Purpose & Background

In 2003, the California legislature opened a one year, retroactive window for survivors of child sexual abuse to file civil claims against their perpetrator and the institution that covered up the sexual abuse. As a result, CNN estimates that cases involving the Archdiocese of Los Angeles lead to $660 million dollars in settlements. More than 500 survivors of abuse brought claims against over 220 priests, lay teachers and other Church employees.

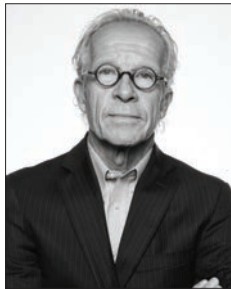

This report contains the names of clergy associated with the Archdiocese of Los Angeles who have been accused of sexual misconduct. While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, the vast majority of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law. All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law.

It is believed that the Archdiocese of Los Angeles does not make available to the public the full history, knowledge and context of the sexually abusive clerics. This report is an attempt to compile information already available to the public from various sources in the public media; bishopaccountability.org; the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' Report to the People of God and subsequent addenda; and other sources that have attempted to chronicle this information for public use. This report is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of clerical sexual abuse, provide the public with vital information including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. Assignment histories are approximations and were compiled from The Official Catholic Directory, bishopaccountability.org and media reports.

Supporting California Abuse Survivors for Decades

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. Through their work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seek to bring hope, healing, accountability and justice to survivors of child sexual abuse. The attorneys have advocated for survivor rights in California for years and represented hundreds of survivors when the California legislature opened a retroactive window for sexual abuse survivors to file claims. In addition to seeking legal accountability, they have supported survivors of abuse by bringing public awareness to the cause. Jeff Anderson & Associates use novel legal theories, including public nuisance, to help prevent child sexual abuse and bring awareness to clerical sexual abuse.

ATTORNEY JEFF ANDERSON

Jeff Anderson first sued enablers of clerical sexual abuse in California as early as 1993 for abuse perpetrated by Catholic clerics associated with the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Diocese of San Bernardino, Diocese of San Diego and the Servite Order. Since then, his firm and the attorneys who work with him, have been associated with more cases than any other law firm in the country. For decades, the attorneys have sued nearly every Catholic diocese and archdiocese in California; the Lutheran Church; the Boy Scouts of America; American Youth Soccer Organization; multiple private schools; and numerous other individuals and institutions in California.

ATTORNEY MIKE FINNEGAN

Mike Finnegan has worked for over a decade with thousands of courageous survivors of childhood sexual abuse. In addition to an attorney of record in a federal lawsuit against the Vatican, Mike has sued numerous dioceses and religious institutions in California. Mike played an integral role in helping survivors in California and resolving hundreds of cases under the 2003 window legislation. Hailing from Minnesota, Mike played a pivotal role in forcing the Catholic bishops in Minnesota to release over 200 names of priest perpetrators to the public and thousands of pages of documents demonstrating the cover-up by top officials.

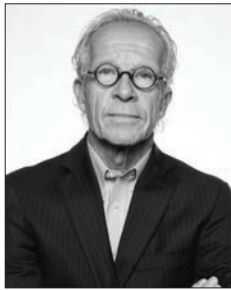

ATTORNEY MIKE RECK

Mike Reck's practice is the representation of survivors against the powerful institutions that covered up the sexual abuse of children. Mike is a Southern California native whose career against institutional abuse has included lawsuits against multiple dioceses and religious orders in California and throughout the country. Mike has been a courtroom figure with trial experience in Los Angeles and other courts for nearly two decades. Recently, Mike fought for accountability on behalf of survivors in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles; several dioceses in New York, including the Diocese of Buffalo and the Archdiocese of New York; the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and numerous other Catholic Dioceses.

Jeff Anderson & Associates

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 30 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers, we have represented thousands of survivors of child sexual abuse against individual offenders and the institutions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

History of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles was created in 1840. It is the largest Archdiocese in the United States. Historically, its northern border was Santa Maria and it extended south to San Clemente. Its western border is Catalina Island and it extends east to Pomona. In 1976, the Holy See split the Diocese of Orange from Los Angeles to become an independent Diocese.

This report is intended to be a chronology and analysis of the rampant sexual abuse of children within the Archdiocese of Los Angeles including a discussion of how the highest church officials enabled the abusers and covered up the crimes.

The data reveals the scandalous scale of hundreds of priests and two Bishops sexually assaulting thousands of minors from 1955 to the present in the Archdiocese. The data collected suggests the patterns and practices of Church officials, including Bp. Juan Arzube, Bp. Thomas Curry, Msgr. Benjamin Hawkes, Archbishop Gomez, Cardinal Roger Mahony, and Bp. Patrick Ziemann, orchestrating an institutional cover-up of an enormous scale. Perhaps most shocking among the discoveries is that some perpetrators were intentionally transferred and retained in trusted positions with access to children even when they were known to be abusers. Modern means of analysis and availability of data through the Internet and social media is exposing hundreds of perpetrators who operated in the Archdiocese, but until full transparency and accountability exist, children are still in danger.

Historically, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, like many other dioceses and archdioceses, knew priests were perpetrators that posed a danger to children. The sexual abuse of children has long been a crime in California. However, Church officials chose to keep the crimes hidden and allow its priests continued and unfettered access to children. During the 1980s and 1990s, occasional bits of information about clerical abuse would surface, but the Church's strict policy of secrecy kept most of the information and full extent of the problem hidden from the public.

The civil window in 2003 subjected the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to additional scrutiny that it had never faced. This window was one short year. During this time over 500 survivors brought claims against the Archdiocese for abuse by clerics and lay employees of the Archdiocese. For the first time significant numbers of survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and their attorneys were able to pry open secret Church records using subpoenas and court orders. In an attempt to appease the public pressure for transparency the Archdiocese listed what it deemed to be credibly known abusers in a report and subsequent addenda titled, "The Report to the People of God – Clergy Sexual Abuse – Archdiocese of Los Angeles." If this report was intended to quell the public concern, it failed. The report did not include all clerical abusers associated with the Archdiocese. It was subsequently amended with additional abusers and then later amended again. The Archdiocese has apparently stopped amending the report.

Los Angeles Priests Fleeing the Jurisdiction –

The Geographic Solution

Church officials operate in multiple civil jurisdictions throughout the country and world. Archbishops and Bishops have often moved sexual offending priests to multiple different locations to avoid public detection and arrest and prosecution by law enforcement. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles also utilized this tactic, referred to as the “Geographic Solution.”

In 1986, Msgr. Thomas Curry explained this problem to Cardinal Roger Mahony in a memo discussing Msgr. Peter Garcia, a known offender that was ordered from Los Angeles to New Mexico. Msgr. Curry stated, “To lawyers and judges not familiar with the independent nature of dioceses, such priests moving from diocese to diocese might seem like a cover-up, analogous to moving a problem priest from parish to parish.”¹ However, Msgr. Curry assured the Cardinal that the local Archbishop was made aware of the pertinent psychological reports. Subsequent documents indicate that Cardinal Mahony further exploited the geographic solution when he urged that Msgr. Garcia remain in New Mexico without returning to Los Angeles because of potential “legal action filed in both the criminal and civil sectors.”²

Other abusive clerics repeatedly fled or were ordered out of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Based only on publicly available information, these include but are not necessarily limited to Fr. Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera (Mexico); Fr. Michael Baker (New Mexico); Fr. Santiago Tamayo (Philippines); Fr. Luis Jaramillo (Mexico; Argentina; Philippines); Fr. John Kohnke (Wisconsin); Fr. Juan Santillan (Bolivia); Fr. Carl Tresler (Peru); and Fr. Kevin Barmasse (Arizona).

“The Playbook for Concealing the Truth”

In August 2018, a grand jury report was released in Pennsylvania detailing child sexual abuse in six dioceses in the state. Over 300 predator priests were accused of sexually abusing more than 1000 children over the span of 70 years. Almost every case was too old to be prosecuted. The Pennsylvania grand jury concluded that “the main thing was not to help children, but avoid scandal.”³

As part of the investigation, the FBI agreed to assign members of its National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime to analyze the strategies and practices the Church used that the grand jury called, “a playbook for concealing the truth.”⁴ The Special Agents testified before the grand jury after identifying this series of strategies and practices that regularly appeared in the diocesan files analyzed during the investigation.

The “playbook for concealing the truth” identifies seven common practices and strategies including:

- (1) Make sure to use euphemisms rather than real words to describe the sexual assaults in diocese documents. Never say “rape,” say “inappropriate contact” or “boundary issues.”

¹ October 30, 1986 memorandum from Msgr. Curry to Archbishop Mahony

² July 22, 1986 letter from Archbishop Mahony to Director of Servants of the Paraclete, New Mexico

⁴ Id. at p. 3

- (2) Second, don't conduct genuine investigations with properly trained personnel. Instead, assign fellow clergy members to ask inadequate questions and then make credibility determinations about the colleagues with whom they live and work.
- (3) For appearance of integrity, send priests for "evaluation" at church-run psychiatric treatment centers. Allow these experts to "diagnose" whether the priest was a pedophile, based largely on the priest's "self-reports" and regardless of whether the priest had actually engaged in sexual contact with a child.
- (4) When a priest does not have to be removed, don't say why. Tell his parishioners that he is on "sick leave," or suffering from "nervous exhaustion." Or say nothing at all.
- (5) Even if a priest is raping children, keep providing him housing and living expenses, although he may be using these resources to facilitate more sexual assaults.
- (6) If a predator's conduct becomes known to the community, don't remove him from the priesthood to ensure that no more children will be victimized. Instead, transfer him to a new location where no one will know he's a child abuser.
- (7) Above all, don't tell the police. Child sexual abuse, even short of actual penetration, is and has for all relevant times been a crime. But don't treat it that way; handle it like a personnel matter, "in house."

