Dear Bishop O'Donnell:

I became aware of a situation about four months ago which has concerned me. Recently, I spoke to a Priest about it, and he suggested that I write to you.

I have charge of a college residence hall. About five months ago I absent mindedly opened a letter in my mailbox while opening my mail. This letter was addressed to one of the dorm girls whose mailbox was near mine, but it was put in the wrong mailbox by the girl at the switchboard. The letter was obviously from a Priest, but it was signed love, Rick. The contents of the letter indicated [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In checking I have found that she writes to Father almost every day, and he writes about three times a week. Father's name is Father Richard Theisen and hers is [REDACTED]. I do not want to accuse them of anything wrong, however, I would not want anything to happen to either of them, especially Father.

I have said nothing to [REDACTED], and she is not aware that I know about the situation for I merely wrote opened by mistake on the envelope without signing my name.

The Priest that I consulted said that you would know how to take care of the situation. I realize that it is most difficult without any proof, and just the above information, but I will help in any way I can.

Very truly yours,
[REDACTED]

Your Excellency:

The attached letter was received while you were in Rome. As yet I have not acknowledged it for I judged it should be referred to you. We have had complaints of the same nature about Fr. Theisen in the past, but could never prove anything. I have had him in the Chancery twice several years ago, but he always denied being involved. If there is anything you wish me to do about the matter please let me know.

Dear [Redacted]

Through the kindness of Bishop O'Donnell, he has shared your very gracious letter of April 17, 1966 with me in view of the urgency of the matter.

It seems quite providential that you opened the letter which was intended for one of your students and I see in this a special act of Divine Providence to protect one of our young priests. After having discussed the matter thoroughly with him, I do hope that this association will be immediately terminated. He is surely aware of the precarious position in which he has placed himself and he realizes, I believe, the scandal of which he may unwittingly been the cause. I have given him very definite directives and I pray that this matter will be settled at once.

I am personally very grateful to you for having the courage and the determination to bring this to the attention of the proper ecclesiastical authorities. In the field of human relations and emotions all too often direct contact with Superiors is the last thing to be thought of. It is for this reason I express my deep personal appreciation for your communication.

Begging God to bless you in your dedicated work and assuring you of a continuing remembrance in my prayers, I am, dear [Redacted]

Very truly yours in Christ,

REPORT OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS WITH RICHARD THEISSEN, ST. LEONARD

Dick wants to teach religion in high school. He is disturbed at what the young people are getting today in their courses. He feels he is qualified to do a good job. He is not necessarily looking for a full-time job as such. When I pressed him, he allowed as how he had done the associate - teacher role at Francis de Sáles. This was very taxing, and he does not want to do it again.

What he wants is an assignment to teach religion. He could do this while still being an associate, but he does not want to go through the problem of fighting the pastor or staff to teach. He wants a clear appointment to be "associate at ___ parish also to teach mornings at _____ high school."

It took some digging to get this out of Dick. I'm not sure whether he just hadn't given it specific thought or whether he was "afraid" to ask. My impression is that authority is a problem with him. He wants clear cut directions.

He is not unhappy, nor is he seeking an immediate change. He just wants the board to consider the needs of high school youngsters for good religious training, and if any openings as described come along, he is volunteering his services.

I asked him to write an official request to the Board clearly stating his own priorities - this letter to be filed in his active file for future reference. I also told him I would personally keep an eye open.

2. Reports:

- Re: Richard Theisen: O'Malley reported that Dick is interested in teaching religion in a high school in the mornings and also working as an associate in a parish. However, to avoid the problem of having to fight the pastor and associates to enable him to teach, he would want a clear appointment to be "an associate at _____ parish and to teach mornings at _____ high school." O'Malley asked Dick to write to the Board so that his request can be noted in his active file.

O

For the reasons which we have discussed personally in our meeting of April 8, 1978, I am hereby honoring your request for a temporary leave of absence from your priestly duties. Your leave of absence will be in effect from June 12, 1978 through December 12, 1978.

