Purpose & Background

For decades numerous courageous survivors have spoken their truth and brought lawsuits related to the sexual abuse of children in the Catholic Church throughout New York. Survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and together with their attorneys were able to reveal secret Church records through the courts and civil litigation process. These lawsuits resulted in the release of identities and histories of sexually abusive individuals, those engaged in sexual misconduct, and the release of documents and records reflecting the knowledge of institutions that covered up the sexual abuse and misconduct.

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Albany contains the names of diocesan priests, religious order priests, and other religious clerics associated with the Diocese of Albany, including those of whom were assigned within, working in, or living in the geographical boundaries of the Diocese of Albany, who have been accused of sexual misconduct with minors. The information in this Anderson Report is derived from publicly available sources, claims made by survivors to the dioceses and religious orders responsible for the offenders, and legal settlements made as a result of claims for sexual abuse.

While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, the vast majority of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil or criminal court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law. All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law.

It is believed that the Diocese of Albany has not made available to the public, the full history, knowledge and context of their sexually abusive agents and employees. The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Albany is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct, provide the public with vital information including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. The assignment histories provided are approximations which were compiled from the Official Catholic Directory, BishopAccountability.org, statements attributed to Diocesan and Religious officials, Diocesan and Religious records, and media reports. ¹

¹ The abbreviation in parenthesis following each assignment indicates the Diocese the individual was working and/or residing in at the time of the assignment.

Supporting Albany Abuse Survivors for Decades

Jeff Anderson & Associates, P.A.

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. The attorneys have advocated for survivor rights in New York for many decades, having filed their first lawsuit in New York on behalf of a child sexual abuse survivor in approximately 1988. In addition to seeking legal accountability, the firm has supported survivors of abuse by bringing public awareness to the cause and they have testified before numerous state legislatures endorsing reforms to the statute of limitations. The firm also filed the first case alleging public nuisance against a New York diocese for refusing to disclose the histories and identities of sexually abusive priests. Through its work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seeks to bring hope, healing, accountability, and justice to survivors of sexual abuse.

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 30 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough, and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect, and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers we have represented thousands of survivors of sexual abuse against individual offenders and the intuitions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

For more than 35 years, Jeff Anderson & Associates, and now in partnership with LaFave, Wein & Frament, have advocated for survivors' rights across the nation. The firms work closely together to help survivors of sexual abuse in the Albany, Syracuse and Ogdensburg areas.

LaFave, Wein & Frament

LaFave, Wein & Frament, PLLC is a premier plaintiff's personal injury law firm in New York State working with Jeff Anderson & Associates to help sexual abuse survivors seek justice and accountability. The firm's reputation has been built with over 130 years of combined experience. Every case they handle is pursued tenaciously at all stages of litigation.

Attorneys Cynthia S. LaFave, Jason Frament and the rest of their team spend each day as unwavering advocates for the injured. They practice with integrity, experience and a reputation for results. The firm philosophy is to always fiercely pursue the rights of the survivors, no matter the obstacles. They have compassion, equaled only by their dedication, expertise, energy, creativity and stamina and are proud to represent those who need them the most.

Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Albany

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Albany is intended to be a chronology and analysis of the sexual abuse of children in the Diocese of Albany.

The data collected illustrates the patterns and practices of Diocesan and Religious Order officials who have enabled the abusers and covered up crimes of sexual misconduct and abuse for decades, including the orchestrating of an institutional cover-up of an enormous magnitude. Modern means of analysis and availability of data through the internet, social media, and otherwise publically available information are exposing perpetrators who operated in the Diocese of Albany, but until full transparency and accountability exist, children remain in grave danger.

Historically, the Diocese of Albany, like many other archdioceses and dioceses around the world, knew of predator priests who posed a significant danger to children and others. Sexual abuse of children has long been a crime in New York. However, Diocesan and Religious Order officials chose and continue to keep these crimes hidden allowing their priests continued and unfettered access to vulnerable members of society. Over recent decades, occasional bits of information about abuse within Catholic institutions has surfaced, but the Catholic Church's strict policy of secrecy, has kept important information and the full extent of the problem hidden from the public. This has continued despite mandated reporting laws.

History of the Diocese of Albany

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany was established by the Holy See on April 23, 1847. The Diocese comprises the counties of Albany, Columbia, Delaware, Fulton, Green, Montgomery, Otsego, Rensselaer, Saratoga, Schenectady, Schoharie, Warren Washington and parts of Herkimer and Hamilton counties. According to The Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese is comprised of 125 parishes and 26 schools served by 174 diocesan priests, 36 religious order priests, 51 religious brothers, 525 religious sisters, 315 lay ministers and 563 lay teachers.