These practices and strategies employed by the six dioceses in Pennsylvania are practices and strategies employed world-wide by the top officials of the Catholic Church, including in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Danger of Clerical Sexual Abuse Today

The danger of clerical sexual abuse in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles is clearly a problem of today and not just the past. Lawsuits brought by survivors of sexual abuse have uncovered countless documents and other evidence of the danger posed by sexual offenders in the Archdiocese during days past. Law enforcement has now taken a prominent role investigating and prosecuting clerical offenders.

According to public reports, during 2018 alone, at least three priests were investigated or removed for allegations of misconduct. The publicly available information indicates that Fr. Juan Cano was investigated by Los Angeles Police; Fr. Charles Patrick Mayer was criminally charged while working at a public school while on leave from the Archdiocese; and Fr. Raymond Morales was removed from ministry when the Archdiocese announced it had received multiple allegations of misconduct.

The simple reality is that as long as clerical sexual offenders can hide in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, children will not be safe.

Abusers at the Highest Level in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles

An institution is only as good as those who control the organization. This dynamic is particularly apparent within the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Because of its size, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles includes the positions of Auxiliary Bishop. These positions are essentially high ranking church officials who are assigned by the Pope to work closely with the Archbishop. There is no higher ranking position in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles except for the Archbishop himself. Two Auxiliary Bishops have been accused of sexual misconduct.

Auxiliary Bishop Juan A. Arzube was accused of abusing an 11-year-old boy during approximately 1975 and 1976. In 2007, the Archdiocese settled a lawsuit regarding Auxiliary Bishop Arzube. The Archdiocese included him on its list of credibly accused clerics. (See p. 41)

Auxiliary Bishop G. Patrick Ziemann was accused of abusing multiple children. In spite of these activities, Auxiliary Bishop Ziemann went on to become the Bishop of the Diocese of Santa Rosa. Reports indicate that his faculties to function as a priest were later removed before his death in 2009. The Archdiocese included him on its list of credibly accused clerics. (See p. 125)

Dear REDACTED

I wish to acknowledge your letter of July 1, 1986 and the report on Monsignor Peter Garcia who was at your Foundation House for a follow-up workshop.

I am very grateful to you and to your staff for the care and concern which you are giving Monsignor Garcia, and I feel strongly that it would not be possible for Monsignor Garcia to return to California and to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles for the foreseeable future. The two young men who were involved with him and their parents have switched attorneys on several occasions, and I believe that if Monsignor Garcia were to reappear here within the Archdiocese we might very well have some type of legal action filed in both the criminal and civil sectors.

Since he is functioning well under your supervision and within the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, I would strongly recommend that we keep him on this course and not attempt anything different.

Thanking you again for your tremendous assistance in treating Monsignor Garcia and with every best wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

MEMORANDUM

To: Archbishop Mahony
From: Msgr. Thomas Curry
Re: Msgr. Peter Garcia

Some time ago Bishop Arzube asked me to check with you about the absence of Peter Garcia's picture and status from the Directory. I spoke to you about this matter, and at the time you we felt it would be allright to list him.

In a conversation with Sister Judy about the whole issue of child abuse, she is firmly of the opinion that none of the priests who are away from the Archdiocese as a result of this problem should be listed. Apparently, at their recent meeting, the California Archdiocesan Lawyers raised a concern that the dioceses might not be distancing themselves sufficiently from priests who have been involved in child abuse.

If the priest is operating in another diocese, she is concerned that there be a letter to the bishop of the other diocese stating that we could not accept the priests back here. To lawyers and judges not familiar with the independent nature of dioceses, such priests moving from diocese to diocese might seem like a coverup, analogous to moving a problem priest from parish to parish.

In this case, Archbishop Sanchez has received copies of the psychological reports, so he is completely aware of the nature of the problem.

Perhaps we need to discuss, not only what we place in the Directory about the several priests who are away from the Archdiocese because of child abuse problems, but what we should tell them about their future with the Archdiocese.

Dear Mike:

I am writing as a follow-up to our two personal visits in my office, one on Monday, December 22nd, and the other on Tuesday, December 23rd.

It was during those visits that you revealed to me your involvement with two young men over the past several years, beginning in approximately the year 1978 and continuing until approximately a year ago.

As both I and Monsignor Thomas Curry pointed out to you, we are dealing with an extremely serious and grave situation. The sexual activity which you had with these two young men, one named Matthew and the other Armando, requires that I take immediate and clear steps, as follows:

- (1) you will not be assigned to any pastoral ministry position within the Archdiocese of Los Angeles until such time as competent professionals can assure me that the cause of this activity on your part has been fully treated and corrected;
- (2) you will report to the Paraclete Fathers in Jemez Springs, New Mexico, as soon as possible in order to enter their diagnostic program; and depending upon their findings, you will then enter their full program of professional treatment taking as much time as their staff indicate;
- (3) we will begin steps as soon as possible to see what type of counselling would be the best for the two young men involved; we will need to make contact with them and to offer every assistance we can so that any negative impact on their lives can be diminished as fully as possible.

Please be assured that I will do all that I can to be of assistance to you throughout the coming professional evaluation and treatment program. You will be very much in my prayers, as will the two young men involved in this situation.

I will need you to be as open as possible to what the Paraclete Fathers and their Staff at Jemez Springs require. Your full cooperation in their

RE: Father Mike Baker

I have been in touch with Mike several times since he left for Jemez Springs. At the beginning, he was most reluctant to even consider the possibility of his staying for the five-month program. However, at the end of last week he called me and was not only reconciled to staying but was quite agreeable to doing so. Apparently, after talking to one of the psychologists there he realized that in the eventuality of future legal action, his taking the program would certainly be an asset to him.

The evaluation concluded this past Friday, and it will take five to six days for it to be written up. He is staying there in the meantime, however.

MEMORANDUM

November 8, 1987

To: Archbishop Mahony
From: Msgr. Thomas Curry ✓
Re: Father Santiago Tamayo

Attached is some correspondence from Father Tamayo in response to the standard annual letter I send to all the priests who are outside the Archdiocese. (Father Tamayo was the pastor of SS. Peter and Paul, Wilmington, and was the only one of the seven Filipino priests involved in the ^{REDACTED} case who is incardinated.)

Sister Judy advises that he never return to the Archdiocese and I agree. He mentions being rehabilitated, but I never understood that any of the priests involved asserted that the charges were false. He is still personally liable for damages.

In checking with Frank Wallace, however, he does feel that according to Canon 1350, we are liable for some support. He even feels that there could be a claim for back pay. His advice is that we offer some help for a limited time while Father Tamayo is adjusting to life elsewhere and that we couch our offer in the language of the Canon. I think this is a wise approach.

I concur - do you want to write, or shall I?

Thanks!

MEMORANDUM

CONFIDENTIAL

DATE: January 26, 1988
FROM: Msgr. Curry

RE: Rev. Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera

This concerns the Mexican priest who was assigned to St. Agatha and was accused of abusing children from Our Lady of Guadalupe. The police are making every effort to obtain the list of altar boys from St. Agatha's. Father Jim Barnes is very reluctant to give it to them, and I support that decision. We have no evidence that Father Aguilar-Rivera was involved with altar boys as such. All the boys involved were members of families he was friendly with in Our Lady of Guadalupe, and the alleged abuse took place while he was visiting these families or while they were visiting him.

Father Barnes has no knowledge of his being involved with boys at St. Agatha's, and his concern is that if the police come and interview the boys, the matter will spread around the parish. The parish there is a Black-Hispanic one, and he finds his situation as an Anglo pastor a very delicate one. He and I are also concerned about the police interviewing boys about this matter when we have no reasonable suspicion they know anything about it. If, in fact, nothing happened at St. Agatha's, such interviews may have a negative effect on the boys, their families, and the parish.

The whole issue of our records is a very sensitive one, and I am reluctant to give any list to the police.

We are being friendly but firm, and both Sister Judy and I are in contact with the police on this matter.

We ~~don't~~ give such a list for no cause whatever.

CARDINAL NORBERTO RIVERA
CARRERA IN SUPPORT OF MEXICAN
DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO QUASH
SERVICE OF SUMMONS FOR LACK OF JURISDICTION

Date: March 26, 2007

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Judge: Elihu M. Berle

I, Cardinal Norberto Rivera Carrera, declare:

1. I am one of the defendants in this action and make this declaration in support of the Motion to Quash Service of Summons for Lack of Jurisdiction. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below, and, if called upon, could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I provide this declaration as a special appearance for the sole purpose of challenging this Court's jurisdiction over my person. I have not consented and do not consent to 1 jurisdiction in the State of California.

2 3. I reside in and am a citizen of the Republic of Mexico. Other than the four years
3 during which I took a course in theology at Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, I have 4 resided in Mexico my entire life. I have never resided in the State of California, and do not own
5 any real or personal property in California.

6 4. I was born in La Purisima in the Archdiocese of Durango, Mexico. In 1966, I was 7 ordained a priest of the Roman Catholic Church (the "Church") in that same Archdiocese.
8 Following my ordination, I served briefly as Associate Pastor and Curate in Rio Grande.
9 Subsequently, I joined the theology faculty at the Durango Seminary in Durango, Mexico, where 10 I taught for eighteen years. From 1982 to 1985, I served as a professor of ecclesiology at the 11 Pontifical University of Mexico.

12 5. In 1985, I was ordained and made Bishop of Defendant the Diocese of Tehuacan 13 (the "Diocese") a position I held until my appointment as Archbishop of Mexico in 1995. In 14 1998 I was created and proclaimed Cardinal by Pope John Paul II, a position I hold to this day. I 15 hold the official title of Cardinal Priest of San Francisco in Arripa Grande. In my capacity as 16 Cardinal of Mexico, I preside over the largest Archdiocese in the world and care for more than 17 eight million Mexican Catholics.

18 6. I have served my entire career for the Church in Mexico. I do not now nor ever 19 have I done any business or maintained an office in the State of California. My office address is 20 Durango No. 90, Piso 5, Col. Roma, Mexico, D.F., 06700, Mexico. I have no agents or 21 employees in California. I do not maintain any books, accounts or records in California.

