Purpose & Background

In 2003, the California State Legislature opened a one year, retroactive window for survivors of child sexual abuse to file civil claims against their perpetrator and the institution that covered up the sexual abuse. As a result of the courage of survivors and the lawsuits brought by survivors' attorneys, nearly one hundred lawsuits related to the employment of sexually abusive priests in the Diocese of Orange were filed. For the first time significant numbers of survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and their attorneys were able to pry open secret Church records using the civil legal process. These lawsuits also resulted in the release and disclosure of the identities and histories of clerical sexual abusers within the Diocese of Orange to the public.

This report contains the names of clergy associated with the Diocese of Orange, including those of whom were assigned within or working in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles within the geographical boundaries now encompassed by the Diocese of Orange, who have been accused of sexual misconduct. While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, the vast majority of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil or criminal court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law. All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law.

It is believed that the Diocese of Orange does not make available to the public the full history, knowledge, and context of the sexually abusive clerics within the Diocese. This report is an attempt to compile information already available to the public from various sources in the public media; bishopaccountability.org; the Diocese's public statements; and other sources that have attempted to chronicle this information for public use. This report is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of clerical sexual abuse, provide the public with vital information including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. Assignment histories are approximations and were compiled from the Official Catholic Directory, bishopaccountability.org, statements attributed to Church officials, Church records, and media reports.

Supporting California Abuse Survivors for Decades

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. Through its work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seek to bring hope, healing, accountability and justice to survivors of child sexual abuse. The attorneys have advocated for survivor rights in California for years and represented hundreds of survivors when the California State Legislature opened and extended a retroactive window for sexual abuse survivors to file claims. In addition to seeking legal accountability, they have supported survivors of abuse by bringing public awareness to the cause. Jeff Anderson & Associates use legal theories, including public nuisance, to help prevent child sexual abuse and bring awareness to clerical sexual abuse across the country.

ATTORNEY JEFF ANDERSON

Jeff Anderson first sued enablers of clerical sexual abuse in California as early as 1993 for abuse perpetrated by a Catholic priest associated with the Diocese of San Bernardino, Diocese of San Diego and Servite Order. Since then, his firm and the attorneys who work with him, have been associated with more cases involving sexually abusive clerics than any other law firm in the country. For decades, the attorneys have sued nearly every Catholic diocese and archdiocese in California; the Lutheran Church; the Boy Scouts of America; American Youth Soccer Organization; multiple private schools; and numerous other individuals and institutions in California.

ATTORNEY MIKE FINNEGAN

Mike Finnegan has worked for over a decade with thousands of courageous survivors of childhood sexual abuse. In addition to an attorney of record in multiple federal lawsuits against the Vatican, Mike has sued numerous dioceses and religious institutions in California. Mike played an integral role in helping survivors in California and resolving hundreds of cases under the 2003 window legislation. Hailing from Minnesota, Mike played a pivotal role in forcing the Catholic bishops in Minnesota to release over 200 names of priest perpetrators to the public and thousands of pages of documents demonstrating the cover-up by top officials.

ATTORNEY MIKE RECK

Mike Reck's practice is the representation of survivors against the powerful institutions that covered up the sexual abuse of children. Mike is a California native whose career against institutional abuse has included lawsuits against multiple dioceses and religious orders in California and throughout the country. Mike has been a courtroom figure with trial experience for nearly two decades. Recently, Mike fought for accountability on behalf of survivors in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles; several dioceses in New York, including the Diocese of Buffalo and the Archdiocese of New York; the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and numerous other religious institutions and Catholic dioceses in the states of Hawaii, Connecticut, New York, Oregon, California, Pennsylvania, and Delaware.

Jeff Anderson & Associates

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 30 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers, we have represented thousands of survivors of child sexual abuse against individual offenders and the institutions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

Abuse in the Diocese of Orange

This report is intended to be a chronology and analysis of the sexual abuse of children within the Diocese of Orange including a discussion of how the highest Church officials enabled the abusers and covered up crimes of sexual misconduct and abuse.

