] request. After some discussion he and I decided that the timing was not good for the Archdiocese to give [REDACTED] their names or draw them into anything not of their design for our sake or for JH's sake.

I contacted [REDACTED] and told her this. She still hopes that in the future there might be the opportunity to interview even anonymously. I encouraged her to speak to Bernadette since BC asks about force in her interviews.

Re: Jim Hagan

At the Cardinal's anniversary celebration on May 8, Fr. Tom Dore approached me with a matter he had hinted at over the phone. Over the phone he did not feel free to talk about the matter.

Tom told me that he had been contacted by a parishioner who he knew from years ago at St. Catherine of Siena parish. Tom knew that this person was also a friend of Jim Hagan. This man, now [REDACTED], said to Tom that he could understand what had recently been in the media regarding Jim Hagan. On a single instance, he had had to fight off Jim Hagan himself.

In the course of describing the conversation, Tom mentioned that this young man [REDACTED]

I suggested to Tom that he contact the young man again and tell him that the Archdiocese is concerned about him. It is obvious that Fr. Hagan is already being taken care of, but if he were to come forward and make himself known to the Archdiocese, we could afford him every help, pastoral or psychological, to heal any wounds inflicted in the past. I told Tom he could give him my name and phone number or that of Bernadette Connolly or of Ralph Bonaccorsi. Tom seemed to understand our commitment to helping victims. Tom said that he was also concerned and would do his best to convince the man to seek help.

On May 14 I again had a conversation with Tom Dore. He assured me that he had contacted the man in question and had encouraged him to talk to Bernadette Connolly or me. Tom thought that at present he would not come forward because he did not want to bring more of the past into the present. I encouraged Tom to wait a while, perhaps a couple weeks, and then again reach out to the man personally to see if he could be of any pastoral assistance to him and to again assure him of our concern and our desire to assist him in any way we can.

Re: Jim Hagan

On April 24, [REDACTED], it was learned that Mary Ann Ahearn was asking questions as to why Fr. Hagan was no longer at St. Denis parish. Within minutes the two-minute drill went into effect and all proper persons were notified and the time table that had first been enunciated out of care for the victims had to be ammended as we pressed ahead, targeting basic parish information for Sunday, April 28.

On Thursday, April 25, I met with Jim Hagan at the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House. We had a very open and cordial conversation. He seemed well disposed toward making his first step [REDACTED].

On Sunday, April 28, I was in touch by phone with Fr. Bill Tkachuk, presently the administrator of St. Denis parish. Bill told me that Jim Hagan had told him the names of the two families involved. Bill in turn informed Ralph Bonaccorsi that he knew of these two families and assured Ralph that it would go no further. Also, he wanted Ralph to tell the families that he knew from Jim Hagan that they were involved so that he could be of pastoral help to them if and when they needed it.

Bill assured me that he would be receiving and sending all messages to Jim Hagan himself.

Jim Hagan has called him and talked to him. They seem to have a strong relationship. This is helpful for the parish at this time. The Sisters from the parish have visited Jim Hagan's mother.

The people of the parish seem curious as to the circumstances in which Jim Hagan now finds himself. Their concern is for him. Many people will not accept the fact that he has done wrong.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Jim Hagan was invited to return to Chicago and to again live in his monitored situation following his strict protocol.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

We agreed to have a further conversation about his things and finances, especially as these impact on his mother and St. Denis parish. We agreed to have this conversation after he returns to Chicago.

On Saturday, May 4, I called Bill Tkachuk. Pat O'Malley and I helped him address some of his pastoral and personal questions. These had to do with people's questions in the parish, with Jim's belongings and with future possibilities. Bill seemed satisfied with our answers. He also will be seeking the help he needs as he responds to this challenging pastoral situation.

Dear Jim:

I have received your letter of March 31, 1997, and hereby regretfully accept your resignation from active ministry as a priest, effective immediately. I know, Jim, that this time has been very painful and difficult. Thank you for discussing this decision with Father Dan Coughlin and for your gracious letter to me. It is my hope that the inner peace you have found will remain with you in the months and years ahead.