22 7. I have no authority whatsoever over the business of the Church conducted in 23 California, nor have I ever been to California on business for the Church. In fact, the few trips I 24 have taken to California were all personal vacations.

25 8. My duties as Archbishop of Mexico are numerous and require my persistent and 26 near constant attention. If I am forced to defend a lawsuit in California, the performance of my 27 duties and, as a consequence, the Church in Mexico will be severely disrupted.

28 9. In 1986, in my capacity as Bishop of the Diocese of Tehuacan, I learned that

Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera continued

1 Defendant Father Nicholas Aguilar ("Fr. Aguilar"), then parish priest at the parish of San
2 Sebastian Martir, Cuacnopalan in the Diocese of Tehuacan, had been assaulted at his parish
3 residence on August 7, 1986. Because there were rumors that grown men stayed overnight at the 4 Church where Fr. Aguilar lived, I suspected that a homosexual incident had precipitated the 5 assault on Fr. Aguilar. At the same time, Fr. Aguilar's performance at the parish had caused 6 controversy and some resentment in some members of the community because he had removed 7 some persons that were selling goods in the church entrance and courtyard. Thus, I was not sure
8 if the rumors were true or were instead motivated by resentment. There was no evidence to 9 suggest that the incident involved any minor children, nor was the involvement of minor children
10 ever alleged. The police did not file charges against any person in relation to this incident.

11 10. Subsequent to his assault, I verbally reprimanded Fr. Aguilar and ordered him to 12 seek rest and psychiatric help. Fr. Aguilar stated that he might go to Los Angeles, California, 13 where he had family. In addition, I informed Fr. Aguilar that I planned to replace him as parish 14 priest at San Sebastian Martir. I obtained a replacement for Fr. Aguilar in January of 1987.

15 11. After I obtained a replacement priest, on January 27, 1987, Fr. Aguilar tendered to 16 me his irrevocable resignation from the San Sebastian Martir Parish and indicated his intention to 17 move to Los Angeles, California. That same day, at Fr. Aguilar's request and as was customary 18 in the Church, I wrote a letter introducing him to Defendant Cardinal Roger Mahony, then 19 Archbishop of the Los Angeles Archdiocese. In that letter, I explained that Fr. Aguilar planned
20 to travel to Los Angeles. Because I did not know whether the rumors of Fr. Aguilar's 21 homosexuality were true or instead motivated by resentment within the community, I was 22 uncertain as to whether Fr. Aguilar was fit to continue in service as a priest. As such, I did not 23 grant a license to Fr. Aguilar to take up priestly duties in Los Angeles (granting such licensure 24 was beyond my authority as Bishop of the Diocese in any event), nor did I recommend him for 25 such duties. Rather, I left the decision as to whether to allow Fr. Aguilar to work in the Los 26 Angeles Archdiocese to Cardinal Mahony. However, because I suspected that Fr. Aguilar might 27 be homosexual, I cautioned that the motivation for Fr. Aguilar's trip to Los Angeles was "family 28 and health reasons." The phrase "family and health reasons" was used within the Church to

Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera continued

1 warn that a priest suffers from some sort of problem. I anticipated that Cardinal Mahony would 2 request a more detailed account of Fr. Aguilar's history and problems if he decided to consider
3 Fr. Aguilar as an employee of the Los Angeles Archdiocese.

4 12. On March 12, 1987, Fr. Aguilar wrote to me from Venice, California, explaining 5 that he had interviewed with Msgr. Thomas Curry of the Los Angeles Archdiocese. On Msgr.
6 Curry's behalf, Fr. Aguilar requested that I correspond confidentially with then-Archbishop 7 Mahony in order to (a) evaluate Fr. Aguilar as a priest; (b) indicate my understanding of the 8 reasons for Fr. Aguilar's trip to Los Angeles; and (c) recommend Fr. Aguilar for pastoral work in 9 Los Angeles. It was my understanding at that time that Msgr. Curry sought to uncover the facts 10 that had prompted me to describe Fr. Aguilar's visit as for "family and health reasons." On 11 March 23, 1987, I wrote then-Archbishop Mahony a confidential letter, with a copy to Msgr.
12 Curry, stating that (a) Fr. Aguilar was held in esteem by his colleagues and his parishioners; and 13 (b) Fr. Aguilar requested to leave the Diocese in order to work in the Los Angeles Archdiocese.
14 In addition, I referenced Fr. Aguilar's assault in 1986 and stated that "it is suspected that the 15 underlying cause that provoked this assault was due to homosexuality problems." This was the 16 only potentially homosexual incident involving Fr. Aguilar of which I was aware and to which I
17 made mention, and I cautioned that "everything had remained at the accusation and suspicion 18 level." I was not aware of, and in my letter did not refer to, any alleged homosexual activity with 19 minor children. Nonetheless, I never recommended Fr. Aguilar for pastoral work in the Los 20 Angeles Archdiocese in that letter, as Fr. Aguilar had requested, as I was uncertain whether he 21 was fit for such work. Also on March 23, 1987 I wrote Fr. Aguilar to inform him of the 22 confidential letter I sent to Cardinal Mahony and Msgr. Curry.

23 13. On December 20, 1987 Fr. Aguilar wrote me to request permission to serve 24 indefinitely in the Los Angeles Archdiocese, but I never answered his letter.

25 14. Never did I "transfer" Fr. Aguilar to the Los Angeles Archdiocese. As Bishop of 26 the Diocese, under the Code of Canonical Law, I did not have the authority to transfer Fr.
27 Aguilar, or any other priest, outside of the Tehuacan Diocese. Rather, I granted Fr. Aguilar 28 permission to serve in Los Angeles on the condition that Cardinal Mahony first accept him for

Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera continued

1 said service, and I warned Cardinal Mahony of my suspicion that Fr. Aguilar suffered from 2 homosexual problems.

3 15. The Diocese of Tehuacan did not pay for Fr. Aguilar's travel to the United States.
4 Following Fr. Aguilar's departure for Los Angeles, the Diocese maintained no control over Fr.
5 Aguilar. The Diocese did not direct, nor was it aware of, Fr. Aguilar's activities while he was in 6 California. The Diocese did not pay anything to Fr. Aguilar while he was in California. Apart
7 from Fr. Aguilar's letter of March 12, 1987, my response on March 23, 1987, and Fr. Aguilar's
8 letter of December 20, 1987 (to which I did not respond), I did not have any other 9 communication with Fr. Aguilar while he was in California.

10 16. On January 11, 1988, two days after Fr. Aguilar fled California for Mexico, Msgr.
11 Curry wrote to inform me that the Los Angeles police was looking for Fr. Aguilar in order to 12 arrest him on suspicion of child sexual abuse. Until this point, I was unaware of any alleged 13 misconduct on the part of Fr. Aguilar while he was in California. On February 23, 1988, Msgr.
14 Curry wrote to request information on Fr. Aguilar's whereabouts. Cardinal Mahony sent a 15 similar request on March 4, 1988. By letter dated March 17, 1988, I responded that I was 16 unaware of Fr. Aguilar's location, but I provided Cardinal Mahony with information regarding 17 Fr. Aguilar's family and employment history in the hope that such information would facilitate 18 the location of Fr. Aguilar. In addition, I referred Cardinal Mahony to the confidential letter of 19 March 23, 1987, in which I summarized my suspicion that Fr. Aguilar suffered from homosexual 20 problems.

21 17. I did not attempt to facilitate Fr. Aguilar's return to Mexico. Even if I had desired
22 Fr. Aguilar's return, I did not have the authority to force him to return. When Fr. Aguilar fled 23 from California to Mexico, I had no knowledge of that event. Nor did I have the ability to force
24 Fr. Aguilar to return to California. To my knowledge, Fr. Aguilar remains in Mexico.

25 18. Upon arriving in Mexico in 1988, Fr. Aguilar did not return to the Diocese of 26 Tehuacan where I was then serving. Since his return to Mexico, I have had no contact with Fr.
27 Aguilar and he has not served under my control in any capacity. I am not now harboring Fr.
28 Aguilar from justice, nor ever have I done so. I have never concealed Fr. Aguilar's whereabouts

1 from law enforcement or church officials in either Mexico or California.

2 19. In November 1994, Plaintiff Joaquin Aguilar Mendez filed a criminal complaint
3 in Mexico alleging that Fr. Aguilar sexually molested Plaintiff during mass at the San Antonio de 4 Padua parish in Mexico in October of 1994.

5 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the

1 de impugnar la jurisdicción de este Tribunal sobre mi persona. No he consentido ni consiento la

3 3. Resido en y soy ciudadano de la República Mexicana. Aparte de los cuatro años
4 en que tomé un curso en teología en la Universidad Pontificia Gregoriana en Roma, he residido
5 en México durante toda mi vida. Nunca he residido en el Estado de California y no poseo
6 ninguna propiedad real o personal en California.

7 4. Nací en La Purísima en la Arquidiócesis de Durango, México. En 1966 me ordené
8 como sacerdote de la Iglesia Romana Católica (la "Iglesia") en esa misma Arquidiócesis.
9 Después de ordenarme, serví brevemente como pastor asociado y párroco en Río Grande.
10 Subsiguientemente, me uní a la facultad de teología en el Seminario de Durango, México, donde
11 impartí clases durante dieciocho años. De 1982 a 1985, fui profesor de Eclesiología en la 12 Universidad Pontificia de México.

13 5. En 1985, me ordené y me convertí en el Obispo de la Demandada Diócesis de 14 Tehuacán (la "Diócesis"), posición en la que estuve hasta mi asignación como Arzobispo de 15 México en 1995. En 1998 fui creado y proclamado Cardenal por el Papa Juan Pablo Segundo, 16 posición que conservo hasta la fecha. Llevo título oficial de Sacerdote Cardenal de San Francisco

19 6. Durante toda mi carrera he servido a la Iglesia en México. No he hecho, ni ahora

22 agentes ni empleados en California. No mantengo libros, cuentas o registros en California.

