

Statement of Jane Doe 20

I am giving permission to my lawyer Jeff Anderson to release the transcript of the video testimony that I recorded for the Archdiocese in 2006, when I was 21 years old. I could not handle watching the testimony myself, as it took enough courage to record it in the first place. Fr. Keating, Fr. Kevin McDonough, Archbishop Flynn and members of my family all watched this together and then I came in afterward to express my hurt and concerns to Fr. Keating and the others mentioned above. I have also given Jeff permission to release e-mails that were sent to me from Keating while he was a major seminarian studying in Rome and I was a young teenager and in high school. These e-mails were also given to the Archdiocese in 2006. I want the truth to be known. I want it to be understood that when the abuse started I was barely 13. I want people to know that I came to the Archdiocese with everything I had, with my whole and honest story and I feel like I begged them to hear me. The abuse itself and the way this has all been handled makes me so sad. It breaks my heart.
