Purpose & Background

For decades numerous courageous survivors have spoken their truth and brought lawsuits related to the sexual abuse of children in the Catholic Church throughout Colorado. Survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and together with their attorneys were able to reveal secret Church records through the courts and civil litigation process. These lawsuits resulted in the release of identities and histories of sexually abusive individuals, those engaged in sexual misconduct, and the release of documents and records reflecting the knowledge of institutions that covered up the sexual abuse and misconduct.

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in Colorado contains the names of diocesan priests, religious order priests, and other religious clerics associated with the Archdiocese of Denver, Diocese of Colorado Springs and Diocese of Pueblo, including those who were assigned within or working in the geographic boundaries of the Archdiocese or Dioceses, who have been accused of sexual misconduct. The information in this Anderson Report is derived from publicly available sources, claims made by survivors to the dioceses and religious orders responsible for the offenders, and legal settlements made as a result of claims for sexual abuse and misconduct.

While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, some of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil or criminal court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law. All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law.

It is believed that the Archdiocese of Denver, Diocese of Pueblo and Diocese of Colorado Springs do not make available to the public the full history, knowledge, and context of their sexually abusive agents and employees. The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in Colorado is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct, provide the public with vital information including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. The assignment histories provided are approximations and were compiled from The Official Catholic Directory, BishopAccountability.org, statements attributed to Diocesan and Religious officials, Diocesan and Religious records, and media reports.¹

¹The abbreviation in parenthesis following the assignments indicates the Archdiocese or Diocese the individual was working and/or residing in at the time of the assignment.

Supporting Colorado Abuse Survivors for Decades

Jeff Anderson & Associates, P.A.

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. For over 25 years Jeff Anderson has worked with survivors of clergy sexual abuse in Colorado seeking accountability and transparency. In 1993 Jeff Anderson brought a lawsuit against the Diocese of Pueblo on behalf of a courageous survivor, Thomas Perea, who made his name public even though he could have remained anonymous. Thomas was sexually abused multiple times starting as a 15-year-old boy by Fr. Delbert Blong. Thomas' lawsuit alleged that Fr. Blong had infected him with HIV, and Thomas was motivated to take action by the concern he had for the safety of others. The case was settled in late 1994.

Again in 2005, Jeff Anderson & Associates took on the Catholic hierarchy in Colorado. Eighteen lawsuits were filed against the Archdiocese of Denver. One of those six survivors went public in an effort to expose the reckless practices by the Bishops. The survivors were abused as children by three different priests, Fr. Harold White, Fr. Leonard Abercrombie, and Fr. Lawrence St. Peter. The lawsuits were settled in 2008. As part of the settlement, survivors were able to publish portions of Fr. Harold White's personnel file. The documents showed a history of reports to the Archdiocese and transfers of Fr. White from one parish to another.

In addition to seeking legal accountability, the firm has supported survivors of abuse by bringing public awareness to the cause and testified before numerous state legislatures endorsing reforms to the statute of limitations. Through its work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seeks to bring hope, healing, accountability, and justice to survivors of sexual abuse.

As a result of the courage of countless survivors in Colorado, the Colorado legislature made an effort to change the statute of limitations to give survivors of abuse more time to seek accountability for the abuse they suffered. The Archdiocese of Denver and Archbishop Charles Chaput mounted an unprecedented media and legislative effort to defeat the bill. Archbishop Chaput used the media, the pulpit, and gave out nearly 25,000 protest cards for parishioners to send to legislators. He also helped hire one of the state's top lobbying firms to oppose the bill. Ultimately, the bill was defeated in 2006. Public policy in Colorado protects the wrong class of people—perpetrators, predators, and those that protect them instead of the kids.

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 35 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough, and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect, and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers we have represented thousands of survivors of sexual abuse against individual offenders and the intuitions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

Child Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in Colorado

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in Colorado is intended to be a chronology and analysis of sexual misconduct and the sexual abuse of children in Catholic institutions within the state of Colorado.

The data collected illustrates the patterns and practices of Diocesan and Religious Order officials who have enabled the abusers and covered-up crimes of sexual misconduct. Modern means of analysis and the availability of data through the internet, social media, and otherwise publicly available information are exposing perpetrators who operated in the Archdiocese of Denver, Diocese of Pueblo, and Diocese of Colorado Springs, but until full transparency and accountability exist, children remain in grave danger.