23 7. No tengo autoridad alguna sobre los negocios de la Iglesia que se llevan a cabo en
24 California, ni nunca he estado en California por negocios de la Iglesia. De hecho, los pocos 25 viajes que he hecho a California fueron, todos ellos, por vacaciones personales.

26 8. Mis deberes como Arzobispo de México son numerosos y requieren mi cercana 27 atención persistente y constante. Si me veo obligado a defender una demanda en California, el
28 desempeño de mis labores y, en consecuencia, la Iglesia en México se verán severamente

1 desorganizadas.

2 9. En 1986, en mi capacidad de Obispo de la Diócesis de Tehuacán, me enteré que el 3 demandado padre Nicolás Aguilar ("padre Aguilar"), entonces sacerdote de la parroquia de San 4 Sebastián Mártir, en Cuacnopalan, en la Diócesis de Tehuacán, había sido asaltado en su
5 residencia en la parroquia el 7 de agosto de 1986. Como había rumores de que hombres adultos
6 pernoctaban en la Iglesia donde vivía el padre Aguilar, sospeché de que algún incidente
7 homosexual habría precipitado el asalto al padre Aguilar. Al mismo tiempo, el desempeño del
8 padre Aguilar en la parroquia había causado controversias y algunos resentimientos de ciertos
9 miembros de la comunidad porque él había desalojado a personas que vendían artículos en la
10 entrada y el atrio de la iglesia. De modo que no estaba seguro si los rumores eran verdaderos o
11 únicamente motivados por el resentimiento. No había evidencia que sugiriera que el incidente
12 involucrara a ningún menor de edad, ni nunca se alegó el involucramiento de menores. La policía 13 no presentó cargos en contra de ninguna persona en relación con este incidente.

14 10. Después de su asalto, yo reprendí verbalmente al padre Aguilar y le ordené que
15 buscara descanso y ayuda psiquiátrica. El padre Aguilar expresó que quizá iría a Los Ángeles, 16 California, donde tenía familiares. Además informé al padre Aguilar que tenía planes de
17 reemplazarlo como sacerdote de la parroquia de San Sebastián Mártir. Conseguí el reemplazo del
18 padre Aguilar en enero de 1987.

19 11. Después de tener al sacerdote sustituto, el 27 de enero de 1987, el padre Aguilar
20 me presentó su renuncia con carácter de irrevocable de la parroquia de San Sebastián Mártir y
21 manifestó su intención de mudarse a Los Ángeles, California. Ese mismo día, por solicitud del
22 padre Aguilar y como era habitual en la Iglesia, escribí una carta presentándolo al demandado
23 Cardenal Roger Mahony, entonces Arzobispo de la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles. En esa carta,
24 expliqué que el padre Aguilar planeaba viajar a Los Ángeles. Como yo no sabía si los rumores
25 sobre el homosexualismo del padre Aguilar eran verdaderos o que para tal efecto pudieran haber
26 estado motivados por resentimientos dentro de la comunidad, no estaba seguro de si el padre
27 Aguilar era apto para continuar sirviendo como sacerdote. Por lo tanto, yo no otorgué licencia
28 alguna al padre Aguilar para asumir labores de sacerdote en Los Ángeles (otorgar dicha licencia

1 estaba más allá de mi autoridad como Obispo de la Diócesis en caso alguno), ni lo recomendé
2 para desempeñar dichas labores. En vez de ello, dejé al Cardenal Mahony la decisión de permitir
3 al padre Aguilar trabajar en la Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles. Sin embargo, como sospechaba
4 que el padre Aguilar podría ser homosexual, advertí que la motivación del viaje del padre
5 Aguilar a Los Angeles era por "motivos familiares y de salud". La frase "motivos familiares y de 6 salud" se usaba dentro de la iglesia para advertir que un sacerdote padece de algún tipo de
7 problema. Anticipé que el Cardenal Mahony solicitaría un informe más detallado sobre la
8 historia y los problemas del padre Aguilar, en caso de que decidiera considerar al padre Aguilar
9 como empleado en la Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles.

10 12. El 12 de marzo de 1987, el padre Aguilar me escribió de Venice, California, 11 explicando que se había entrevistado con monseñor Thomas Curry de la Arquidiócesis de Los 12 Angeles. A nombre de monseñor Curry, el padre Aguilar solicitó que escribiera
13 confidencialmente al entonces Arzobispo Mahony con el fin de (a) evaluar al padre Aguilar 14 como sacerdote; (b) señalar mi entendimiento de las razones del viaje del padre Aguilar a Los 15 Angeles; y (c) recomendar al padre Aguilar para realizar trabajo pastoral en Los Angeles. En ese
16 momento entendí que monseñor Curry estaba buscando descubrir los hechos que me habían
17 orillado a describir la visita del padre Aguilar como "por motivos familiares y de salud". El 23
18 de marzo de 1987, escribí al entonces Arzobispo Mahony una carta confidencial, con copia para
19 monseñor Curry, estableciendo que (a) el padre Aguilar contaba con el aprecio de sus colegas y
20 sus feligreses; y (b) el padre Aguilar solicitó dejar la Diócesis con el fin de ir a trabajar en la
21 Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles. Además, hice referencia al asalto del padre Aguilar en 1986 y
22 establecí que "se sospechaba que la causa fundamental que provocó ese asalto era debido a 23 problemas de homosexualismo". Éste fue el único incidente potencialmente homosexual que
24 involucrara al padre Aguilar del cual tenía yo conocimiento y del cual hice mención, y advertí
25 que "todo se había quedado en nivel de acusación y sospecha". Yo no fui consciente de, y mi
26 carta no se refirió a, ninguna supuesta actividad homosexual con menores de edad. No obstante,
27 yo nunca recomendé al padre Aguilar para trabajo pastoral en la Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles
28 en esa carta, como el padre Aguilar lo había solicitado, ya que no estaba seguro de si era apto

1 para dicho trabajo. También el 23 de marzo de 1987, escribí al padre Aguilar para informarle de
2 la carta confidencial que envié al Cardenal Mahony y a monseñor Curry.

3 13. El 20 de diciembre de 1987, el padre Aguilar me escribió solicitando permiso para
4 servir indefinidamente en la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles, pero nunca contesté esta carta.

5 14. Yo nunca "transferí" al padre Aguilar a la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles. Como
6 obispo de la Diócesis, bajo el Código de la Ley Canónica, yo no tenía la autoridad para transferir
7 al padre Aguilar, o a ningún sacerdote, fuera de la Diócesis de Tehuacán. Más bien, otorgué
8 permiso al padre Aguilar para servir en Los Ángeles bajo la condición de que el Cardenal
9 Mahony lo aceptara primero para dicho servicio, y advertí al Cardenal Mahony de mi sospecha
10 de que el padre Aguilar sufría de problemas de homosexualismo.

11 15. La Diócesis de Tehuacán no pagó el viaje del padre Aguilar a los Estados Unidos
12 de Norteamérica. Después de la partida del padre Aguilar a Los Ángeles, la Diócesis no mantuvo
13 control sobre el padre Aguilar. La Diócesis no dirigió, ni tenía conocimiento de, las actividades
14 del padre Aguilar durante su estancia en California. La Diócesis no pagó nada al padre Aguilar
15 mientras estuvo en California. Aparte de la carta del padre Aguilar fechada el 12 de marzo de
16 1987, mi respuesta el 23 de marzo de 1987 y la carta del padre Aguilar fechada el 20 de
17 diciembre de 1987 (la cual no contesté), no tuve otra comunicación con el padre Aguilar
18 mientras éste estuvo en California.

19 16. El 11 de enero de 1988, dos días después de que el padre Aguilar saliera de 20 California rumbo a México, monseñor Curry escribió para informarme que la policía de Los 21 Ángeles estaba buscando al padre Aguilar para arrestarlo por sospecha de abuso sexual en contra 22 de menores. Hasta este punto, yo no tenía conocimiento de ninguna supuesta mala conducta de
23 parte del padre Aguilar mientras estuvo en California. El 23 de febrero de 1988, monseñor Curry
24 escribió solicitando información sobre el paradero del padre Aguilar. El Cardenal Mahony envió
25 una solicitud similar el 4 de marzo de 1988. Por carta fechada el 17 de marzo de 1988, contesté
26 que no sabía dónde se encontraba el padre Aguilar, pero di información al Cardenal Mahony

1 para dicho trabajo. También el 23 de marzo de 1987, escribí al padre Aguilar para informarle de

3 13. El 20 de diciembre de 1987, el padre Aguilar me escribió solicitando permiso para
4 servir indefinidamente en la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles, pero nunca contesté esta carta.

5 14. Yo nunca "transferí" al padre Aguilar a la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles. Como
6 obispo de la Diócesis, bajo el Código de la Ley Canónica, yo no tenía la autoridad para transferir
7 al padre Aguilar, o a ningún sacerdote, fuera de la Diócesis de Tehuacán. Más bien, otorgué
8 permiso al padre Aguilar para servir en Los Ángeles bajo la condición de que el Cardenal
9 Mahony lo aceptara primero para dicho servicio, y advertí al Cardenal Mahony de mi sospecha
10 de que el padre Aguilar sufría de problemas de homosexualismo.