On November 12, 2015 the Diocese of Albany released a list of clerics with credible allegations of sexual misconduct with a minor. The Diocese revised the list a second time in 2018 and on January 15, 2019 the Diocese released a third revised list containing the names of 47 clerics with credible allegations of sexual misconduct with a minor.

Those Accused of Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Albany

Fr. Anthony Adams

Ordained, 1940

Notes: Fr. Anthony Adams was ordained a priest in 1940. He spent the next four and a half decades working in the Diocese of Albany until he retired in 1987. Fr. Adams is listed on the Diocese of Albany's 2015, 2018, and 2019 lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." The details of the sexual abuse allegations, including when and where the alleged abuse occurred, are unknown.

Fr. David G. Bentley

Ordained, 1975

Notes: Fr. David G. Bentley worked in the Diocese of Albany for approximately two decades until he was first publicly accused of sexual abuse in a lawsuit filed in 1994. In the lawsuit, a man alleges Fr. Bentley sexually abused him as a boy at the Albany Home for Children in the 1970s. Three years later, the first man's brother, as well as another man, came forward claiming Fr. Bentley also abused them at the Albany Home for Children. Fr. Bentley was officially removed from ministry in 2002. Another lawsuit, filed in 2005, alleges Fr. Bentley sexually abused a boy, beginning when he was eleven years old, on overnight trips to Boston, Massachusetts in the 1980s. The most recent known lawsuit against Fr. Bentley was filed in 2018, in which a man alleges he was sexually abused by Fr. Bentley at Holy Family Catholic Church in Deming, New Mexico, in the late 1990s. Fr. Bentley has been included on the Diocese of Albany's 2015, 2018, and 2019 lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany," and on the Diocese of Las Cruces' list of "Priests and religious credibly accused of sexual abuse of minors who have served within the current territorial boundaries of the Diocese of Las Cruces." Fr. Bentley's current status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. John Patrick Bertolucci

Ordained, 1965

Notes: In 2002, Fr. John Patrick Bertolucci was removed from ministry after he was accused of sexually abusing a boy several times between 1976 and 1979, beginning when the boy was 12 years old. Court papers later revealed that Fr. Bertolucci admitted to improperly touching the boy. Fr. Bertolucci was again accused of sexual abuse in 2011, when a man alleged that four priests, one of whom was Fr. Bertolucci, had sexually abused him on separate occasions at Our Lady of Mercy in Colonie, New York, beginning when he was as young as nine years old. Fr. Bertolucci was named in the Diocese of Albany's 2015, 2018, and 2019 lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." Fr. Bertolucci's status as a priest, whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 2003 until his death are unknown.

Fr. Donald Bolton, C.S.S.R.

Ordained, 1952

Notes: Fr. Donald Bolton worked as a Redemptorist priest for over five decades in various locations in North and South America spending the final years of his career in the Diocese of Albany. In 1986, Fr. Bolton was charged with one count each of indecent assault and corruption of minors. He pleaded guilty in 1987 and was sentenced to three years' probation. According to the 2018 Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report, Fr. Bolton abused a girl in 1976, beginning when she was seven years old and continuing until she was eleven years old. The report also states Fr. Bolton abused a fourth grade boy between 1976 and 1977. Fr. Bolton remained in ministry until his death in 2006. Fr. Bolton was included in the deceased portion of the Diocese of Erie's list of persons who are "credibly accused of actions that, in the diocese's judgement, disqualify that person from working with children."

Fr. George J. Callaghan, O.S.A.

Ordained, 1956

Notes: Fr. George J. Callaghan was a member of the Order of St. Augustine. In approximately 1983, Fr. Callaghan lured a 17 year-old boy to his bedroom in the church rectory at Assumption Church and made sexual advances towards him. Fr. Callaghan told the boy to take his clothes off and get on the bed. A settlement involving the allegations was purportedly reached in 1992. Fr. Callaghan is alleged to have abused another boy in Boston, Massachusetts in approximately 1983. In 2011, after the Archdiocese of Boston omitted the names of religious order priests from its list of credibly accused clerics, The Boston Globe included Fr. Callaghan on a list of priests and other clerics who "faced at least one unresolved allegation of sexual abuse in the Boston Archdiocese against someone under the age of 18, even if the accusation did not result in a lawsuit or settlement."