While on leave, your license to function, or represent yourself as a priest is withdrawn, and you are dispensed from the normal obligations of clerical garb and the Divine Office.

Please keep us informed of your address and your employment while you are on leave from the Archdiocese. When your leave is about to expire, I would ask that you contact me so that we might discuss what should be done at that time.

Dear Cardinal Cody,

Now that the six months of my leave of absence has expired, I am writing to you, as you asked in your letter of June 7. During the past six months I have given the whole matter a great deal of thought, and have reached a final decision. I do not wish to return to active ministry in the Archdiocese. Rather, I would ask your permission to petition for laicization.

I have been spending a good deal of time in Florida, and for the time being will be alternating between several places there. However, a letter addressed to me at Grayslake will be forwarded.

I would deeply appreciate receiving the necessary information concerning the procedure to be followed in asking to be laicized.

Dear Dick,

I would have gotten this to you earlier, except I had a few days hassling with the flu. It must be the result of this "typical" northern weather.

I will be here until January 20, should you wish to get in touch with me regarding this petition. I feel sorry for you having to read the whole dreary thing. However, after you do, if you feel there is something that should be added, subtracted or changed, please let me know. I certainly value your judgement.

If I have not heard from you by January 20, I will return to Floriday until March 15. I will be back here then for the Spring (hopefully). Should you need to contact me, you can either send a letter to this Grayslake address, and it will be forwarded, or you can write to me at [REDACTED]

RE: Richard Theisen

1. Richard Theisen, ordained in 1952, left the active ministry some time after 1977. Dick is a classmate of mine and I know that he was still around at the time of our silver anniversary. His name came up in conversation with several classmates yesterday and one mentioned that he had talked to Dick about whether he had ever been laicized.

2. Dick's response was something to the effect that he had submitted a petition, but had never heard anything or received any acknowledgement. Whether or not this is factual, I do not know. If he did present a petition, I suspect it would have been long before you were on the scene. At any rate, could you check through your various files and let me know whether or not you have anything at all on Dick's case. I would like to encourage him to pursue it, but thought it might be better to first find out just what information you have.

Re: Richard Theisen
Date: October 29, 1990

I checked through Richard Theisen's file. The petition was sent to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in early 1979. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

If you (or Richard Theisen) wish, I could draft a letter for the Cardinal asking for information on the status of the case.

It's interesting that I should be asked to read the file. I happen to be one of those who "blew the whistle" on him in 1966. He was having an affair with a young woman [REDACTED] in college. The Dean of Women absent-mindedly opened her mail without looking. One of the letters was from "Rick" in which he protested his love for this young lady and [REDACTED]. The Dean, a Dominican Sister, asked my advice. I suggested she write to Cody. She did and received a reply. I'd say he has a good case for laicization.

Let me know what you want to do.

Dear Tom,

I might just mention, Tom, that I checked out Dick Theisen's application for laicization. Fr. Dave Hynous, O.P., is the one who handles those petitions Dave's suggestion is that Dick contact him at the Pastoral Center (751-8213) if he wishes to pursue the petition. If Dick does want to continue the process, Dave would prepare a letter for the Cardinal's signature asking the Congregation to inform us of the status of the case. My guess is that the petition would be decided favorably, particularly in light of Dick's (and ours) advanced age. You might want to pass this information along to Dick, if you are in touch with him, or suggest that he call either myself or Dave Hynous. I would be happy to pave the way for him, if he would so wish. At any rate, Tom, maybe you can sound him out and just see what his thoughts are about this.

With best wishes, Tom, I remain

Dear Dick:

I was at the cottage last week and the fellas were talking about your brother's death a few weeks ago. I was out of town at the time, but I did want to express my sympathy to you and your family. I will offer a Mass for the repose of [REDACTED] soul. May Our Lord comfort you in your loss and grant to [REDACTED] quickly the joy of the Resurrection!