The official process to change one's canonical status from cleric to layperson involves seeking dispensation from the obligations of priesthood through laicization. In order to initiate such a process, you should speak with Father Emmett Gavin, O.Carm. He can be reached at 312-751-8211. I am sure you will find him most helpful.

Be assured of my deep appreciation, Jim, for having given over twenty-two years of service in the Archdiocese. No doubt, your ministry and presence were of significant help to many people.

Know of my encouragement and prayers.

With best wishes, Jim, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ

Dear Father Hagan:

As you were informed yesterday by Bernadette Connolly, Professional Fitness Review Administrator, allegations of clerical sexual misconduct with minors have been brought against you. After she met with you and your attorney, the Professional Fitness Review Board met last evening. The Board determined that there is reasonable cause to suspect that you engaged in sexual misconduct with minors. Cardinal Bernardin accepted this determination and the Review Board's recommendations, as follows:

Out of concern for your own welfare and that of the Church, you are hereby placed on administrative leave of absence from ministry. During the period of this leave, you are required to absent yourself from St. Denis Parish.

You are to go immediately to stay at Koenig Hall of the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House in Mundelein, Illinois. [REDACTED]

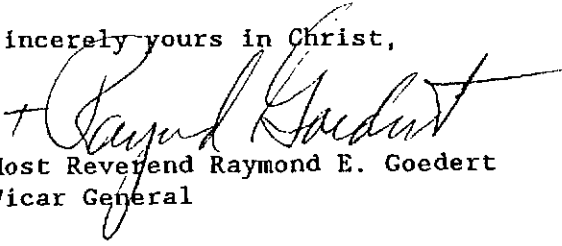

During this period of administrative leave, it is understood that you are not to exercise public ministry nor represent yourself publicly as a priest. You are not authorized to act as an agent or representative of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

You are not to be alone with any minor without the presence of another responsible adult. Moreover, you are not to have any contact with the [REDACTED]

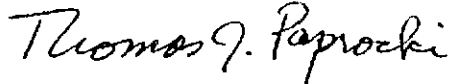

Jim, I know that this is a difficult time for you and for all the concerned parties. Please be assured of a special place in my prayers. I encourage your full cooperation with these actions.

Dear Jim,

I am writing this letter rather than phoning you because it is so difficult at times to make connections by phone. I call, you're not there; you call back, I'm not there! And so it goes.

I want to set your mind at ease a bit. You undoubtedly know that the Cardinal recently appointed a commission to review all cases of alleged or real child abuse in our archdiocesan records. We presented to the commission every case that has come to our attention in the past thirty years.

One of those cases was the situation in which you were involved in May of 1988. When we presented the facts, the commission agreed with our assessment and our handling of the incident. They also agreed that there was no need for action at this time. As far as they were concerned, the incident is closed.

While it is always painful to bring that incident up again, I felt you might well be worried as to whether it had been considered by the commission.

Not to worry. We can put it away for good now. If you want to pursue this matter any further, don't hesitate to call. But, as I said, I'm now going to place the file on the inactive list.

I hope things are going well with you, Jim, and I hope this Advent season will be a fruitful and expectant one for you and your people.

Fraternally yours,

RE: James Hagan

1. [REDACTED]

2. While Jim and I were discussing, Jim Hagan called quite upset about a turn of events. He said that one of the parishioners, a [REDACTED], who is the mother of one of the children in school, called him about another parishioner, [REDACTED] who had received a call from a Marlin Daniels, who said that he was from Catholic Charities, the Department of Children and Family Services.

3. I asked Jim to clarify that, as either Daniels worked for Catholic Charities or he worked for DCFS, but he wouldn't be employed by both. Jim Hagan really didn't know who he worked for, but the impression he got was that he was employed by Catholic Charities. [REDACTED] was very upset because Daniels was asking her about possible child abuse and she did not feel that either she or her child was a victim or that Hagan was a perpetrator. But the whole conversation upset Jim Hagan very much.

4. I told Jim to stand by and I immediately called Ed Conway at Catholic Charities. Ed checked their computer and said that there is no such employee by that name nor has there ever been. Ed then checked it out further and found out that [REDACTED] was called by DCFS this morning around 10:00. Apparently Daniels works for DCFS and Ed will check this out. Ed subsequently told me that [REDACTED], who is one of [REDACTED] superiors, did indicate that she knew Marlin Daniels and said that he was a pretty good case worker.