Fr. Robert B. Cullen, S.J.

Ordained, 1958

Notes: Fr. Robert B. Cullen was a member of the Jesuit religious order. In the late 1960s, a mother reported to the Jesuits that Fr. Cullen had repeatedly sexually abused her elementary school-aged daughter over the span of a couple years. The survivor came forward in 2007, and in front of the Maryland legislature, alleged that Fr. Cullen sexually abused her for years in the 1960s. The survivor further stated that she was not the only one who Fr. Cullen sexually abused. In 2018, the Jesuits reported multiple allegations of sexual abuse against Fr. Cullen from the 1960s to the 1980s. Fr. Cullen was included on the Jesuit Maryland Province list of "Jesuits with an allegation of an offense against a minor (anyone under the age of 18) that could not be fully investigated to determine credibility, but for which there is a reasonable possibility (semblance of truth) that the alleged offense occurred."

Br. Fidelis (Francis) DeBerardinis, O.F.M.

Notes: Br. Fidelis (Francis) DeBerardinis was a Brother of the Franciscan's Province of the Immaculate Conception. A 1992 lawsuit alleged that Br. DeBerardinis sexually abused the survivor at Our Lady of Mount Carmel in East Boston, MA. In 2002, Br. DeBerardinis was arrested on charges relating to child sexual abuse. In 2003, the charges were dismissed but Br. DeBerardinis was immediately indicted on different charges of child sexual abuse. While awaiting trial, Br. DeBerardinis reportedly lived at St. Anthony's Monastery in Catskill, New York in the Diocese of Albany for health reasons. In 2004, Br. DeBerardinis was sentenced to 8 years in prison followed by 10 years' probation for sexually abusing eight altar boys, ranging in age from 8 to 13-years-old, at Our Lady of Mount Carmel from 1968 to 1973. Br. DeBerardinis' status as a brother, his current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Mark Haight

Ordained, 1976

Notes: Fr. Mark Haight has been accused of child sexual abuse by at least five people. In 2002, the Diocese of Albany acknowledged that Fr. Haight had a history of sexually abusing boys, and that the Diocese had already entered into confidential settlements with two survivors. The Diocese sent Fr. Haight to treatment and later reassigned him to minister at a hospital. The Archdiocese of Baltimore included Fr. Haight on its "List of Priests and Brothers Accused of Child Sexual Abuse." In 2002, another survivor came forward and alleged he was sexually abused as a minor by Fr. Haight in approximately 1974 while on a camping trip and in Fr. Haight's room at the seminary. A fourth survivor filed a civil lawsuit in 2004 alleging that Fr. Haight sexually abused him when he was 14 years old. Another civil lawsuit alleging that Fr. Haight sexually abused a minor was filed in Vermont in 2018. Fr. Haight was included on the Diocese of Albany's "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." It is believed that Fr. Haight was stripped of his ministerial duties in 1997. Fr. Haight's current whereabouts, his status as a priest, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Br. James Vincent Hanney, C.F.C. (Vincent J. Hanney, James A. Hanney, James Hanney)

Notes: Br. James Vincent Hanney, C.F.C. is a former member of the Edmund Rice Christian Brothers (“Irish Christian Brothers”). In the 1960s, Br. Hanney worked at Briscoe Memorial High School in Seattle, Washington. In the late 1960s and 1970s, Br. Hanney worked as a teacher/counselor at Notre Dame Bishop Gibbons High School in Schenectady, New York where multiple sexual abuse allegations have been made against him. In approximately 1971, students at Bishop Gibbons found a photograph of Br. Hanney and two young men sitting on a picnic table completely naked. The photographs were brought to the principal of the school, Br. Draney, and no action was taken against Br. Hanney. He continued to have unrestricted access to students. Br. Hanney frequently took students from Bishop Gibbons on retreats to Christ House in Lafayette, New Jersey where he later worked as assistant director and treasurer. In the fall of 1978, Br. Hanney was transferred from Bishop Gibbons to All Hallows High School in Bronx, New York. Br. Hanney also worked at Essex Catholic High School in Newark, New Jersey and Ozanam Hall in Bayside, New York. In recent years, Br. Hanney traveled to the Philippines where he worked to create a professional non-profit Board of Trustees for The Infant Jesus Academy, an educational college-preparatory school for boys and girls. It is believed Br. Hanney left the order in approximately 2008. In 2013, the Christian Brothers found Br. Hanney unfit to minister to children and young adults. Br. Hanney is included in the Christian Brothers’ list of “current, former and deceased brothers who were identified in at least two (2) sexual abuse claims filed as proofs of claim in the bankruptcy matter In re: The Christian Brothers’ Institute, et al.” It is believed Br. Hanney may be living in New Jersey. It is unknown whether he has access to children.