11 15. La Diócesis de Tehuacán no pagó el viaje del padre Aguilar a los Estados Unidos
12 de Norteamérica. Después de la partida del padre Aguilar a Los Ángeles, la Diócesis no mantuvo
13 control sobre el padre Aguilar. La Diócesis no dirigió, ni tenía conocimiento de, las actividades
14 del padre Aguilar durante su estancia en California. La Diócesis no pagó nada al padre Aguilar
15 mientras estuvo en California. Aparte de la carta del padre Aguilar fechada el 12 de marzo de
16 1987, mi respuesta el 23 de marzo de 1987 y la carta del padre Aguilar fechada el 20 de

Clerics, Religious Employees, and Volunteers Accused of Sexual Misconduct in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Fr. Ruben V. Abaya

Ordination: 1977

Notes: Fr. Ruben Abaya was a priest from the Philippines. He was granted faculties to work in California for 11 days in 1980. Fr. Abaya has been accused of sexually assaulting a teenage girl in 1980 while he was at St. Philomena in Carson, CA. The girl became pregnant and Abaya and the other six priests, including Fr. Honorato (Henry) Caboang, allegedly conspired to keep the assault and pregnancy a secret and sent her to the Philippines where she gave birth, and nearly died. The alleged victim filed a civil lawsuit in 1984 and Fr. Abaya reportedly fled to the Philippines after the lawsuit was filed. It is believed that Fr. Abaya is currently the Spiritual Director at St. Mary's Seminary in Laoag City, Philippines. Whether he has access to children or is under restrictions is unknown.

Fr. Leonard A. Abercrombie

Ordination: 1946

Notes: According to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, at least two survivors have come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Fr. Leonard A. Abercrombie in approximately the 1970s. In 1993, a survivor wrote a letter to Pope John Paul II alleging Fr. Abercrombie sexually abused him from approximately 1953 to 1957, beginning when he was seven years old. Fr. Abercrombie has been named in at least two child sexual abuse lawsuits, one filed in 2003 in California and the other filed in 2005 in Colorado. Claims against Fr. Abercrombie were included in the Archdiocese of Denver's 2008 settlement with several survivors of clergy sexual abuse. Fr. Abercrombie was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors.

Fr. Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera

Ordination: 1970

Notes: Ordained a priest of the Tehuacan diocese in Mexico in 1970, Fr. Nicolas Aguilar-Rivera was sent to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in March 1987, after he was severely attacked at the Cuacnopalan parish where he was pastor. An investigator in the case, who also lived in the parish neighborhood, said Fr. Aguilar-Rivera often had young men and teenagers spend the night with him. The investigator suspected the priest was attacked by one or more of them. Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was assigned to an East Los Angeles parish, and was transferred from there to a South Central Los Angeles parish after just a few months. In December 1987, the young sons of two of the many Spanish-speaking families whose trust Fr. Aguilar-Rivera had gained disclosed to their parents that they had been sexually abused by Fr. Aguilar-Rivera. The boys' parents reported the abuse to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, and Archdiocesan officials confronted Fr. Aguilar-Rivera with the allegations. The officials did not inform police, and Fr. Aguilar-Rivera fled to Mexico. California police estimated that Fr. Aguilar-Rivera sexually abused at least 26 children from both Los Angeles parishes during his nine months in the Archdiocese. He is said to have abused at least 60 Mexican children, both before and after his stay in California. Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was criminally charged with child sexual abuse in Mexico in 1997 and was convicted in 2003, but was not sentenced because the judge determined that the charges were too old. Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was allowed to remain in ministry. In July 2009, Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was laicized. As of March 2013, Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was on Mexico's federal Most Wanted list on charges of rape and indecent assault. He was also wanted in Los Angeles for charges of lewd acts on a child. Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Fr. Aguilar-Rivera was last believed to be residing in Mexico. His current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Deacon Arturo Ahumada

Notes: Deacon Arturo Ahumada was a deacon at Epiphany Church in South El Monte, California. He allegedly invited two boys, aged 15 and 16, to his home for dinner several times in 2001, where he showed them pornographic video tapes and molested one of the boys. In March 2002, Deacon Ahumada pleaded no contest to providing pornographic material to two boys and misdemeanor sexual battery against one of the boys. Deacon Ahumada was sentenced to one year in a county jail, a 44-month state prison term, and five years of probation. He was also required to register as a sex offender. Deacon Ahumada was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. He died in 2008.

Fr. Pierre Albalaa, MLM

Ordination: Unknown

Notes: Fr. Pierre Albalaa, MLM, a Maronite Rite priest, was suspended from ministry in 2018 by the Diocese of Columbus while an allegation of child sexual abuse made against him was investigated. Prior to his suspension, Fr. Albalaa worked as an administrator for Sacred Heart in Italian Village, Columbus, Ohio. The Diocese was informed by the Maronite Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon of Los Angeles that Fr. Albalaa was being investigated for a credible allegation of child sexual abuse in 2004 in California. Fr. Albalaa moved to America from Lebanon in 2002 and began work at St. Jude's in Westlake, California. His mission was to begin a Maronite Catholic Church of his own in the San Fernando Valley, and he did just that. Within less than a year approximately 313 families began attending Fr. Albalaa's Maronite Church, which met at St. Bernadine's in Woodland Hills, California. Fr. Albalaa's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Msgr. Joseph F. Alzugaray

Ordination: 1967

Notes: In a 2004 lawsuit, Msgr. Joseph F. Alzugaray was accused of sexually abusing an 8-year-old girl in the 1960s at Immaculate Conception School in Monrovia, California. In response, Msgr. Alzugaray sued the alleged survivor and the Survivors Network of those Abused by Priests (SNAP) for libel. Much of Msgr. Alzugaray's lawsuit was dismissed. SNAP sued Msgr. Alzugaray for malicious prosecution and the case settled. Msgr. Alzugaray was incardinated in the Diocese of Santa Rosa in approximately 1996. In approximately 2009, the Diocese of Santa Rosa Review Board recommended that Msgr. Alzugaray be removed from ministry, but Bishop Daniel Walsh rejected the recommendation and Msgr. Alzugaray remained in ministry with direct oversight responsibility for a Catholic high school. Msgr. Alzugaray retired in approximately 2011. He was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. It is believed Msgr. Alzugaray died in 2014 in Utah.

Fr. Michael Stephen Baker

Notes: Fr. Michael Stephen Baker is estimated to have sexually abused at least 23 children. In approximately 1986, Fr. Baker admitted to Cardinal Roger Mahony that he had sexually abused children. In response, Cardinal Mahony sent Fr. Baker to treatment and returned him to ministry shortly thereafter. In 2000, two brothers who accused Fr. Baker of sexually abusing them as children settled their lawsuit against the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Criminal charges against Fr. Baker in connection with the abuse were dropped after the U.S. Supreme Court barred the revival of decades-old prosecutions of child sexual abuse. Fr. Baker was laicized in 2000.

Fr. Baker was arrested in January 2006 on suspicion of child sexual abuse. In approximately December 2007, he pled guilty to sexually abusing two boys and was sentenced to 10 years and four months in prison. He was released on parole in approximately October 2011 and arrested for violating his parole in approximately November 2011 and September 2012. Fr. Baker was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Since approximately 2011, Fr. Fr. Victor Balbin

Ordination: 1979

Notes: Fr. Victor Balbin was an extern priest from the Philippines. He was accused, along with 6 other priests, of having sexual intercourse with a 16-year-old girl. When the girl became pregnant, the priests allegedly conspired to keep her pregnancy a secret and sent her to the Philippines where she nearly died while giving birth to her child. The alleged victim filed a civil lawsuit in 1984 and Fr. Balbin reportedly fled to the Philippines after the lawsuit was filed. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles settled the claims against Fr. Balbin and the other 6 priests in 2007. Fr. Balbin was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Fr. Balbin's current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Kevin P. Barmasse

Ordination: 1982

Notes: In 1983, Fr. Kevin P. Barmasse was accused of sexually abusing a 12-year-old boy in Los Angeles. Church officials did not remove him from ministry and, instead, sent him to work in the Diocese of Tucson on the condition that he receive treatment there. Documents released by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, show that church officials allowed Fr. Barmasse to minister in Tucson for seven years after that original accusation. Once in Tucson, Fr. Barmasse worked at three churches in Southern Arizona and was later accused of sexually abusing five local teenagers who had been members of youth groups he led. The five alleged survivors filed lawsuits alleging that Fr. Barmasse abused them. Each alleged survivor settled with the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Diocese of Tucson. Fr. Barmasse's faculties were revoked by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in approximately 1992. In 2007, the Pima County Attorney's Office in Arizona re-opened a criminal investigation of Fr. Barmasse. Fr. Barmasse was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. He was last known to be living in Oceanside, CA. His current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Franklin James Buckman

Ordination: 1963

Notes: According to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Fr. Franklin James Buckman stands accused of sexually abusing three children between 1962 and 1981. In 1984, while working in the Diocese of Orange, he resigned from St. Polycarp in Stanton after it was alleged that he sexually abused a child. The Diocese of Orange transferred Fr. Buckman to the Diocese of Baker, Oregon, where he worked at various locations on reservations for 17 years. Shortly after his transfer, in 1989, a woman reported that Fr. Buckman had sexually abused her son. He was reportedly removed from ministry and moved to Arizona in 2002. Fr. Buckman was sued for child sexual abuse in 2005 and the case settled. His name was reported to the John Jay College of Criminal Justice and he has been publicly named as an alleged perpetrator by the Diocese of Orange. The Diocese of Orange paid for Fr. Buckman to attend psychotherapy sessions twice a month and also paid the medical bills of a woman who said Fr. Buckman abused her son in 1979. Fr. Buckman was included on the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. As of 2016, Fr. Buckman had been removed from ministry and sentenced to a life of prayer and penance. As of 2002, it was believed Fr. Buckman was residing in Mesa, AZ. Fr. Richard T. Coughlin

Ordination: 1953

Notes: Fr. Richard T. Coughlin worked in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Archdiocese of Boston, and Diocese of Orange. In 1985, a man reported to the Archdiocese of Boston that he was sexually abused by Fr. Richard Coughlin when he was a child from 1958 to 1962. A 2002 lawsuit accused Fr. Coughlin of sexually abusing a minor from 1962 to 1965 at St. Mary's in Lynn, Massachusetts. In 1992, five men reported that Fr. Coughlin had sexually abused them when they were boys. Four of the men said they were abused between 1970 and 1983 when they were members of the All American Boys' Choir that Fr. Coughlin started. Another former member of the All American Boys' Choir came forward in 1993 and alleged that Fr. Coughlin sexually abused him as a child during choir bus trips between 1977 and 1980. In 1993, Fr. Coughlin was suspended from ministry and was ordered to cut ties with the All American Boys' Choir. According to the Archdiocese of Boston's website, Fr. Coughlin is permanently restricted from ministry. Fr. Coughlin was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. He was also included in the Diocese of Orange's list of clergy removed from ministry resulting from a credible allegation of sexual abuse. It is believed Fr. Coughlin may be living in Yorba Linda, CA. It is unknown whether he has access to children.

