RE: Rev. Thomas Job '70

November 1983: Rev. Peter Heidenreich, O.P., informed me that [redacted] age 17, told him that he had engaged in sexual activities with Fr. Job while he was associate pastor at St. Cletus, La Grange.

A meeting was arranged between Fr. Heidenreich, [redacted] father and the Vicar for Priests to discuss the accusations.

I confronted Fr. Job. On Nov. 22, 1983 he [redacted]

Fr. Job agreed to monthly supervisory sessions with the Vicar for Priests. He was also ordered to avoid further contacts with young people.

The pastor of St. Joseph's Parish Libertyville is serving as on-site supervisor.

April 1984: [redacted] mother, contacted the Vicar for Priests to report that her son is [redacted]. She is relieved to know that Fr. Job is [redacted] and expressed the hope that this never happens again.

November, 1985: Sister Peg Ivers, former principal of St. John Vianney Parish, Northbrook, Il., informed me that there had been accusations of improper activities between Fr. Job and boys when he served as associate at that parish during her time as principal there.

I contacted Fr. Mike Adams who had been on the Personnel Board at that time. He said that he knew very little about it but that Fr. Richard Keating had dealt with the case and had arranged treatment for Fr. Job. He thought that Fr. Keating had served as Fr. Job's supervisor during that period.

[redacted]

September 1986: [redacted] and Sister Jean Oursler met with me. [redacted] expressed her happiness with the progress she has made personally as a result of the Families Anonymous program. Sister Jean was the Principal of St. Cletus School during the time Fr. Job was an associate at that parish. She said that there were no signs that anything was amiss, and that she was very much surprised when she had heard of Fr. Job's involvement with [redacted]. Both expressed the wish that we continue to help Fr. Job with this problem.