Fr. William J. Heim

Ordained, <1968

Notes: Fr. William J. Heim was a former priest working as a school guidance counselor at School 14 in Troy, New York. He was arrested in March 2002, for sexually abusing children. He was charged with two second-degree felony counts of repeated sexual contact with a child and criminal possession of child pornography. In May 2002, Fr. Heim pleaded guilty to possessing child pornography. In July 2002, Fr. Heim pleaded guilty to having sexual contact with a boy. In August 2002, Fr. Heim was sentenced to two years in state prison. It is believed that in May 2004, Fr. Heim was released from prison on parole. Fr. Heim’s current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Alan D. Jupin

Ordained, 1962

Notes: In 2003, Fr. Alan Jupin was named in a civil lawsuit alleging child sexual abuse. The abuse allegedly occurred in the rectory of St. John the Baptist Church in Schenectady, New York. Fr. Jupin allegedly stalked and threatened the survivor to prevent him from coming forward with the allegations. A second survivor came forward in 2003 alleging that he was sexually abused as a minor by Fr. Jupin. The Diocesan Review Board and Bishop Howard J. Hubbard reinstated Fr. Jupin following an investigation of the allegations. In 2011, after additional allegations of child sex abuse arose, Fr. Jupin was again placed on leave. The Diocesan Review Board again found the allegations to not be credible and he was reinstated. From 2008 until his death, Fr. Jupin's status as a priest and whether he had access to children are unknown.

Fr. James E. Kelly

Ordained, 1957

Notes: Fr. James E. Kelly was named in two lawsuits in 2003 alleging child sexual abuse. Fr. Kelly allegedly sexually abused children at a home for wayward youths in Omaha, NE, in the late 1970s and early 1980s. In 2003, Fr. Kelly was removed from ministry. A complaint was made to the Diocese of Albany in the 1980s and a review board concluded there was no sexual abuse. However, Fr. Kelly was sent for therapy and evaluation before returning to ministry. After the lawsuits were filed, several more people came forward with complaints of sexual abuse by Fr. Kelly in the 1980s at a Rensselaer church and school. At least one survivor has alleged abuse by Fr. Kelly at Keveny Academy in Cohoes, New York. Fr. Kelly was included on the Diocese of Albany's lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." It is believed that Fr. Kelly was removed from ministry in 2003. Fr. Kelly's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Neil P. McLaughlin, S.J.

Ordained, 1959

Notes: Fr. Neil P. McLaughlin was ordained a Jesuit priest. In 2010, Jesuit officials in Maryland investigated allegations that Fr. McLaughlin sexually abused minors while he was in Scranton, Pennsylvania. In the course of the investigation, Fr. McLaughlin admitted that there may be other victims of similar sexual misconduct in the Diocese of Scranton. Fr. McLaughlin was removed from ministry in 2006 following credible allegations of misconduct and upon discovering an allegation of sexual misconduct that had been made decades earlier. Fr. McLaughlin was included in the 2018 Pennsylvania Grand Jury report. Fr. McLaughlin was included on the Diocese of Scranton's "List of Individuals for Whom Allegations of Sexual Abuse of a Minor Have Been Admitted, established, or determined to be credible." Fr. McLaughlin was added to the Archdiocese of Baltimore's "List of Priests and Clergy Accused of Child Sexual Abuse." Fr. McLaughlin was also included on the Maryland Jesuit's list of "Jesuits with a credible or established offense against a minor who are current Maryland Province Jesuits or are current Jesuits from another Province whose offense took place in the Maryland Province." Fr. McLaughlin sexually abused minors in Dunmore, Pennsylvania; Scranton, Pennsylvania; Woodstock, Maryland; Georgia, Massachusetts, and New York. Fr. McLaughlin's whereabouts, status as a priest, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Gary J. Mercure