The data reveals the horrifying scale of priests sexually assaulting minors from early history when the Diocese of Orange was included within the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to the present day. The data collected suggests the patterns and practices of Church officials, including the orchestrating of an institutional cover-up of an enormous magnitude. Perhaps most shocking among the discoveries is that some perpetrators were intentionally transferred and retained in trusted positions with direct access to children even when they were known to be abusers. Modern means of analysis and availability of data through the Internet and social media is exposing perpetrators who operated in the Diocese, but until full transparency and accountability exist, children remain in grave danger.

Historically, the Diocese of Orange, like many other dioceses and archdioceses, knew priests were perpetrators that posed a significant danger to children. The sexual abuse of children has long been a crime in California. However, Church officials chose and continue to keep these crimes hidden, allowing its priests continued and unfettered access to children. During the 1980s and 1990s, occasional bits of information about clerical abuse would surface, but the Church's strict policy of secrecy kept most of the information and full extent of the problem hidden from the public. This has continued despite mandated reporting laws.

The civil window in 2003 subjected the Diocese of Orange to additional scrutiny that it had never previously faced. This window was one short year. During this time survivors brought claims against the Diocese for abuse by clerics and lay employees of the Diocese. For the first time, a significant number of survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and their attorneys were able to pry open secret Church records using subpoenas and court orders.

History of the Diocese of Orange

The Diocese of Orange is the seventh largest diocese in the nation. Once the most southern territory of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, the Diocese of Orange encompasses the entire County of Orange. It was established by the Holy See on June 18, 1976. On this date, all priests living in the boundaries of Orange County were officially made priests of the new diocese.

The Geographic Solution – Perpetrator Priests Accepted Into the Diocese

Sexually abusive priests have been both accepted into and transferred from the Diocese of Orange. This shrewd tactic was at the direction of and with the full knowledge of Church officials. In 1976 (the first year the Diocese existed), Archbishop Cousins of Milwaukee informed Bishop Johnson of Orange that Fr. Siegfried Widera was subject to multiple allegations in Wisconsin. In that jurisdiction, Fr. Widera was subject to mandatory treatment/counseling. Church records indicate Fr. Widera subsequently joined Bishop Johnson in the Diocese of Orange.

The Geographic Solution – Perpetrator Priests Transferred Out of the Diocese

When the Diocese of Orange was created in 1976, Fr. Eleuterio Ramos was already under the psychological care of a doctor. Multiple allegations of taking children to inappropriate movies and possessing pornography followed during the 1970s and 1980s. In August of 1985, Fr. Ramos was accused of abusing a 17 year old boy. In response, Bishop Johnson provided him with a car and arranged for him to begin ministry in the Diocese of Tijuana, Mexico.

Failures by the Highest Diocesan Officials

Bishop Johnson's early failures are not isolated mistakes. The hierarchy of the Diocese of Orange have consistently displayed callous and dangerous behavior to victims and survivors of sexual abuse. Bishop Tod Brown oversaw and protected child sex abusers throughout his career. Beginning in the Diocese of Monterey, Bp. Brown (then acting as Msgr. Brown) accepted Fr. Gerald Funcheon who had just been removed from a school in Honolulu, Hawaii for sexually abusing children. After welcoming him to the Diocese of Orange, Bp. Brown allowed Fr. Funcheon to isolate young boys on weekend camping trips where he perpetrated abuse against them. When the Diocese of Orange was subject to multiple lawsuits, Bp. Brown announced that the Diocese of Orange reported to the John Jay College of Criminal Justice that it had 16 abusive priests accused by 47 victims. Bishop Kevin Van recently announced allegations against 14 priests.

Diocese of Orange Officials Have Been Promoted and Protected

Some of the high ranking Church officials in the Diocese of Orange who oversaw allegations involving sexually abusive priests within the Diocese have since been promoted to positions of increased authority or protected within the Church.

ATTENTION: Father Michael Driscoll

Dear Father Driscoll,

A few days ago I talked by phone to Bishop Johnson about a possible pastoral assignment for Father Siegfried Widera of this Archdiocese. The conversation was very general and the Bishop suggested that perhaps something could be done on a temporary basis. My reason for approaching Bishop Johnson is founded in the fact that Father Widera's brother and family live in Costa Mesa, California. In the course of our conversation the Bishop informed me that he would be absent for a while and asked that I discuss the matter further with you.