5. [REDACTED]

6. I called Jim Hagan back just to pass along this information and to re-assure him. He was quite distraught and very appreciative of all the help he was being given. I told him to sit tight until we have an answer from DCFS.

RE: James Hagan

Jim Hagan called today. He and Bill Kenneally have talked over all of this and Jim came up with something that may be of help. He said that ordinarily they would use a screen in the reconciliation room so that the children would have the option of going behind the screen or face to face. Jim recalled that the screen broke during the last series of confessions and so the last three grades would have had to go face to face with no option. Jim mentioned this, because when he was here to see me he did state that the screen would have been there. Jim also feels sure that he said something to the children that if they wished to go anonymously, they should go to Fr. Kenneally in the regular reconciliation room.

Jim was obviously disturbed at all of this and said that he had a very rough weekend. Although I was going to wait until he had finished his meeting with Jim Serritella, I thought I should put him at ease and let him know that my interview with the girl and her mother on Saturday morning convinced me that there was nothing to the charge of child abuse. I told him that he will probably have to modify his style of offering the sacrament of reconciliation, but that there was no evidence to point to any sexual intent on his part. I also told him that neither the daughter nor the mother intend to pursue this, as the child's mother seems satisfied that all the necessary steps have been taken and that there was not, in fact, any sexual exploitation or child abuse involved. I will call Jim again after I hear from Jim Serritella.

STATEMENT OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO
RE: Rev. James Hagan
August 28, 1996

After further inquiry into the allegations of sexual misconduct with minors against Father James Hagan, Pastor of St. Denis Parish, 8301 South St. Louis Ave., the Professional Fitness Review Board conducted a Second Stage Review on Wednesday, August 21, 1996. The Board recommended that Father Hagan's withdrawal from ministry continue. Cardinal Bernardin has accepted this recommendation. Following this decision, Cardinal Bernardin has accepted Father Hagan's resignation as pastor of St. Denis Parish.

This Second Stage Review was conducted in keeping with Archdiocesan policies and procedures, which provide that such a review shall ordinarily be initiated and scheduled to occur no earlier than 30 and no later than 120 days after completion of the First Stage Review. Father Hagan's First Stage Review was completed on April 22, 1996. Father Hagan has been on administrative leave since that time.

Cardinal Bernardin has expressed his concern for Father Hagan, for those who brought the allegations, and for all the people of St. Denis Parish. He acknowledged that this is a time of grief in many respects. Mindful of the pain and hurt being felt at this time, the Cardinal expressed his hope that true peace and healing may come to all involved in this process.

Dear [REDACTED]

This short note is just to assure you that the letter to me that you sent to Mayra and Leah has been forwarded. Thank you for writing.

I am grateful that you followed up on the allegation you first made before I came to Chicago and that the Archdiocese has, at least in some fashion, reached out to support you. I would suggest that the information you have about promotions and other internal movements of the Archdiocese is inadequate, and I would also suggest that you consult our website to see what happened in the Daniel McCormack case as analyzed by Daniel Defenbaugh.

I look forward to our meeting in the summer and to any information you might want to send before that. In the meantime, you are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Sincerely yours,

Francis Cardinal George

Re: Hagan laicization (Prot. No. 176/08).

According to the Postal Service documentation that we received, on Saturday, July 10, 2010, James C. Hagan received the canonical notification of his return to the lay state, that is his laicization. The letter informing him of his laicization also asked that by July 29, 2010 he contact either me or Deacon Dan Welter to sign the decree of laicization; he never contacted us.