Historically, the Archdiocese and Dioceses in Colorado, like many other archdiocese and dioceses around the world, knew of predator priests who posed a significant danger to children and others. Sexual abuse, particularly of children, has long been a crime in Colorado. However, Diocesan and Religious Order officials chose and continue to keep these crimes hidden, allowing their priests and religious clerics continued and unfettered access to vulnerable members of society. Over recent decades, occasional bits of information about abuse within Catholic institutions have surfaced, but the Catholic Church's strict policy of secrecy has kept information and the full extent of the problem hidden from the public. This has continued despite mandated reporting laws.

Archdiocese of Denver

Territory within the Archdiocese of Denver was established as a Vicariate-Apostolic in 1868. The original Diocese of Denver was created by the Holy See on August 16, 1887, encompassing the entire state of Colorado. Denver was elevated to an Archdiocese on November 15, 1941, when the Holy See divided the assets and territory creating the Diocese of Pueblo. According to the 2019 Official Catholic Directory, the Archdiocese of Denver comprises the northern part of the State, including the counties of Adams, Arapahoe, Boulder, Broomfield, Clear Creek, Denver, Eagle, Garfield, Gilpin, Grand, Jackson, Jefferson, Larimer, Logan, Moffat, Morgan, Phillips, Pitkin, Rio Blanco, Routt, Sedgwick, Summit, Washington, Weld and Yuma. As of the 2019 Official Catholic Directory, the Archdiocese of Denver serves a Catholic population of 599,086 in a geographical region of 40,154 square miles. The current Archbishop of Denver is Most Reverend Samuel J. Aquila. There are approximately 204 Diocesan Priests, 108 Religious Priests and 44 Extern Priests in the Archdiocese.

