Dear ^{REDACT} REDACTED

Given his recent hospitalization, Cardinal Mahony asked me to reply to your heart-wrenching letter about the abusive treatment that was inflicted upon you by Reverend Michael Hunt. I am profoundly sorry, though I realize that no words can remove the "horror and shame" you experienced. I am inspired by the fact that with the help of God's grace you have found the depth of Christian charity in your heart to forgive him for the terrible offenses he committed.

In case you are not aware, please know that Monsignor Hunt has been dead for many years now.

The Cardinal received your letter before going to Rome for meetings with the Pope and the American Cardinals regarding sexual misconduct by priests. He has reflected then and now on the content of your confidential letter to me.

REDACTED REDACTED REDACTED is available to speak with you confidentially and to hear your story if this would be helpful to you. REDACTED number is REDACTED

May all the good work you do ^{REDACTED} ; bring blessing to you, your family and the Church.

Please accept my humble and heartfelt apology in the form of these few words. I pray that the Holy Spirit's healing power will fill and strengthen you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Monsignor Craig A. Cox, J.C.D.