Fr. Sean Cronin

Ordination: 1967

Notes: Fr. Sean Cronin was born in Ireland in 1943 and incardinated into the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in 1973. In 1977, a fellow priest reported to Archdiocesan officials his concerns regarding Fr. Cronin's contact with young boys in his room. In 1984, Cardinal Manning granted Fr. Cronin permission to join the faculty at Marymount College in Palos Verdes. Fr. Cronin is accused of molesting two children between 1972 and 1980 while at St. Genevieve Parish in Panorama City and St. Monica Parish in Santa Monica. Fr. Cronin was sued in 2003 for child sex abuse. His priest file was released and revealed that he had provided alcohol to a child that he was counseling. Fr. Cronin asked the child sexual questions and took him to see a sexually explicit movie. Fr. Cronin was placed on administrative leave in 2004 and was laicized in 2011. Fr. Cronin was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Fr. Angel Cruces

Ordination: 1961

Notes: Fr. Angel Cruces was born in Laoag City, Philippines and was ordained in the Archdiocese of Nueva Segovia, Philippines. He was an extern priest working in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Fr. Cruces was accused, along with six other priests, of having sexual intercourse with a 16-year-old girl. When the girl became pregnant, the priests allegedly conspired to keep her pregnancy a secret and sent her to the Philippines where she nearly died while giving birth to her child. The Archdiocese settled claims against Fr. Cruces and the other 6 priests in 2007. Within

Fr. Cruces' priest file is a letter the young girl gave to church officials in 1983. Fr. Cruces, along with the other priests, fled to the Philippines to avoid criminal investigation and civil litigation. He was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Fr. Wallace J. Daley

Notes: According to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Fr. Daley stands accused of sexually abusing six children from approximately 1957 to 1963. Fr. Daley was excardinated from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles but remained active in the Diocese of Orange, the Diocese of Baja, and several other locations. Fr. Daley was named in at least one civil suit that settled in 2006. Per his priest file released by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, his career as a priest included many sporadic assignments and leaves. Before the Diocese of Orange split from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Fr. Daley was listed in The Official Catholic Directory as being in charge of the small parish in the Delhi barrio. Upon the split, Fr. Daley was not listed in the 1977 Official Catholic Directory, but was later listed as "On duty outside the diocese," a designation commonly used as a euphemism for pedophile priests who were exiled to poorer parishes somewhere in the world. In Fr. Daley's case, his personnel file states that he was located near El Rosario, approximately 200 miles from Baja, until he resurfaced briefly in the Diocese of Orange in approximately 1989. Fr. Daley was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Fr. Daley's whereabouts and access to children from approximately 1990 until his death in 2000 are unknown.

Fr. Arwyn N. Diesta

Ordination: 1978

Notes: Fr. Arwyn N. Diesta was an extern priest ordained for the Diocese of Sorsogon, Philippines who worked in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Fr. Diesta allegedly returned to the Philippines at some point. In 1992, Cardinal Roger Mahony learned that Fr. Diesta was accused of sexually abusing a seminary student. Shortly thereafter, Cardinal Mahony wrote a letter to Fr. Diesta's bishop in the Philippines, urging the bishop to restrict Fr. Diesta's access to children and force Fr. Diesta to undergo a psychological evaluation. The bishop took no action in response to Cardinal Mahony's letter and Fr. Diesta continued to have unrestricted access to children. Cardinal Mahony notified the Vatican of the accusations against Fr. Diesta, writing the following in a 1993 letter: "Obviously, if Father Diesta has indeed engaged in such sexual misconduct in the past, and I am convinced that he has, then he should not be in any ministry involving young people—especially young seminarians." In 2001, Cardinal Mahony found Fr. Diesta working as a U.S. Navy Chaplain and at a seminary in the Philippines. Cardinal Mahony wrote another letter to the Vatican. The Vatican indicated that it had forwarded the allegations against Fr. Diesta to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. Cardinal Mahony informed the U.S. Military, Los Angeles Police, and authorities in the Philippines of the allegations against Fr. Diesta. As of 2013, Fr. Diesta was reportedly an active priest in the Philippines. Fr. Diesta was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct with minors. His current whereabouts and whether he has access to minors are unknown.

Ordination: 1952

Notes: Fr. John Patrick Feeney, a priest of the Diocese of Green Bay, stands accused of sexually abusing at least a dozen children during his career as a priest. In 1978, the parents of two young boys reported to the Diocese of Green Bay that Fr. Feeney had molested their sons and the diocese told them it would be taken care of. In 1979, two mothers complained to law enforcement about Fr. Feeney, but were persuaded by the prosecutor not to pursue charges. In 1983, Bishop Wycislo told Fr. Feeney that unless he found a job in another diocese, he would face going to prison or treatment. Fr. Feeney then began working in the Diocese of Reno-Las Vegas and the Diocese of San Diego. In May 2012, two survivors tried their case against the Diocese of Green Bay and the Diocese was found liable for concealing Fr. Feeney's history of child sexual abuse. The Diocese challenged the ruling and a new trial was granted. The case ultimately settled. Later, in October 2012, another civil trial was held in Las Vegas, NV where the jury also found in favor of the sexual abuse survivor. Again the Church challenged the verdict and it was reversed on jurisdictional grounds in 2015 by the Nevada Supreme Court. Fr. Feeney's name and information pertaining to his time spent in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles was released pursuant to a settlement agreement in 2013.

Fr. Gerald B. Fessard

Ordination: 1972

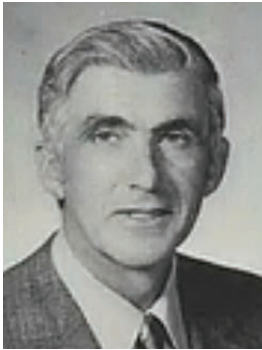

Notes: In 1987, Fr. Fessard was accused of sexually abusing multiple children. Fr. Fessard was removed from ministry in 1987 while law enforcement investigated the allegations. While he was under investigation, Fr. Fessard was sent to Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Later in 1987, Fr. Fessard pled no contest to battery and soliciting lewd acts. He was put on probation for 36 months, required to register as a sex offender, and required to undergo counseling. In 1988, Fr. Fessard was sent to the Servants of the Paraclete for a second time. In 1994, parishioners reported that Fr. Fessard frequently showed up at youth group meetings, occasionally under the influence of alcohol. Following the parishioners' report, Fr. Fessard underwent treatment for alcoholism and was sent to St. Luke Institute, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. In 1997, a man reported that when he was eight or nine years old, Fr. Fessard, sexually abused him in his bed at home. Fr. Fessard is alleged to have abused more than 20 people. He was laicized in 2007. Fr. Fessard was reportedly managing a mobile home park in Gardena, California, in 2013. He was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. It is believed Fr. Fernando may be living in San Pedro, CA. Br. Thomas C. Ford, C.F.C.

Notes: Br. Thomas C. Ford joined the Christian Brothers and was assigned to Mt. Cashel Home for Boys in Newfoundland, Canada in 1956. During his time at Mt. Cashel, Br. Ford sexually and physically abused multiple children in a sadomasochistic manner including the use of leather straps. When Br. Ford severely beat a naked child in the shower so viciously that he lost consciousness and was transported to the hospital, Br. Ford was returned to the United States. In 1970, Br. Ford began teaching at Damien Memorial High School and sexually abused at least two Damien students. From 1979 to 1980 Br. Ford worked at Cantwell High School in Los Angeles. In 1996, Canadian officials charged Br. Ford with 9 counts of abuse for beating children at Mt. Cashel in the late 1950s. Br. Ford disappeared from his teaching assignment and resisted extradition. School officials informed students that Br. Ford left to attend to a family emergency. Br. Ford pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five months in jail. Eleven other Brothers were also convicted for physical and sexual abuse at Mt. Cashel. Multiple claims throughout North America have been filed alleging abuse by Br. Ford, including multiple claims in the Irish Christian Brothers bankruptcy and two lawsuits in Hawaii in 2014.

Fr. Jerold W. Lindner, S.J.

Ordination: 1976

Notes: Fr. Jerold Lindner is a Jesuit priest. During his time at St. Ignatius College Prep, Fr. Lindner was accused of sexual abusing at least six children. In 1992, a parent of one of Fr. Lindner's alleged victims reported the alleged victim's abuse to the principal of Loyola High School in Los Angeles. In response, Fr. Lindner was placed on leave and sent to St. Luke Institute, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. In approximately 1998, Fr. Lindner was again sent to St. Luke Institute. The Jesuits found the allegations not credible and returned

Fr. Lindner to ministry. A civil lawsuit settled in 1998 alleged that Fr. Lindner sexually abused two boys in 1975. The lawsuit accused Fr. Lindner of using threats to coerce the boys to remain silent about the abuse. Fr. Lindner was also named in a 2003 civil lawsuit, which alleged that he sexually abused two children. Fr. Lindner reportedly sexually abused at least 10 victims, including his own nieces and nephews. Fr. Lindner was sent to live at Jesuit retreat centers in the Diocese of San Jose from approximately 1998 until at least 2012. In 2010, one of Fr. Lindner's alleged victims assaulted him. Fr. Lindner was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. Fr. Fr. Theodore Llanos

Ordination: 1974

Notes: According to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles at least 21 survivors have come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Fr. Theodore Llanos. The abuse spans a 20-year period. Fr. Llanos allegedly sexually abused children while he worked at St. Barbara in Santa Ana; St. Bernard in Los Angeles; St. Louise de Marillac in Covina; St. Bernard in Bellflower; and St. Barnabas in Long Beach. Fr. Llanos is ranked #4 on the Archdiocese's list of top 10 abusers. In 1990, Fr. Llanos worked on the personnel board where he made decisions whether pedophile priests should get evaluated, go to treatment, be removed, or transferred. In 1995, an arrest warrant was issued for Fr. Llanos on 38 counts of child sexual abuse. The charges were later dropped because they fell outside the statute of limitations. Fr. Llanos was sent to St. Luke Institute, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Fr. Llanos committed suicide in 1996. There have been numerous civil lawsuits filed against Fr. Llanos. Fr. Llanos was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors.