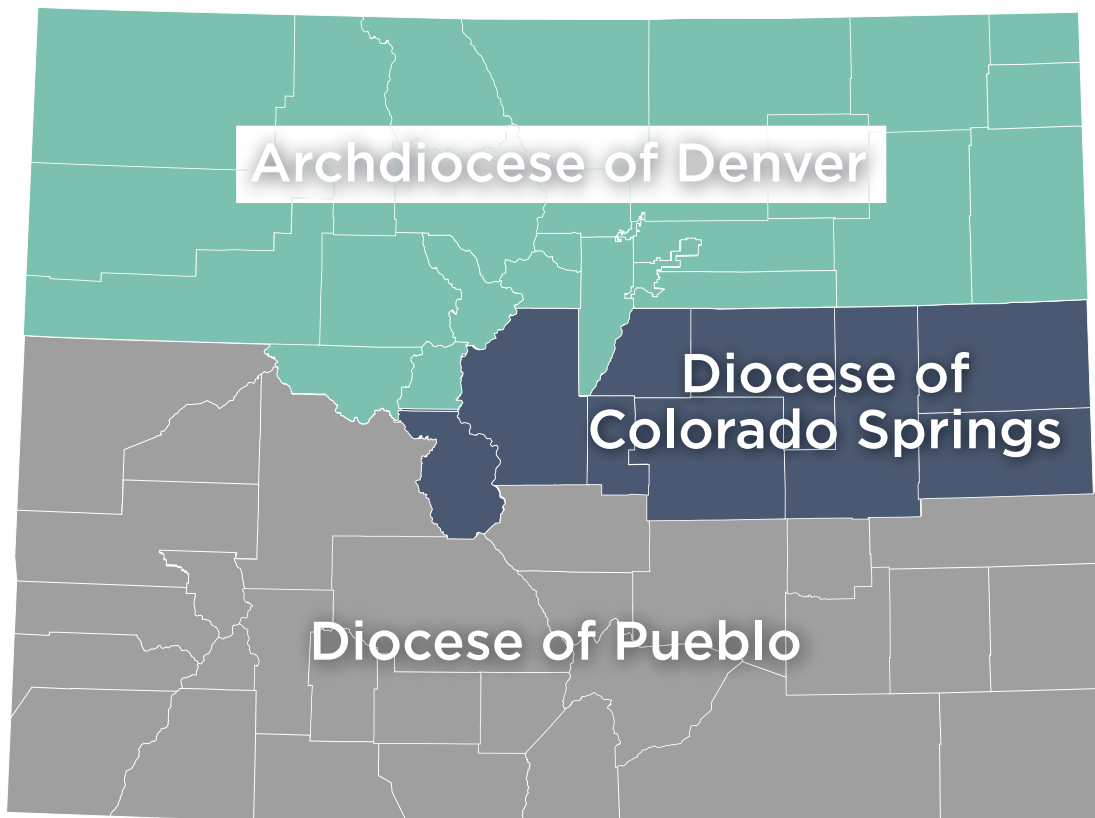

Diocese of Pueblo

The Diocese of Pueblo was established as a diocese by the Holy See on November 15, 1941. It is comprised of the southern and western counties of Alamosa, Archuleta, Baca, Bent, Conejos, Costilla, Crowley, Custer, Delta, Dolores, Fremont, Gunnison, Hinsdale, Huerfano, Kiowa, La Plata, Los Animas, Mesa, Mineral, Montezuma, Montrose, Otero, Ouray, Prowers, Pueblo, Rio Grande, Saguache, San Juan, and San Miguel. According to the 2019 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Pueblo serves a Catholic population of approximately 57,762 in a geographical area of 48,155 square miles. The current Bishop of the Diocese of Pueblo is Most Reverend Stephen J. Berg. There are approximately 40 Diocesan Priests, 15 Religious Priests, and 10 Extern Priests in the Diocese of Pueblo.

Diocese of Colorado Springs

The Diocese of Colorado Springs was established as a diocese on January 30, 1984. It is comprised of the counties of Chaffee, Cheyenne, Douglas, Elbert, El Paso, Kit Carson, Lake, Lincoln, Park, and Teller. According to the 2019 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Colorado Springs serves a Catholic community of approximately 183,150 in a geographical area of 15,493 square miles. The current Bishop of Colorado Springs is Most Reverend Michael J. Sheridan, S.TH.D. There are approximately 47 Diocesan Priests, 20 Religious Priests, and 17 Extern Priests in the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Colorado Attorney General's 2019 Special Master's Report Summary

Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019

In 2019, Colorado Attorney General Phil Weiser, by agreement between Colorado's Attorney General and the Archdiocese of Denver, Diocese of Pueblo, and Diocese of Colorado Springs, released a report entitled "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019, Special Master's Report, October 22, 2019" (Special Master's Report). The Special Master's Report details the names of and allegations against Catholic priests accused of sexually abusing children in Colorado since 1950 and is a disturbing summary of how the Colorado Archdiocese and Dioceses protected themselves and their priests instead of children by failing to remove abusive priests, transferring abusive priests, using coded language about sexual abuse, failing to report abuse to law enforcement and implementing deficient and questionable recordkeeping practices.

Failure to Report to Law Enforcement

The Special Master's Report found that "[o]ut of almost 100 opportunities to do so since 1950, the Colorado Dioceses voluntarily reported clergy child sex abuse to law enforcement fewer than 10 times." The Special Master's Report further states, "[i]t is impossible to believe that Church personnel did not know even in 1950 that sexually abusing a person is a serious crime. It is almost as hard to believe — but proven by the documents we reviewed from all the way up to at least the early 1990s — that professionals asserting high moral authority chose to protect their institution and their colleagues over children. We also found evidence from as late as the 1980s that this culture of Church self-protection was reinforced by punishment imposed on Church personnel who did report child sex abuse. The Colorado Dioceses' advances in training to reduce abuse in the first place, and their procedures for responding to abuse when it does occur, still have not eliminated this persistent problem."¹

Failure to Take Action Put Children in Peril

"[H]istorically on average it took 19.5 years before a Colorado Diocese concretely restricted an abusive priest's authority after receiving an allegation that he was sexually abusing children. (This figure does not even include the 7 alleged abusers for whom the Colorado Dioceses never put any restriction in place during their lifetimes.)"²

Transferring Abusers

The Report concluded that "the record we compiled below is flush with examples of the Colorado Dioceses transferring child sex abusers just ahead of the child sex abuse scandals which often generate abuse reports and documentation."³

re : Reverend Robert White

Dear [REDACTED] :

[REDACTED] called on me today to tell me the following facts about Father Robert White.