I talked to Father Widera this morning and informed him that I was writing to you at the Bishop's request. I learned that he is leaving to visit his brother and will arrive in California on or about January 5th. Under the circumstances I recommended that upon his arrival he immediately get in touch with you or with the Bishop and that in the meantime I would have written to you and to His Excellency.

Father Widera was ordained in 1967 and has done good work for the Diocese in the places to which he was assigned. In his earlier years there was a moral problem having to do with a boy in school. This seemed adequately confronted through treatment and an intense desire upon Father's part to avoid any repetition of a previous offense.

More recently, however, there has been a repetition, and according to our State Laws further psychiatric treatment is mandated with the strong recommendation that no immediate assignment be made in the environs of the Archdiocese.

Father Widera has cooperated in every way and is presently under treatment. His doctor is somewhat in favor of his leaving the scene but expects that there will be continuing treatment. This has already been arranged and a doctor in California will take over at this point. From all the professional information I can gather there would seem no great risk in allowing this man to return to pastoral work, but there are legal complications at present writing. Incidentally, these legal technicalities would permit Father's going to another State as long as treatment is continued.

ATTENTION: Father Michael Driscoll

I would not expect Bishop Johnson or yourself to act in this matter without first of all interviewing Father Widera and satisfying yourself that charity will not add to existing personnel problems. If the man could be assigned on a temporary basis or if he could be given some part-time work that would give him the support of living in residence with other priests, half of the problem would be licked. This must be left to the Bishop's discretion and this discretion should not be exercised until pertinent and important questions have been answered. I hope this can be accomplished in a personal interview sometime in January.

There is no thought of incardination involved, and I am quite willing to accept the man back into the Archdiocese whenever circumstances would indicate. Though I anticipate no recurrence of this past aberration, I would certainly want to be informed if the slightest suspicion were to develop. I would like to show fraternal charity to a fellow priest but I cannot be virtuous at the expense of a fellow Bishop.

With the warmest of personal regards and with every good wish for the Holiday Season, I am

Fraternally yours in Christ,

RE: REVEREND ELEUTERIO V. RAMOS

Your Excellency:

His Excellency, the Most Reverend William R. Johnson, has asked me to write to you regarding Reverend Eleuterio V. Ramos sharing his activities and assignments in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, as well as the Diocese of Orange, and some of the problems which Father Al has had, along with the actions taken.

Father Al was born March 23, 1940, in Los Angeles and is a citizen of the United States of America. He attended school in the city of Los Angeles - entering the high school seminary in 1954. He completed his studies in 1966 and was ordained in the Cathedral of Saint Vibiana by His Eminence, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre on April 30, 1966.

Father Ramos was assigned as an associate pastor on May 14, 1966, to Saint Thomas Apostle Parish in Los Angeles. He served there in this capacity until June 14, 1971, when he was assigned as associate pastor to Saint Marianne Parish in Pico Rivera. August 1, 1972, he was assigned as associate pastor to Resurrection Parish in Los Angeles. On March 5, 1975, he was assigned as associate pastor in Placentia to Saint Joseph Parish.

The Diocese of Orange was created from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles on June 18, 1976. On this date Father Ramos became a member of the Diocese of Orange as all priests living in the boundaries of Orange County were officially made priests of the new diocese. On July 1, 1978, Father Ramos was assigned as associate pastor to Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Santa Ana where he served until September 21, 1979. On this date Father Ramos was granted sick leave and entered an alcoholism treatment program at Saint Luke Institute at Marsalin, Massachusetts. He was at Saint Lukes until May 6, 1980, when he was assigned as associate pastor to Saint Angela Merici Parish in Brea, continuing his therapy. July, 1983, he was appointed as associate pastor in Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in La Habra, and pastor of Saint Anthony Claret in Anaheim, July, 1984, where he served until September 1, 1985.

Most Reverend Emilio Berlie

In going through the personnel file on Father Ramos, I have found the following notations and memoranda regarding problems and actions taken:

3/27/75 - a memo from Monsignor John Rawden, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, to Monsignor Benjamin G. Hawkes, Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, informing him that as director of the Priests' Relief Association, Father Ramos would be in contact with him. The memo continues that Father Ramos would be in psychological care with Dr. Klaus Hoppe. This care was suggested by the District Attorney as a result of a recent incident. This was the entirety of the memo and the incident was not clarified.