Ordained, 1974

Notes: Fr. Gary J. Mercure has been accused of sexually abusing at least seven boys in the 1980s and 1990s. In 2008, a lawsuit filed by four survivors alleged child sexual abuse by Fr. Mercure from 1978 to 1991, with the abuse beginning when they were between the ages of 6 and 13 years old. Another lawsuit filed in 2008 accused Fr. Mercure of the abuse of a vulnerable adult and alleged that the Diocese of Albany had known about Fr. Mercure's interest in children since 1994. In 2008, the Diocese found "reasonable grounds" to believe Fr. Mercure sexually abused a child in the mid-1980s and subsequently removed him from ministry. Fr. Mercure was criminally prosecuted and convicted in 2011 for rape of a child and indecent assault. Fr. Mercure received a 20-25 year sentence. Fr. Mercure was named on the Diocese of Albany's list of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." It is believed that Fr. Mercure has remained a priest while incarcerated.

Fr. Jeremiah Nunan

Ordained, 1963

Notes: Fr. Jeremiah Nunan was ordained in Ireland before transferring to the Diocese of Albany. In 2006, a priest accused Fr. Nunan of sexually abusing him multiple times over the course of three years, beginning when he was nine years old and a parishioner at St. Mary's Church in Hudson, NY. The Diocese cleared Fr. Nunan in 2007 and allowed him to return to Sacred Heart in Cairo. Approximately six years later, in 2012, a man filed a lawsuit alleging Fr. Nunan sexually abused him over a fifteen year period, between 1996 and 2002, when the alleged victim was a minor, and between 2007 and 2011, when he was an adult. It was later revealed that Fr. Nunan was also accused of sexually abusing the man's brother. Fr. Nunan is listed on the Diocese of Albany's list of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." Fr. Nunan's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Donald J. Ophals

Ordained, 1961

Notes: Fr. Donald J. Ophals was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Albany. In 2003, Fr. Ophals was named in a lawsuit that alleged he, along with three other priests, sexually abused a minor from 1975 through 1979. The abuse reportedly occurred at the rectory in St. John the Baptist Church in Schenectady, New York. The lawsuit was dismissed in 2004. Following the allegation, Fr. Ophals was placed on leave. By March 2004, after conducting an internal investigation, the Diocesan Review Board found the allegation unsubstantiated. Fr. Ophals was reinstated at St. Francis de Sales in Troy, New York. In 2011, a second survivor came forward and accused Fr. Ophals and three other priests of child sexual abuse that occurred in Colonie, New York. Fr. Ophals status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Br. George Puello, S.D.B.

Notes: Br. George Puello is a Salesian Brother. In 2002, three men filed a lawsuit alleging Br. Puello abused them when they were students at Salesian Jr. Seminary in Goshen, New York. One of the men claims to have reported the abuse to the seminary director but was dismissed. The men also claim others at the Seminary school knew what was going on and that there were other abusers at the school, but nothing was done about it. Br. Puello is reported to have left the Salesians years ago. In 2011, it is believed Br. Puello was an active member in the theater community in Westchester, New York. His status as a Brother, his current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Robert H. Purcell

Ordained, 1974

Notes: Fr. Robert H. Purcell was ordained in the Diocese of Albany. In 2011, Fr. Purcell was removed from ministry after the Diocese of Albany's Sexual Misconduct Review Board determined there to be credible accusations that he had sexually abused minors. Fr. Purcell is listed on the Diocese of Albany's lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany."

Fr. James J. Rosch

Ordained, 1972

Notes: In 2002, Fr. James J. Rosch was removed from ministry in the Diocese of Albany following credible allegations that he sexually abused a teenage boy in Schenectady, New York. Fr. Rosch claimed he was removed from ministry because he had fondled a 17-year-old girl when he was 23 years old, prior to his ordination. The Diocese refuted his claim, and said, "If that were the case, he would have never been removed." The Diocese has paid settlements to at least one of Fr. Rosch's survivors. Fr. Rosch is listed on the Diocese of Albany's lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." Fr. Rosch's status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Michael P. Santillo

Ordained, 1975

Notes: Fr. Michael P. Santillo served at various parishes throughout the Diocese of Metuchen and Trenton. In 1997, Fr. Santillo was charged with molesting a 13-year-old altar boy and showing pornography to young boys. At the time of his arrest, Fr. Santillo was working in the Diocese of Albany at St. John the Evangelist in Schenectady. Fr. Santillo was working as the Associate for Administration at the church. In 1999, Santillo pleaded guilty to assaulting one minor, while three additional allegations were dismissed due to the statute of limitations. Three of these claims were included in a 2003 diocesan settlement. While serving a 10 year sentence, Santillo died in prison.