[REDACTED] came to [REDACTED] within the past few days to complain that his boy had been approached by Father White to cooperate in an unnatural act contra sextum. The boy refused, and the incident did not go beyond solicitation. The boy afterwards told about the affair to his mother, who had him repeat it to his father. When [REDACTED] first came, he was much upset and wanted to have Father White disciplined ("something must be done"), and also to remove his children from the school. [REDACTED] talked to him, and promised him that he would do whatever possible to help Father and to see that no reoccurrence need be feared. He appealed to the family to cooperate in an effort to protect the church against scandal and to help the priest to save his future.

[REDACTED] talked to the [REDACTED] boy in the presence of his mother and father, and is satisfied that this is the first attempt. He did not directly ask whether anyone else had been so approached, but there was no suggestion that there had been. Afterwards, Father questioned [REDACTED] as to whether anything untoward had been happening, and also one child (not directly about contra sextum but generalities and whether he had been alone with Father) The boy assured him there had been nothing but named the [REDACTED] boy as one with whom Father had been alone.

I questioned [REDACTED] as to possibility of scandal, and he is satisfied at present that there is no danger. He thinks the [REDACTED] will not talk, nor the boy to his comrades. He cautioned [REDACTED] that it was "almost confessional secrecy".

[REDACTED] asked me several days ago about psychiatrists in whom we had confidence, and then about possibility of cure for such a tendency. I told him it was questionable, as far as I have been informed, and gave him the names of some of those we deal with. He then confided to me that it concerned one of his assistants, and offered to give me the facts. He later talked to some doctor friends who are also sceptical about the benefits to be gained from psychiatric help. [REDACTED] was at first insistent that if he dropped his demand for "action" that some program of psychiatric treatment be tried. After [REDACTED] talked to him, he is satisfied with the proposals made by [REDACTED]

Subject to your approval, this is what Father and I agreed upon. He is willing and anxious to help the man save his priesthood if possible. He has already had a long and strong talk with him in which he "laid it on the line". He told him of previous cases about which he knows, of men with ability and promise who were ruined by submitting to such degradation. You will know the obvious ones. Father thought the warning of such examples might help. He then told him he will not tolerate any repetition of such actions. He exhorted him to resist any tendencies he may have, and observed that he is no different from any other person with temptations to immorality, except that for whatever reason, his may be directed toward homosexuality. He should still control his passions, and be prudent about putting himself in the occasion of sin.

██████████ states that the priest received the talk with great apparent humility and without any resentment. For that reason he hopes that things may work out all right. He proposes to take the work with boys out of his hands, so as to remove the danger of temptation, but will wait until after Christmas and do it in a quiet way. He does not allow any children in the rectory, and he hopes and thinks that they may be able to avoid any further falls. He has asked ██████████, the ██████████ to help in the program. And he has promised that he will keep his eye open for any indications of danger or of scandal.

I told ██████████ that I felt you should be apprised of the facts, and that I would make a written resume for the record. He pleaded that the boy should not be branded for the future, and I assured him that he had no reason to fear. If he can help the priest, you will be delighted. Since no scandal is apparently to be feared, I presume you will not object to leaving him in ██████████'s care.

Obediently,

██████████
██████████

Dec. 13, 1961

P.S. For the record, I asked ██████████ if the priest had admitted the charge, and he assures me that he did admit it.

ST. CATHERINE'S CHURCH

4200 FEDERAL BLVD.
DENVER 11, COLO.

Notes on conversation with Father White on Jan. 14.

Very much upset. Said that he had not been sleeping well last few days, that talk was going around among the boys- very much exaggerated. Mentioned that he saw his mistake now and how right I was in removing him, direction of altar boys, that he was resentful at first but sees that he should have followed my orders. (One year ago I ordered him never to be alone with a boy; if there was reason to be with boys, to be sure there was a group; not to take extended trips with boys.) He declared that he had made some serious mistakes, cannot understand how he made such mistakes, all he wanted to do was to help the boys, with boy in car has urge to put hand on thigh, when alone with some boy overwhelming curiosity over comes him, not very often, sometimes catches himself and does not complete act, goes weeks without falling.

Names of boys mentioned:

If these statements are ever needed to confront anyone concerned with this case, I request that I be called in to give oral confirmation.

Father Robert White

The following notes pertain to conversations I held concerning Father Robert White on January 16 with Father himself and on the preceeding days with the parties mentioned.