4/1/75 - a letter from Father Ramos to Monsignor Hawkes stating that Dr. Klaus Hoppe had become his psychotherapist and requesting funding for payment of the therapy.

9/13/79 - letter from [REDACTED] and Sr. Mary Albert, principal at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Santa Ana, to Bishop William Johnson. This letter expresses concern for Father Ramos and a desire to meet with Bishop Johnson. Their concern was over a suspected alcohol problem as well as a feeling that Father Al was taking young people to inappropriate movies.

In December, 1979, Father Al entered alcoholism therapy at St. Luke's Institute, Marsalin, Massachusetts. Following his treatment there, which concluded May, 1980, he continued therapy with Dr. Klaus Hoppe, as well as attending weekly AA groups.

9/21/82 - a meeting with myself and the parents of a boy named [REDACTED] age 16. Feelings expressed by parents that Father Al needed help. Once again it was over inappropriate movies as well as the showing of "girlie" magazines. Father Al continued therapy with Dr. Hoppe.

August, 1985, - incident with a 17 year old boy from St. Anthony Claret Parish, in Anaheim, resulting in Father Al's resignation from the parish and his application to Your Excellency for work.

Bishop Johnson has provided Father Ramos with an automobile. The registration of the car has been changed to the name of Father Al Ramos. Bishop Johnson will continue to carry the insurance for the automobile whenever it is in the United States. He has requested Father Ramos to purchase insurance in Mexico for the car while it is there.

Bishop Johnson has agreed to pay Father Ramos a monthly honorarium to help him in his support. This honorarium amounts to $332.00 per month.

Bishop Johnson has asked Father Ramos to meet with Dr. Hoppe on a monthly basis which Father Ramos has agreed to do. Father Ramos will pay the cost of this therapy which amount to $100.00 per visit.

Bishop Johnson has told Father Ramos that if there should be any further incidences of his problem that he, as his bishop, would have no hesitation in suspending him from his priestly duties and make an application to Rome for his reduction to the lay state.

Bishop Johnson feels that it is very important that the pastor where Father Ramos is staying be made aware of the nature of his problems. He would hope that this pastor would be open to help and assist Father Al, if tempted, so that there be no reoccurrence.

Bishop Johnson is most grateful to Your Excellency for your openness to Father Ramos. Father Ramos is a beloved member of our clergy and a friend. We deeply regret the problems he has and hope that he may now completely come to grips with facing these problems and overcoming them.

Praying God's continued blessings on you and your ministry, I remain

I spoke with Bishop Berlie this afternoon shortly after 12:00pm. After a brief exchange of greetings I presented to him the reason for my call. I told him that there have been new allegations regarding Fr. Al Ramos and that we have reason to believe that there is a substance of truth to what has been presented.

Bishop Berlie interrupted me to emphasize that he had received Al Ramos at the request of Bishop Johnson. He went on extensively about what a wonderful man Bishop Johnson was and that out of respect for him he had continued to allow Al Ramos to serve in his diocese. He related me that Bishop Johnson was very upset when he had called to make the request that Bishop Berlie accept Fr. Ramos. He said that Bishop Johnson wept over the matter.

I explained to Bishop Berlie that because these new allegations have come forward Bishop McFarland felt obligated to inform him of these and to stress again that Fr. Ramos is suspended from functioning. I told him that Bishop McFarland counsels him against allowing Al Ramos to function as a priest. He is putting at risk his own people, most particularly the children who might be under his care. Bishop McFarland considers it criminal that he would be allowed to function. I asked if Fr. Ramos was still functioning. The Bishop responded yes. He said that they have had cases such as these where men have recovered.

Bishop Berlie then went on for about 10 minutes on what he thought about the American Church's manner of responding to these cases. He thinks that the Church is allowing itself to be exploited, that we are kneeling, bending under the attacks that have been leveled against us. I tried to explain to him that this matter was largely out of our control. We have already taken steps to respond but the media has exploited these cases for their own agenda. I also informed him of the Holy Father's letter to the Bishops. He was unaware of the letter and requested that it be sent to him by fax. He did say that he had a high regard for the Church in the United States and for the colossal work being done. For that reason he finds the current attacks and the Church's response incomprehensible.