Pursuant to that:

1. Both original copies of the Decree will be signed by Cardinal George and notarized by Jimmy Lago.
2. One original will be returned to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith and the other original will be filed in James C. Hagan's Chancery file.
3. Access to the signed original of the Rescript in his Chancery file should be done through the Chancellor.
4. The effective date of the laicization is April 23, 2010, the date that the Holy Father decreed his laicization.
5. In accord with Canons 535, §2 and 1054, a request has been sent to the parish of his baptism asking that the entry that records his baptism now also note his return to the lay state and his release from all the corresponding obligations, including that of celibacy. The parish has been instructed that whenever a certificate attesting to his baptism is issued, there is not to be any mention of his ordination as a Deacon and a Priest, not should there be any mention of the obligation of celibacy.
6. Any inquiries about his return to the lay state should be referred to the Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago. In the letter to his parish of Baptism, it was requested that this also should be noted in his baptismal entry.

Summary of Allegation

The Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review [CAIR] was first made known of [REDACTED] allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against the former Rev. James Hagan on October 30, 2008 through his civil attorney [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] met Fr. Hagan the summer between sixth and seventh grades at St. Richard. He was a part of the carnival clean up crew and met Fr. Hagan there. [REDACTED] explained that the crew cleaned up three or four days after the carnival.

[REDACTED] said that it was in seventh grade when Fr. Hagan would have movie nights in the rectory. He spoke of the movie nights in Fr. Hagan's room including [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said that Fr. Hagan would fondle whoever he was sitting next to at the movie nights. He continued by saying that Fr. Hagan would feel him up over his clothing and fondle his genitals. When asked, [REDACTED] said that "the gang" included a specific group of kids [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that Fr. Hagan also took him and the other boys to the movie theater. He remembers no one wanting to ride in Fr. Hagan's car. When asked, [REDACTED] said that Fr. Hagan also abused him in the car in the same manner as already described, fondling his genitals over and under clothing. [REDACTED] estimated that there were between five and 10 incidents of fondling by Fr. Hagan in the cleric's car.

As per [REDACTED] Fr. Hagan fondled him in the same manner while at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] while he, Fr. Hagan, and the other participants sat in a circle.

When asked, [REDACTED] was eventually able to say that there were at least 10 or 15 incidents of Fr. Hagan fondling him at St. Denis during movie nights as previously described. When asked, [REDACTED] said that also at St. Denis there were always other kids in the room when Fr. Hagan abused him, just as at St. Richard. [REDACTED] said that the room was always dark and that it [the room] was always full of kids. When asked, [REDACTED] said that he does not remember the last time he saw Fr. Hagan.

Summary of Response

Rev. Edward Grace, Vicar for Priests, arranged for a phone call with Mr. Hagan that took place on January 20, 2009. After reading the entire report of [REDACTED] allegation, Mr. Hagan was asked if he wished to respond, to which he stated, "No. No comment."

Re: RESPONSE TO ALLEGATION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AGAINST
REV. JAMES HAGAN [RESIGNED] MADE BY [REDACTED]

Date of Conference Call: January 20, 2009

Time of Conference Call: 1:45 pm

Rev. Edward Grace, Vicar for Priests
Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review

Conference Call

Rev. Edward Grace made arrangements for Mr. James Hagan to call the Vicar for Priests' Office at 1:30 pm on January 20, 2009. Mr. Hagan did call promptly at 1:30 pm, but due to the fact that I was late, Fr. Grace asked Mr. Hagan to call back in 15 minutes, which he did.

When Mr. Hagan called the office for the second time, I apologized for being late and thanked him for his time. I asked Mr. Hagan if he had any questions prior to me reading [REDACTED] allegation against him. Mr. Hagan said that he had no questions.

I proceeded by reading the report of [REDACTED] allegations against Fr. Hagan in its entirety. When I concluded, I asked Mr. Hagan if he wished to respond. Mr. Hagan replied, "No. No comment." I then asked Mr. Hagan if he would like a copy of the report of [REDACTED] allegation mailed to him. Mr. Hagan said that he did not.

I informed Mr. Hagan that this matter would go before the Review Board for its considerations and recommendations to Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I. I asked Mr. Hagan if he would like for me to send the related letters informing him of Cardinal George's decisions at the two different stages this matter might be before the Board. Mr. Hagan said that he would like copies of such letters sent to him. When I asked Mr. Hagan for his mailing address, he stated that Fr. Grace had it. However, when Fr. Grace informed Mr. Hagan of the mailing address that he had on file [a P.O. Box in Forest Park, Illinois] Mr. Hagan said that he has not used that address in 10 years. I asked Mr. Hagan if he could provide me with his current address. Mr. Hagan would not give me his address and stated that he would give it to Fr. Grace when they talked. Fr. Grace and I again thanked Mr. Hagan for his time. We asked Mr. Hagan to call either of us if he had any questions or concerns.