██████████, ██████████ called the Chancery to ask if I would give an appointment to a ██████████ in St. Catherine's parish concerning Father White. ██████████, of ██████████ later came to the office with ██████████, ██████████, (██████████ runs ██████████ at ██████████).

They presented the following account, after stating that their primary concern was the good of the Church. They would prefer not to be identified, but I explained the necessity of avoiding anonymous denuntiations, and they consented to have their names mentioned as much as was necessary.

██████████, son of ██████████, was expelled from Holy Family School. In an effort to meet this problem, the mother asked Father White to call at the family home and talk to him. After talking with the boy, Father White took the boy out at about one o'clock p. m. stating that they would return after a half-hour. The boy went with Father to a drive-in to get a hamburger, etc. While there an approach was made by the priest to the boy for an indecent act. The boy ran away when the priest drove him to Holy Family School for his books. Father drove around the neighborhood and saw him again with a group of boys. He attempted to get the boy back into his car. The boy ran into a Creamery nearby; other boys held the door so the priest could not follow. Inside the boy ran into the wash-room, and the priest tried to follow.

When the boy told his parents, the father asked if this had happened before or to others; ██████████ answered that it had gone on with "so many" boys, "but I never thought he would try it with me." The ██████████ asked if it was an indecent act, and the boy said yes. The father warned the boy of the seriousness of the charge, but the boy stuck to his story.

I asked the reason the boy had been expelled from school. The reason given by ██████████ to the parents was "insolence". ██████████ had been trying to get him away from bad companions. I asked if the boys at the Creamery were the same group; the reply was that they were "partly".

The two women in discussing the matter said the it was just an attempt with ██████████; it was "worse" with ██████████, son of ██████████.

██████████ said that her older son, ██████████, who attends ██████████ High School, told her "everybody" has known of this since the priest came to the parish. She stated that Father was accustomed to pick her son up after school (he attends ██████████) and bring him to their home. ██████████ has refused to talk to his parents about the matter, though they tried to get information from him. Father took ~~for~~ five boys to the mountains last summer. ██████████

██████████ said everything seemed all right there.

██████████ mentioned that she thinks ██████ has told of his incidents with Father to a ██████, ██████. ██████ called ██████ and said she should ask ██████ whether Father White had any affairs with him. ██████ talked to ██████. They waited until Saturday to talk with ██████; he refused any discussion, did not want to talk about it.

██████████, a boy who had been thrown out of school at the same time as ██████. Father white called him and wanted to talk to him. ██████ had the boy make an appointment for Father to come to the house. She hid and listened to the conversation. Father questioned the boy about who knew about the situation; he wept, and begged the boys to overlook what had happened, to give him "another chance".

On Monday, January 14, Father talked to ██████ and ██████. She mentioned that it was pitiful, and that the priest was like a little boy. She did not dwell on the conversation, but it concerned Father's fear that things were being exaggerated and misinterpreted, and he was not given a chance, etc. She mentioned that she had warned her other children not to go in the car with Father White; the second son later told her he knew the reason she asked, and said it concerned the sixth commandment - impurity; he also told her all the "kids" know about it.

██████████ told his parents that Father had asked for another chance a year ago. ██████ asked ██████ if he had ever heard anything of this sort. The boy said that many boys knew of it. Nothing had ever happened with him. The ██████ had told the parents that "everybody at Holy Family says he is a queer" - the daughter is ██████, a ██████ at Holy Family High School.

Father White called me ;the evening of the same day to ask for an appointment. I talked with him the following morning:

After sparring for some time, Father said he had been going to a regular confessor since the beginning of school, and was fighting his tendency to such offenses. He admitted the attempt with the ██████ boy, identifying him as ██████. His story was that after going to the house at ██████'s request, he took the boy out; they went to MacDonald's drive in on Wadsworth; they stayed there, then drove around, and returned to Holy Family school; they talked about the boy's expulsion. The boy left him at ██████. He was worried about not taking him home, and tried to found him. When he did he pursued him so as to get him into the car to take him home. After Father opened up, he admitted the approach to the boy, saying he had touched his leg, immodest touches, and the boy's passions were aroused. He admitted two such incidents during the spring and summer. Then he admitted the following incidents : once with ██████; twice with ██████; twice with ██████, on one of which he does not think his passions were aroused. Asked if this was all, he said there was one other, with ██████. He has been friendly with ██████; frequently at their home, friends with the whole family. He contends he has seen the ██████ boy only twice out of their house. He was with ██████ and ██████ at Grand Lake. He admitted making two trips with groups of boys to Grand Lake during his vacation last summer, but contends that nothing of this sort took place on those occasions.