As long as I am writing to you, Dick, I'd like to mention something that Cardinal George talked about several times during the Jubilee Year that just concluded. He said he would be very happy to help any of our priests who had not been laicized, but would now be interested in pursuing the process. The policies in Rome have changed over the years and presently most of the petitions, especially from older men, have been granted. I know that you began the process quite awhile ago, but for one reason or other, it was never finished and sent to Rome.

You'll have to excuse me, Dick, if I have gone too far, but I asked Cardinal George specifically about your case. He said he would be delighted to see the process completed and he would personally endorse a favorable outcome. Of course, nothing can be done without your cooperation and approval. If you want me to back off, I will. On the other hand, if you give me the green light, I will find out what has to be done to prepare the case for Rome and will pursue it until we get an answer.

I didn't intend to bother you with so lengthy a letter, Dick, but you and our other classmates who have left the active ministry are very much on our minds as we approach our 50th Anniversary, and if I can be of help to any of you, our Golden Jubilee is certainly an opportune time to intervene.

With best wishes, Dick, to you and [REDACTED] and looking forward to hearing from you, I remain

Dear Ray,

Your incredibly kind and considerate letter arrived yesterday. I am greatly appreciative of your time and concern. I certainly would very much desire to complete the process of laicization that I began twenty-two years ago.

As you probably have guessed, there is a great deal more to this than appears of itself. I do not wish to revive all of the old bitterness at the way in which I was treated. At the time, I did everything that was required. I wrote all that was asked and submitted it to, as I recall, Father Keating. He assured me everything was in order and the petition would be sent to Rome. After several months of hearing nothing, I called him and I was told simply that Rome had refused my petition — no reason given. Tom Fahy, good friend that he was, tried to revive the case to no avail. Some day I would very much like you to know the entire story.

In the meantime, please be assured that I am extremely grateful to you for your interest and for all that you have done.

Sincerely,

Dick

RE: RICHARD THEISEN/LAICIZATION PETITION

Dick Theisen, a classmate of mine, would like to reopen his case for laicization. He began it with Dick Keating some 22 years ago, and, as best I can figure out, the case was sent to Rome in 1979. An acknowledgment of receipt of the case was dated February 8, 1979 under the protocol number 176/79s.

There is a letter to Cardinal Cody from the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, dated November 30, 1981 in which the Congregation seems to be asking for some sort of sworn statement from the petitioner. What that is all about I do not know.

I would appreciate it if you would look over the case and let me know what has to be done to complete the acts and satisfy the Congregation's request. I would be happy to follow up with Dick in any way I can be helpful. But before I call him in response to his letter of February 4, I'd like to know your thoughts about the likelihood of a favorable response, how long it would take, etc. Dick is 74 and had some serious health problems last summer. His wife is around 80. So time is crucial.

Fr. Kaczorowski and PRA contacted Mr. Reardon via phone from the Office of Professional Responsibility at 9:00am for the scheduled interview. Mr. Reardon then contacted Mr. Theisen and linked him to the conference call. The meeting was conducted entirely via speakerphone. Prior to reading the allegation, Mr. Reardon accepted PRA's offer to explain to Mr. Theisen the process of one formalizing an allegation of sexual misconduct against a cleric and the involvement of the Independent Review Board. PRA also agreed to Mr. Reardon's request to have a copy of allegation of sexual misconduct against Mr. Theisen.

PRA read to Mr. Theisen the entire revised allegation made against him by without any interruptions. Mr. Reardon asked for PRA to clarify the misconduct alleged by as well as her age at the time of the misconduct. Taking the requested information from the report, PRA informed Mr. Reardon that Mr. Reardon informed PRA that the reference was not clear and that he would wait to receive a copy of the report itself.

Mr. Reardon then referred to his "general feelings" regarding advising client against providing a response to an allegation when the client is resigned from the priesthood and "not seeking ministry." He continued by offering a "general denial" of sexual misconduct of a minor on behalf of Mr. Theisen. Mr. Reardon then asked, "Is that accurate Mr. Theisen?" to which Mr. Theisen responded, "Yes."