Fr. Carl Stone, S.M.M.

Ordained, 1942

Notes: Fr. Carl Stone has been accused of sexually abusing children in both the dioceses of Ogdensburg and Albany. Fr. Stone was accused of sexual assault of a minor in Ogdensburg, then moved to Albany to work for 11 years with youth. In 1981, Fr. Stone was removed from ministry after pleading guilty to sodomizing two teenage brothers in Colonie, NY. While on probation from this conviction, Fr. Stone moved to Canada and worked at two churches. Despite full knowledge of Fr. Stone's history of abuse, Ontario Bishop LaRocque invited Fr. Stone to work in proximity to youth in Canada. After new allegations in 1985, Bishop LaRoque terminated Fr. Stone. Fr. Stone was named on the Diocese of Albany's lists of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." In 2008, Fr. Stone was named publicly in Canada as an accused priest.

Fr. James (Michael) Taylor

Ordained, 2012

Notes: Fr. James Taylor was a priest for less than two years when he was arrested in April 2014 and charged with endangering the welfare of a child. The authorities stated that, between October 2013 and April 2014, Taylor engaged in ongoing inappropriate conduct with a 15-year-old girl from Clifton Park, NY. The conduct is reported to have consisted of physical touching, telephone calls, text messages, and photos with the girl. In August 2014, Fr. Taylor pleaded guilty to one charge of child endangerment, a misdemeanor. Fr. Taylor is listed on the Diocese of Albany's list of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." Fr. Taylor's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Carl A. Urban

Ordained, 1966

Notes: In 2004, an attorney alleged Fr. Carl A. Urban had sexually abused his client, a boy at the time, in a public restroom more than 15 years ago. Approximately seven years later, in July 2011, another man came forward saying he had been sexually abused as a child by five priests, one of whom was said to be Fr. Urban. By November 2011, Fr. Urban was cleared of wrongdoing by the diocesan review board and returned to active retired status. Fr. Carl Urban is not listed in the Official Catholic Directory after 2011. Fr. Urban's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. William J. Walsh

Ordained, 1954

Notes: In 1996, five of Fr. Walsh's nieces, all sisters, privately accused him of sexually abusing them hundreds of times as children from the 1940s to the 1960s. Fr. Walsh, at the time on a foreign mission in China, was recalled and reassigned to Woodstock Jesuit Community at Georgetown University and sent to treatment. Two years later, in 1998, the five nieces made their accusations public because the Jesuits had not removed Fr. Walsh from ministry. The Jesuits subsequently removed Fr. Walsh from active ministry. It was reported that the five nieces had all been sexually abused individually and believed herself to be the only one abused by Fr. Walsh. It was not until 40 years later that they reconciled their stories. One sister claimed Fr. Walsh had abused her up to 200 times. Fr. Walsh is listed on the Archdiocese of Baltimore's list of "Priests and Brothers Accused of Child Sex Abuse" and on the Maryland Jesuit's list of "Jesuits with an allegation of an offense against a minor."

Fr. Dozia J. Wilson

Ordained, 1972

Notes: The first known allegation against Fr. Dozia J. Wilson came in 1976 when parents went to the District Attorney with complaints that Fr. Wilson had sexually abused two boys at an Albany motel. The District Attorney made a deal that if Fr. Wilson agreed to permanently leave town, he would not be prosecuted. Fr. Wilson was then transferred to the Archdiocese of Boston. After a few years at St. Joseph's in Roxbury, Massachusetts, Fr. Wilson was returned to Albany due to complaints of sexual abuse. A lawsuit, filed and settled in 2003, later accused Fr. Wilson of bringing two brothers from Albany with him to Massachusetts. According to the lawsuit, Fr. Wilson began supplying one of the brothers with marijuana and alcohol in 1973. It was not until 1976, when Fr. Wilson brought the boy and his brother to Massachusetts, that the sexual abuse is alleged to have started. The lawsuit states the abuse continued until the boy graduated from high school two years later and moved out of the priest's rectory. Another lawsuit was filed in 2004, which alleged Fr. Wilson sexually abused a teenage boy from 1980 to 1985, starting when the boy was a 14-year-old parishioner at St. Ann's in Fort Ann, NY. Fr. Wilson is listed on the Diocese of Albany's list of "Clergy Credibly Accused While Serving in the Diocese of Albany." Fr. Wilson's current status as a priest, whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.