Conversation with Bishop Berlie regarding Fr. Ramos

I returned to the matter of Fr. Ramos and repeated what I had said earlier. Fr. Ramos should not be allowed to function. I explained that we had strong reason to believe that Fr. Ramos has not been cured of this and that he continues to hold in his possession indecent photos of some of the young people he victimized.

Bishop Berlie said that he understood that Al Ramos was still a priest of Orange and that his bishop has suspended his faculties. He requested some days before giving a response. He asked that I call on Friday. I suggested Monday since I will be away on Friday. He said fine but that I should speak to the Vicar General, Msgr. De La Cerda.

We exchanged good wishes and ended our conversation.

Dear Don,

Bill Straker and I got together in SF. two weekends and Myron Effing come by for a couple days. So I'm not entirely isolated out here so far.

I asked the deacon to recommend a counsellor. A new one just moved into the area. He teaches for the Jesuits and has worked with many religious. He is very straight forward and does not waste a lot of time. He is very helpful. He told me I expect too much; from myself and others. The world is imperfect and I need to work within that context. Back off, in other words.

I began to repeat my pattern out here right away. The P.E. teachers I work with are football coaches. Our P.E. classes are literally, "throw out the balls" = no instruction, teaching, etc. Then the coaches put football equipment away, get on the phone, draw up plays, etc. I wanted to teach something else, but they cited the status quo - naturally. The principal doesn't want to upset these guys - they've been forever. The doctor told me I have to settle for the situation as is. He agrees the program is poor, and should be quality - but - I am all alone being concerned - so call it off. Even if I was put in charge of the P.E. dept, no one would change regardless. So go along and wait 'till the next school - find something else to do well. So I am teaching lifesaving (Red Cross) at the YMCA two nights a week for Archib.

Also trying to lose some weight. So far, I have changed my attitude toward the P.E. I am present to "supervise" the students, but don't say or do anything. It no longer bothers me very much now. C-GF00684

DIOCESE OF ORANGE CA

Accused Priests: 16
Total Priests: 589
Alleged Victims: 47
Cost: $4,666,000

See Cathy Lynn Grossman, Survey: More Clergy Abuse Cases Than Previously Thought (2/10/04) with AP table of data for 74 dioceses.

See the Dallas Morning News database entry on Bishop Tod Brown. The June 2002 database examined the records of bishops and identified those who had allowed accused priests to continue working or had otherwise protected priests accused of sexual abuse. The database is relevant to the bishops' "Nature and Scope" study because the bishops who prepared the surveys for the study are in many cases responsible for the "scope" of the problem.

DIOCESE OF ORANGE NEWS RELEASE

January 10, 2004

<http://www.rcbo.org/concerns/sixteen.htm>

SIXTEEN PRIESTS ACCUSED AND REMOVED FROM MINISTRY REPORTED TO JOHN JAY STUDY NAMED

The Diocese of Orange reported to the John Jay College of Criminal Justice that 16 priests were accused by 47 people, according to the numbers released by Shirl Giacomi, Chancellor of the Diocese. The 16 priests represent 2.8% of the 589 clergy who have ministered in the diocese since its founding in 1976. The study period ended December 31, 2002, and covers only clergy, not lay church employees.

They are: Christian Anderson, Franklin Buckman, Santino Casamino, Richard Coughlin, Robert Foley, Michael Harris, Edgardo Arrunataegui Jimenez, John Kenney, John Lenihan, Denis Lyons, Gary Pacheco, Michael Pecharich, Henry Perez, Eleuterio Ramos, Siegfried Widera. The sixteenth, who is deceased, cannot be identified per the victim's request.

Jerome Henson was not included in our statistics for the John Jay study since the allegation naming him was made while he was serving in the Diocese of Sacramento.

Every diocese, eparchy and religious order in the U.S. is participating in this national study, commissioned by the independent National Review Board of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops, to determine the number of incidents, offenders and victims of sexual abuse of minors between 1950 and 2002.

The John Jay College of Criminal Justice of the City University of New York was selected because of its reputation for research and education in the areas of forensic science, criminology and human behavior.