Mr. Reardon ended the conversation by informing PRA that upon his receipt of the report written based upon [REDACTED] allegation they [he and Mr. Theisen] "would determine if there was any reason to make any further response."

Memo

To: Leah McCluskey (Office of Professional Responsibility)
From: Fr. Dan Smilanic
Date: February 23, 2004
Re: Richard Gregory Theisen ('52) - PFR-205

I examined the entire file for Richard Gregory Theisen, ordained in 1952. There were several general items and one specific item that the board should know.

In general, he is described as intelligent, talented, immature and spoiled. Contrary to the clerical custom of the time, he wrote and published mystery novels under a pseudonym, as well as playing trombone in a jazz combo. The principle criticisms would be that he could not deal with authority, that would deliberately bate authority, and that he would blame others for problems rather than assuming some responsibility for his own part in the matter. In his first assignment, if there were a disagreement with the pastor he would enlist the aid of his wealthy mother to leverage for his position.

In 1966, it was discovered that he was exchanging emotionally-significant letters with a girl who attended [redacted] college.

[redacted] he was assigned to St. Francis de Sales.

[redacted] Her name was [redacted] Pursuant to the matter, the file contains a letter from the Dean of Students at the college, who was a Dominican sister, and correspondence from Cardinal Cody and another archdiocesan official, as well as several memos that reference the issue. There is no information about the further investigation of the case or about any actions taken.

In the file there is a reference to his having been confronted at the Chancery Office by three officials of the archdiocese over some issue. However, the reason for, and the outcome of, the confrontation is not stated. Whether or not the confrontation arose out of his relationship with the girl or out of an authority conflict is not clear.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract accompanies a redacted memorandum from Fr. Daniel Smilanic, of the Office of the Metropolitan Tribunal, Archdiocese of Chicago, to Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, dated February 23, 2004. In his memorandum, Smilanic summarizes information found in Fr. Richard Theisen's file in the Office of the Chancellor at the Archdiocese of Chicago. Included in his file are documents indicating Theisen maintained a relationship with Victim JW, a female college-age student in a neighboring state. In addition, documents indicated that Victim JW and Theisen would spend unsupervised time together at Theisen's parent's summer home.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note in response to your letter of March 3, 2004, regarding the matter of Richard Theisen, a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago who has been dispensed from the obligations of the clerical state, and the allegation made by [REDACTED] regarding the Initial Review which is to be conducted by the Professional Responsibility Review Board on February 21, 2004.

In light of the Board's consideration of the information presented in this matter at their regular meeting of February 21, 2004, I accept the Board's recommendation to me that the information about the offense at least seems to be true.

Since Richard Theisen has already been dismissed from the clerical state by virtue of his laicization, I cannot take any further action against him. However, I would ask that you make a further inquiry into this matter to see if there is additional information available. In conducting this information, please make every effort to ensure that Mr. Theisen's right to privacy is protected and that nothing is done which would damage his reputation. After you have conducted your inquiry, please report back to me about the results.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

MEMORANDUM

To: File - PFR - 205

From: Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review

Re: Theisen, Richard Gregory (Deceased)/ [REDACTED]

Date: June 10, 2011

Upon a file review it was determined that when this matter was first reported, the names of the alleged victim (Unidentified per [REDACTED] Diocese) and the accused were not known. Therefore, the original PFR file on this matter was PFR – 97 Unidentified/Unidentified. However, when the alleged victim was eventually identified [REDACTED] and the accused was identified as Rev. Richard Gregory Theisen, a new PFR file was created (PFR – 205 Theisen, Richard Gregory/[REDACTED]) as opposed to updating the existing PFR – 97 file (to become PFR – 205 Theisen, Richard Gregory/[REDACTED]).

I have combined the aforementioned files to become one final file: PFR – 205 Theisen, Richard Gregory/[REDACTED]