Msgr. Richard A. Loomis

Ordination: 1976

Notes: Prior to Msgr. Richard A. Loomis' ordination he taught at Pater Noster High School and was known as Brother Beckett. A 2003 child sexual abuse lawsuit alleges Msgr. Loomis sexually abused a teenage boy from approximately 1969 to 1971 at Pater Noster. Another incident of alleged sexual abuse in approximately 1974 was reported against Msgr. Loomis in 2004. Shortly after the 2004 report, Msgr. Loomis was placed on administrative leave. In 2014, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles announced the Vatican Tribunal found the allegations of sexual abuse against Msgr. Loomis to be unsubstantiated. The Archdiocese lifted its restrictions on Msgr. Loomis, called him a priest "in good standing," and assigned him to work at Holy Cross in Moorpark, California. It is believed Msgr. Loomis may also have worked at St. Brendan's in Los Angeles as recently as 2017. It is believed he currently resides in Camarillo, CA and it is unknown whether he has access to children.

Msgr. Loomis worked in various positions within the Archdiocese including Bishop Montgomery High School in Torrance; principal at Mary Star of the Sea High School and Daniel Murphy High School in Los Angeles; Vicar for Clergy from 1996 to 2000; and as a canonical investigator in all cases involving complaints of sexual misconduct against priests beginning in 2001. During his time as canonical investigator, Msgr. Loomis failed to report child sexual abuse allegations against Fr. Michael Baker. He later testified Cardinal Roger Mahony told him not to report the allegations until the Vatican approved Fr. Baker's defrocking. Although Fr. Baker was defrocked in December 2000 the Archdiocese did not report the abuse claims until 2002. Msgr. Loomis was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors.

Fr. Fernando Lopez Lopez

Ordination: 2000

Notes: Fr. Fernando Lopez, also known as Fr. Fernando Lopez Lopez, was accused of sexually abusing at least four boys from 2000 to 2004 and has been named in at least one civil lawsuit. In 2000, while Fr. Lopez was a member of the Tivoli (Rome) Diocese, he committed child sexual abuse. He pleaded guilty to repeated sexual violence on a minor and was asked to leave his post in Italy. In 2001, Fr. Lopez came to California and the Diocese of San Bernardino refused to allow him into ministry, but he was subsequently allowed to work in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. He was assigned to work at St. Thomas the Apostle, where he was again accused of child sexual abuse from 2001 to 2004. Fr. Fernando Lopez was arrested in 2004 for child and adult sexual abuse on multiple molestation-related counts. In 2005, he was found guilty and was sentenced to six years and eight months in prison. In 2006, his conviction was overturned by the 2nd District Court of Appeal as they ruled that misconduct had taken place during Fr. Lopez's trial. In 2008, the California Supreme Court overturned the District Court of Appeal's decision and the case returned to court where his conviction was upheld. In 2008, he was deported back to Colombia. As of 2011, it was reported that he had been defrocked but could possibly still be acting as a priest in Colombia. Fr. Lopez's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Lawrence (Larry Joseph (L.J.)) Lovell, C.M.F.

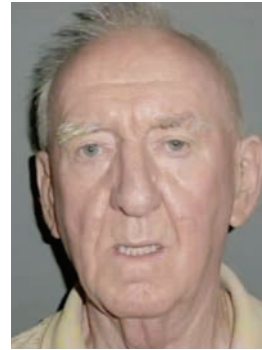

Ordination: 1951

Notes: Fr. Lawrence Lovell is a Claretian priest. He has been accused of sexually abusing at least 11 children and has been named in at least two civil lawsuits. In 1986, after being criminally charged with sexually abusing a child, Fr. Lovell pled no contest and received three years of probation. After he was criminally convicted, Fr. Lovell was removed from ministry. At some point, Fr. Lovell was sent to Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. He was laicized in 1992. It is believed that Fr. Lovell was residing in Rio Rancho, New Mexico in the mid-1990s. In 2003, Fr. Lovell was arrested and criminally charged in California for sexually abusing a child under the age of 14, but the charges were later dismissed. Fr. Lovell was also indicted for child sexual abuse in Arizona in 2003 and pled guilty. As of 2013, Lovell was serving a 14-year sentence for sexually abusing children in Yavapai and Maricopa counties. Fr. Lovell was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. His current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Denis Lyons

Ordination: 1958

Notes: Fr. Denis Lyons has a history of sexual abuse allegations in Orange County, California. In 1993, he admitted to inappropriate behavior with two adults when he worked as pastor at St. John the Baptist in Costa Mesa. Fr. Lyons was placed on administrative leave in 2002. Fr. Lyons is believed to have been residing in Seal Beach, CA in 2002. He was arrested in 2003 on charges he sexually abused a teenage boy in 1979 during counseling sessions at St. John the Baptist and during visits to the boy's home. The charges were later dropped due to the statute of limitations. In 2008, a man filed a lawsuit alleging Fr. Lyons sexually abused him when he was a third grader at St. John the Baptist School from approximately 1994 to 1995. In 2009, Fr. Lyons was arrested on new charges of child sexual abuse. On March 23, 2012, Fr. Lyons pleaded guilty to the charges and was sentenced to one year in jail, five years' probation, and had to register as a sex offender. Fr. Lyons' status per the Diocese of Orange's website in 2016 was "Life of Prayer and Penance." Fr. Lyons was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. He was also included in the Diocese of Orange's list of clergy removed from ministry as a result of a credible allegation of sexual abuse. Fr. Lyons' current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Cardinal Roger Mahony

Ordination: 1962

Notes: By his own admission, Cardinal Roger M. Mahony, the former archbishop of Los Angeles, tragically mishandled cases of abusive priests while he held leadership positions in the Archdiocese. Documents released as part of the Archdiocese's 2007 settlement with survivors of child sexual abuse showed that top officials, including Cardinal Mahony, "maneuvered behind the scenes to shield molester priests, provide damage control for the church and keep parishioners in the dark." (Samantha Tata, Former Cardinal Mahony Stripped of Public Duties for Role in Shielding Alleged Priest Child Molesters, NBC Southern California, Jan. 31, 2013). Archbishop Jose Gomez announced in 2013 that retired Cardinal Mahony would be relieved from any administrative or public duties in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. He was, however, permitted to continue offering Mass at his North Hollywood parish and remained a priest in good standing. At least two survivors have come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Cardinal Mahony, between approximately 1970 and 1993. Neither claim was substantiated. Cardinal Mahony was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. It is believed Cardinal Mahony is living in North Hollywood, CA. Cardinal Mahony's status as a priest and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr Titian Jim (James) Miani S.D.B.

Ordination: 1955

Notes: Fr. Titian Miani is a Salesian priest born in Italy. He has been accused of sexually abusing at least four children and has been named in at least three civil lawsuits alleging child sexual abuse. In 1947, while he was still in Italy, Fr. Miani was accused of assaulting a boy during a church retreat in Perdonone. After the abuse was reported, church officials allegedly sent him to do mission work with children in Brazil. Later, he worked at St. Mary's Home for Boys in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, where he was accused of sexually abusing at least three students. Between 1959 and 1963,

Fr. Miani was accused of abusing two high school-aged boys. Fr. Miani left the Salesian order in 1974 and was incardinated into the Diocese of Stockton. In 1993, a woman reported to the Vicar for the Clergy's office in Los Angeles that she was sexually abused Fr. Miani in approximately 1970 when she was in about sixth grade, and that Fr. Miani continued to sexually abuse her for several years. The Diocese of Stockton allegedly removed Fr. Miani from active ministry in 2002. In 2003 Fr. Miani was arrested and criminally charged with having sexually abused two girls in the 1960s in Bellflower. According to a 2008 lawsuit, Fr. Miani is believed to have abused more than 12 children in his two stints at St. John Bosco High School in Bellflower. Fr. Miani was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. As part of its bankruptcy proceeding, the Diocese of Stockton included Fr. Miani in its list of claimed abusers. As of 2008, Fr. Miani was believed to be living in Stockton, California. Fr. Miani's current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. George Michael Miller

Ordination: 1963

Notes: Fr. George Miller allegedly sexually abused multiple boys in the 1970s and 1980s while he worked at Guardian Angel in Pacoima, California. Investigators allege he abused victims in the rectory, at a beach house, and at their homes. Despite written allegations of sexual abuse in 1977, a firm denial of misconduct by Fr. Miller resulted in the decision of Cardinal Timothy Manning to keep Fr. Miller in ministry. In 1996, the Archdiocese received a complaint of sexual abuse against Fr. Miller. In response to the complaint Cardinal Roger Mahony placed Fr. Miller on sick leave and eventually placed him on inactive leave in 1997, never to return him back to ministry. In 2002, Fr. Miller was arrested and charged with 24 counts of sex crimes against minors involving three boys. The charges were later dropped due to the statute of limitations. Fr. Miller was laicized in May 2005. In 2007, Fr. Miller was arrested and eventually pleaded guilty to sexually abusing a nine-year-old boy from approximately 1988 to 1991. Fr. Miller also admitted to sexually abusing four other boys whose cases could not be prosecuted because of the statute of limitations. In 2009, Fr. Miller was sentenced to three years in prison and had to register as a sex offender for life. Fr. Miller was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. It is believed that Fr. Miller died in June 2018.