The following is a breakdown of the numbers for the diocese. Twelve priests were removed from active ministry as a result of credible allegations. Two priests remain on administrative leave and cannot minister because their cases have not yet been adjudicated. Another priest died before the allegation was made. A religious priest left the diocese and later served as a military chaplain for 22 years before the allegation was made against him.

Ordination: 1964

Notes: Fr. John Ruhl was a member of the Vincentian religious order. Fr. Ruhl has been accused of child sexual abuse by at least three people. Fr. Ruhl has been named in two civil lawsuits alleging child sexual abuse; one alleged abuse from approximately 1972 to 1973, and the other alleged abuse from approximately 1981 to 1982. In 1983, Fr. Ruhl was incardinated into the Diocese of Orange. In 1992, a lawsuit was filed against Fr. Ruhl, the Diocese of Orange, bishops, and other church officials. The lawsuit asked for a temporary restraining order and alleged that Fr. Ruhl physically assaulted a kindergartener at St. Joseph Elementary School in Placentia. Shortly after this lawsuit was filed Fr. Ruhl took a leave of absence. Fr. Ruhl attended dinner every Friday night with the family of one of his victims. According to Fr. Ruhl's priest files that were released in 2013, in 1993 church officials noted that they had given Fr. ## Fr. Cesar M. Salazar

Notes: In 2001, a laymen found child pornography on Fr. Salazar's old computer, who at the time was assigned to St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Santa Ana, California. The Santa Ana Police Department was contacted and an investigation was conducted. The investigative report submitted to the Orange County District Attorney's office recommended that Salazar be charged with felony possession of child pornography. The prosecutors, however, rejected the case, stating it would be too difficult to prove Fr. Salazar was the one who downloaded the pornographic images. Following the investigation, Fr. Salazar was allowed to continue working because, according to the Diocese of Orange, child pornography does not fall under the diocese's "zero tolerance" policy for sexual abuse. In 2016, Fr. Salazar was listed on the Diocese of Orange's list of members and former members of the clergy who have been removed from ministry resulting from a credible allegation of sexual abuse as being removed from the priesthood and laicized through canonical process. ## Fr. Siegfried Francis Widera

Notes: After only five years in the priesthood, Fr. Widera was convicted in 1973 of sexual abuse and was sentenced to three years' probation. He had admitted to sexually abusing an 11 year-old boy and several other boys. Fr. Widera was allowed to continue working and was reassigned to St. Andrew's in Delavan, Wisconsin. The parishioners of St. Andrew's were not informed about Fr. Widera's conviction or history of sexual abuse. In June 1976, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee was informed by a therapist that a boy under his treatment disclosed that he had been sexually abused by Fr. Widera. Following this revelation, Fr. Widera was kept in the parish for at least six weeks while he was still on probation, but after his probation ended, Fr. Widera was moved to the Diocese of Orange. He was later accused of sexually abusing multiple young boys at St. Pius V in Buena Park, St. Justin Martyr in Anaheim, and St. Martin de Porres in Yorba Linda shortly after his move to California. In 1985, after he was accused of sexual abuse in Orange County, Fr. Widera was barred from priestly duties and sent to Servants of the Paraclete in Jemez Springs, New Mexico, for treatment. He never finished the treatment and went on to become a businessman in Tucson, Arizona. It wasn't until 2002, when the church's national sex abuse scandal was brought to light, that more victims came forward and Fr. Widera was charged with 33 felony counts of sexual abuse in California and nine counts in Wisconsin. After being indicted, Fr. Widera fled to Mexico, where a manhunt ensued, and upon having his hotel surrounded by law enforcement, Fr. Widera jumped off a balcony. Fr. Widera was included in a press release issued by the Diocese of Orange in 2004 as a priest accused and removed from ministry. In 2006, three more men came forward alleging Fr. Widera had sexually abused them while at St. Andrew's in Delavan, Wisconsin. In total, at least 10 victims have settled civil suits with either the Archdiocese of Milwaukee and/or Diocese of Orange. After Fr. Widera's personal file was released, it was discovered that the Diocese of Orange was aware of his history of sexual abuse but chose to accept him into the Diocese nonetheless.