Leah,

Just to be safe, I will try to have Jim call at 1:30 rather than at 1:00. Unfortunately, he is hard to contact quickly. If I do not get in touch with him beforehand and he calls before you get here on Tuesday, I'll ask him to call back in a few minutes. It should be fine.

Today, at about 1:30 p.m. I received a telephone call from a woman who identified herself as [REDACTED]. She stated that she had been trying earlier today to contact the CAIR office, but the phone numbers she found on the website proved to be disconnected. [REDACTED] stated that she then called the main OPCY number, at which point Carolyn Perz connected her to me.

[REDACTED] stated that she had a friend who recently disclosed that he was sexually abused as a child by Fr. James Hagan at St. Richard's. She estimated that the alleged abuse took place some time between 1980 and 1983. [REDACTED] stated that her friend is a 43-year-old male. I explained to [REDACTED] how the Assistance Ministry process and the CAIR process work. She thanked me and told me that her friend would be calling me directly later this afternoon.

At about 3:00 p.m., [REDACTED] called back and stated, "Matt, it's [REDACTED]. Here he is." A man then began speaking, identifying himself as [REDACTED]. He stated that he was sexually abused as a minor by Fr. James Hagan. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I also provided him with Leah McCluskey's name and title, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I informed [REDACTED] that, if and when the time comes that he feels he is ready to formalize his allegation, he could contact our office for the appropriate information.

Conference Call

Rev. Edward Grace made arrangements for Mr. James Hagan to call the Vicar for Priests' Office at 1:30 pm on April 1, 2009. Mr. Hagan called the office promptly at 1:30 pm.

Fr. Grace and I began by thanking Mr. Hagan for his time and for agreeing to participate in the phone call. I asked Mr. Hagan if he had any questions prior to me reading [REDACTED] allegation against him. Mr. Hagan said that he had no questions.

I proceeded by reading the report of [REDACTED] allegations against Fr. Hagan in its entirety. When I concluded, I asked Mr. Hagan if he wished to respond. Mr. Hagan replied, "I have no comment." I then asked Mr. Hagan if he would like a copy of the report of [REDACTED] allegation mailed to him. Mr. Hagan said that he did not.

I informed Mr. Hagan that this matter would go before the Review Board for its considerations and recommendations to Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I. I asked Mr. Hagan if he would like for me to send the related letters informing him of Cardinal George's decisions at the two different stages this matter might be before the Board. Mr. Hagan said that he did not want any such letters sent to him.

Fr. Grace and I again thanked Mr. Hagan for his time. When asked, Mr. Hagan said that he did know how to reach Fr. Grace if he had any future questions for me.

RE: [REDACTED] [v. Rev. James Hagan, resigned]
DATE: November 3, 2008

On October 30, 2008, I spoke to [REDACTED] regarding the Archdiocesan process for formalizing his allegation against “Fr. James” [Hagan]. Note: [REDACTED] did not identify the priest in this telephone conversation. During the call:

- I clarified that supportive services from the Office of Assistance Ministry are available to him and his wife, [REDACTED] even before he formalizes his allegation with the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review.
- I briefly described the intake process, and informed him that he could bring someone of support with him to the meeting, if he so wished.
- [REDACTED] was concerned that he would not be able to remember all he wanted to report. I assured him that he would have an opportunity to add his own notations to the written report once he receives it.
- When asked, I informed [REDACTED] that his report would be shared with specific internal archdiocesan personnel (e.g., the Cardinal, the Vicar for Priests Office, etc.) as well as with the State’s Attorney. He said he understood.
- [REDACTED] shared his anxiety about not fully understanding the Review Board Process. I encouraged him to call Leah McCluskey so that she could speak more specifically about the process. I provided him with her contact information.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] shared his appreciation for the information received, and for the availability to him and his wife during this stressful time. [REDACTED]

Subject: Father James Hagan

From: [REDACTED]

To: Whoever is looking into the allegations of misconduct. Is it still Mr. Bonacoursi?