Fr. Jeffrey Newell

Ordination: 1990

Notes: At least one survivor came forward in 1991 accusing Fr. Jeffrey Newell of child sexual abuse in Los Angeles. The archdiocese promised the survivor that Fr. Newell would never work with children again and removed him from the ministry in 1993. However, in 2010, Fr. Newell was found working with young men in Tijuana, Mexico. Fr. Newell was named in a 2010 civil lawsuit alleging that Archdiocese of Los Angeles Church leaders were negligent and fraudulent as they allowed Fr. Newell to work as a priest in another country. In 2014, more survivors came forward alleging child sexual abuse in Tijuana and he was removed without privileges from the Archdiocese of Tijuana. Fr. Newell's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. John Baptist Ormechea, C.P.

Ordination: 1965

Notes: Fr. John Ormechea was a Passionist priest who worked in the Archdiocese of Chicago. He spent at least four years living at a Passionist Retreat House in Sierra Madre, CA. Fr. Ormechea allegedly sexually abused minors at many of the locations at which he worked. In 1993, a survivor reported to Fr. Ormechea's superiors that Fr. Ormechea sexually abused him as a child at Immaculate Conception Church in Chicago in 1983. The survivor and his parents were allegedly told that Fr. Ormechea had been removed from Immaculate Conception in 1988 because of another incident of inappropriate conduct with a minor. In 2003, Fr. Ormechea was removed from ministry after Chicago prosecutors reported that four other men had reported abuse by Fr. Ormechea when they were children. As of 2017, it is believed that Fr. Ormechea is working in Mission Appeals in Rome. Fr. Ormechea's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Ernest Paone

Ordination: 1957

Notes: Fr. Ernest Paone was named in the 2018 Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report. Fr. Paone was under investigation for sexually molesting young boys in 1964. Fr. Paone was granted a leave of absence in 1966 and traveled west to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and then to the Diocese of San Diego. According to a letter dated August 14, 1968, Fr. Paone stated that he was living with his brother in Oceanside, California. During the decades between Fr. Paone's departure from Pennsylvania in 1966 and 1991, Fr. Paone worked as pastor of a parish in Diamond Bar, California. Fr.

Paone reported to the Diocese of Pittsburgh that his service included hearing "many confessions in that parish." Fr. Paone also worked in two parishes in the Diocese of San Diego. Fr. Paone taught in public schools, and attended at least one class at Catholic University in San Diego. Diocesan records in Pittsburgh reveal that Bishop Wuerl granted Fr. Paone's request to be reassigned on October 22, 1991, to the Diocese of Reno-Las Vegas. In Bishop Wuerl's 1991 correspondence with the Diocese of Reno, he notes that Fr. Paone had most recently served on a high school faculty in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. In 1994, the Diocese of Pittsburgh received another complaint of child sexual abuse committed by Fr. Paone, and Fr. Paone was sent to St. Luke Institute, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. In a letter to St. Luke, the Diocese of Pittsburgh acknowledged that Fr. Paone had been teaching seventh and eighth grade students in the Diocese of San Diego for 19 years. In 1994, Bishop Wuerl informed the relevant Dioceses in California of the most recent child sexual abuse complaint against Fr. Paone. However, in 1996, at the request of the Diocese of San Diego, Bishop Wuerl signed an affidavit which stated, among other things, the Fr. Paone has "not had any problems involving sexual abuse, any history of sexual involvement with minors or others, or any other inappropriate sexual behavior." In 2002, another victim came forward alleging that he was sexually abused by Fr. Paone in the 1960s.

Ordination: 1971

Notes: Multiple survivors have come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Fr. Jose I. Ugarte in 1983 and in 1993 while Fr. Ugarte worked for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. One report made to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles alleged Fr. Ugarte drugged and raped a boy in a hotel in Ensenada, CA. In 1994, rather than turn Fr. Ugarte over to authorities, Cardinal Mahony instructed Fr. Ugarte to return to his home country of Spain, not return to the United States without express consent of the Archbishop for at least seven years, to find a secular job, and not to celebrate mass in public. In 2017, it is believed Fr. Ugarte was living in Whittier, CA. Fr. Ugarte's status as a priest, his current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Robert Van Handel, O.F.M.

Ordination: 1975

Notes: Fr. Robert Van Handel was a Franciscan priest. He started a boys' choir in Berkeley, California and later moved to Santa Barbara, California, where he taught at St. Anthony's Seminary High School and founded the Santa Barbara Boys' Choir. At these locations, Fr. Van Handel allegedly abused at least 25 boys from 1975 to 1992, including his own nephew. Fr. Van Handel himself was allegedly sexually abused as a student at St. Anthony's in the 1960s. The first allegation of child sexual abuse against Fr. Van Handel came in 1992 and resulted in Fr. Van Handel being removed from the active ministry and sent to treatment at St. Luke's Institute, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. In 1994, Fr. Van Handel was criminally charged with abuse of students and sentenced to eight years in prison. He only served four years in prison and was on parole for four years. After his release in 1998, he moved to Santa Cruz, California, his last known location, where he is a registered sex offender. He was laicized in 1997. Fr. Van Handel was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. As of 2013, Fr. Van Handel was believed to be residing in Gresham, Oregon. His current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. John H. Wadeson, S.V.D.

Ordination: 1969

Notes: Fr. John H. Wadeson was a member of the religious order, Society of the Divine Word. Multiple survivors have come forward with allegations of child sexual abuse from 1973 to 1977 in Los Angeles. The allegations were deemed credible by church officials and he was banned from working as a priest in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Despite this, Fr. Wadeson moved to Guam where he was incardinated into the Archdiocese of Agana in 2000. Fr. Wadeson worked as a priest in Guam until 2014, when the allegations of his past were made known to the Archdiocese of Agana, resulting in his removal. Additionally, in 2008 and in 2011, Fr. Wadeson worked as a guest priest in San Francisco where he interacted with children. Once the Archdiocese of San Francisco learned of the allegations against him, they removed him. In 2015, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles did a re-examination and found the allegations against Fr. Wadeson to be unsupported, allowing him to be reinstated. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles and Archdiocese of Agana consider him to be a priest in good standing. Fr. Wadeson was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors. It is believed Fr. Wadeson is still in active ministry in Guam. Whether he is under restriction or has access to children is unknown.

Msgr. Ernesto Corral Villaroya

Ordination: 1959

Notes: According to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, at least one survivor has come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Msgr. Ernesto C. Villaroya in approximately 1983. It is believed he fathered a child born of the abuse. Msgr. Villaroya was an extern priest visiting from the Philippines. He lacked permission from the Archdiocese to function as a priest but did so anyway. The Archdiocese sent Msgr. Villaroya three "cease and desist" letters - in 1991, 1993, and 1995 - after other clerics expressed concern that he was working in a parish. He is believed to have worked as a guest priest at St. Philomena in Carson, California for years before the first warning letter was sent in 1991. Msgr. Villaroya initially failed to seek permission to serve in the Archdiocese and was rejected when he asked later. Msgr. Villaroya was hired by the Diocese of Dallas in 1996 and apparently had not worked officially as a priest in 12 years. He has been named in at least one civil lawsuit filed in 2002. The Diocese placed him on administrative leave after they learned of the lawsuit. Msgr. Villaroya worked as an assistant pastor at St. John Nepomucene in Ennis, Texas when he was placed on leave. In 2003, the suit was dismissed and Msgr. Villaroya was reassigned to St. Francis of Assisi in Frisco, Texas. Angered parishioners at St. Francis of Assisi forced him to quit. According to the Official Catholic Directory for the year 2010, Msgr. Villaroya was a retired priest residing in the Diocese of Dallas. He is believed to have died in 2018. Msgr. Villaroya was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors.

Fr. William C. Wert, O.Carm.

Ordination: 1986

Notes: A member of the Carmelite Order, Fr. William C. Wert worked in California at Crespi Carmelite High School in Encino. Fr. Wert was arrested in 2007 in Washington D.C. for allegedly sexually abusing a 14-year-old boy. He was sentenced to 15 days in jail and five years' probation. The Order moved Fr. Wert to a church-owned retirement home in Venice, Florida and banned him from ministry following his 2007 sentencing. Fr. John Welch, a Prior who oversaw Fr. Wert, did not notify the Diocese of Venice about his presence or conviction. The retirement home Fr. Wert resided in was located just four blocks from Epiphany Cathedral and its school. In 2011, Fr. Wert was again arrested on child sexual abuse charges. He was accused of sexually abusing a 14-year-old boy between approximately 2010 and 2011. A civil lawsuit was filed naming Fr. Wert in 2011. In 2013, Fr. Wert was sentenced to life in prison.

1994	Died

Bishop G. Patrick Ziemann

Ordination: 1967

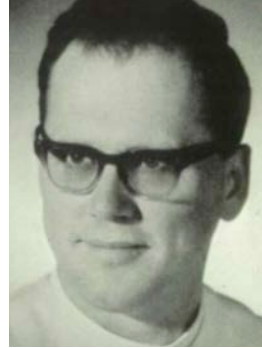

Notes: According to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles at least three survivors have come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Bishop G. Patrick Ziemann, between approximately 1967 and 1986. Bishop Ziemann resigned in 1999 as Bishop of the Santa Rosa diocese amid sexual and financial scandals. Fr. Jorge Hume Salas, a fellow priest, filed a lawsuit alleging Bishop Ziemann coerced him into a sexual relationship in exchange for keeping silent about the priest's admitted theft of money from an Ukiah parish. He admitted to his affair with Fr. Salas, but said the relationship was consensual. Bishop Ziemann was named in two civil lawsuits, which accused him of sexually abusing three boys. Bishop Ziemann was sent to St. John Vianney, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. It is believed Bishop Ziemann lived in St. David, Arizona without faculties until his death in 2009. Bishop Ziemann was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' list of priests accused of sexual misconduct involving minors.