I was very upset to hear the allegations re. Father James Hagan. In 1988 several mothers from St. Gertrude's (17) called [REDACTED] at St. Gertrude's to complain about Father Hagan rubbing their daughter's legs in face to face confession and putting his hands very high up on their legs under their skirts. The girls were especially upset when Fr. Hagan then was selected to teach them sex education in a room with just the girls and with the door closed. There were complaints made to the principal who was not cooperative. As I was not the parent of a girl I heard that when the moms planned a meeting to discuss this the pastor broke up the meeting and said it would look bad for the parish. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] My son agreed to tell his story to DCFS and the police as did one brave young woman. The other girls took back their stories after the pastor approached their mothers. I called to complain to [REDACTED] who said he would believe [REDACTED] over me any day as [REDACTED] was his friend.

I was very upset to hear Hagan was reassigned to St. Denis especially after that school had experienced molestation by a science teacher that same year. I talked to [REDACTED] and voiced my dismay.

I know that the Archdiocese must be aware of this. Why did you allow him to go to St. Denis? I had better hear soon that you are acknowledging this or I will have to go to the media. This is incestuous and very very sad. In 1988 I told the Archdiocese they had better watch him and if anything else happened I would go public. I will or ask the students to do so. If even one St. Denis student comes forward let it be on your conscience. I pray you will make the correct decision.

[REDACTED]

March 31, 1997

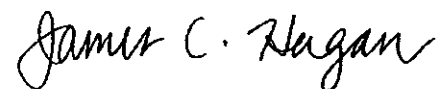

Dear Bishop Goedert,

After much thought and prayer and with inner peace regarding this decision, I wish to submit my resignation from the priesthood. I ask you to accept this resignation and to know that even as I move on to a new life, I take with me twenty-two plus years of ministry that I will treasure and remember with pride.

At this time I would also like to personally thank you for the care, support, and concern you have shown me over the years. Your goodness will not be forgotten.

During this time of transition I ask for your continued prayers and assure you of mine.

Sincerely,

REPORTS: (09/27/96)

JERRY BOLAND MET WITH THE COMMUNITY OF ST. DENIS ON MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23.

Staff Meeting: At the meeting conducted with the parish staff, the staff described St. Denis as a parish that is still grieving the loss of their pastor James Hagan. There are also a fair amount of feelings regarding the process that led to this decision. The staff and parish leadership have been dealing very deliberately with this. People are in a better place than where they were at. A number of positive things have surfaced out of this experience. In addition to a sense of loss regarding the pastor, some people are disappointed that Fr. Bill Tkachuk is also leaving. In the larger community there is a fair amount of ethnic and racial change going on. A number of parishioners feel a sense of abandonment. The parish has been blessed with a strong and credible lay leadership presence, and prides itself on the spirit of hospitality. The parish council has been very effective. It hopes to become a more active agent in welcoming new members into the community. Evangelization is critical. In terms of a new pastor, people hope that it is someone who is sensitive ... a people person ... someone able to delegate ... someone who values liturgy and is a good preacher. The new pastor must take on an attitude of assisting the community in moving forward. They want someone who will be happy to be here ... someone who will be willing to be present to the community ... someone who is supportive of the parish's outreach in terms of community organization.

Jerry Boland and Bishop John Gorman conducted the town hall with the parishioners in the evening. (About 150 people were present.) The meeting was positive and honest. The people have felt the pain of a lot of change, they want to take a more positive approach to new members moving into the community. In addition to African-Americans, there are a growing number of Hispanics and a growing number of Filipinos. The Board was presented with about 100 petitions from Spanish speaking parishioners expressing their hope that the new pastor encourage and foster efforts to reach out to the Hispanic community. Many of the Hispanics are going to other parishes because not much is going on at St. Denis for them. Parishioners spoke about the importance of the school, the importance of liturgy. They want: a pastor who will work in partnership with them, someone who is able to delegate ... to see a pastor who will really assume the mantle of spiritual leadership ... they want and hope for a pastor who is willing to invest in the community and call St. Denis home.