The above incidents and names came reluctantly, and father did not admit more than incomplete actions with any of the boys. He gave the names himself. I did not identify any of the callers or witnesses against him. He admitted that he had talked with [REDACTED].

I told Father that I knew he had talked to [REDACTED] on the previous evening and pointed out that he could not expect [REDACTED] to conceal what he had told him from [REDACTED]. Later I asked [REDACTED] to give a written account of his talk with Father White for the record. In talking with [REDACTED] he stated that it was his impression in talking with Father that his insistence on the fact that the present incident was not "complete" indicated more serious offenses in the past. In his conversation with me, Father did not admit the more serious incidents, contending that all offenses admitted to were incomplete.

I reported all of the above to [REDACTED]. It was his judgment that Father must leave the parish immediately, and that he could not work again as a priest in the city of Denver because of the wide knowledge of his offenses in St. Catherine's parish and Holy Family School. Father was directed to go immediately to [REDACTED], in [REDACTED], where the [REDACTED] kindly agreed to give him shelter. He is to make a retreat seriously, and to attempt to recover his priestly character and ideals. He is to remain at [REDACTED]'s indefinitely - until given further instructions by [REDACTED]. And he is forbidden to appear openly in public in Denver or to tell anyone where he is.

Fr. White 4 - "Boy Troubles"

January 6, 1965

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Dear [REDACTED]:

I am very sorry to bother you with another of our priestly problems.

Because of "boy troubles", I felt it best to get Father Robert White out of Colorado Springs immediately, where he was assistant at St. Mary Church for about 2 years. This is his second such public offense since his ordination - June 4, 1960. The first offense occurred while assistant in a Denver parish. He was born March 4, 1933, hence is only 31 years of age.

Both affairs apparently are known by the parents of some of the boys who brought it to the attention of the pastors. In both cases, several boys were involved. I have not gotten all the details of this recent episode, but felt prompt action was necessary.

I once heard you say this is the "unforgivable sin" of the Bible. In my experience with several cases of this type in the yesterday years, they carried the affliction with them to the grave. What to do? Are they hypocrites in the seminary or is this a congenital physical defect?

Many thanks for offering hospitality to this poor man. I assume he should stay at [REDACTED] for an indefinite period and I await your recommendations.

A happy New Year with many blessings.

Faithfully yours,
[REDACTED]

Those Accused of Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses of Colorado

Fr. Leonard A. Abercrombie

Ordained, 1946

Notes: Fr. Leonard Abercrombie was ordained priest in the Archdiocese of Denver. In 1993, a survivor wrote a letter to Pope John Paul II alleging that Fr. Abercrombie sexually abused him from approximately 1953 to 1957. Fr. Abercrombie has been named in at least two child sexual abuse lawsuits, one filed in 2003 in California and the other filed in 2005 in Colorado. Fr. Abercrombie was also included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, at least 18 minor boys were sexually abused by Fr. Abercrombie from the time of his ordination in 1946, until 1971.

Fr. William G. Allison

Ordained, 1948

Notes: Fr. William Allison has a storied history of child sexual abuse, having been accused by numerous individuals in Arizona, New Mexico, Louisiana, and California. The full extent of Fr. Allison's sexual abuse was not uncovered until 2011 when a man filed a lawsuit claiming he had been sexually abused as a child by Fr. Allison at San Carlos in Monterey, California in approximately 1966. A file related to the lawsuit alleged that Fr. Allison was a known serial predator and there was documentation that he underwent treatment for his "psychosexual disorder" at Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Despite all of this, Fr. Allison was still allowed to work in the Diocese of Monterey, where he purportedly continued to sexually abuse children. Due to the ruling on the statute of limitations, the case was dropped. In 2013, Fr. Allison was included in a civil lawsuit, which has since been settled, brought against the Diocese of Gallup for allegedly covering up child sexual abuse.

In 2005, Fr. Allison was named on the Diocese of Gallup's "List of priests, religious and other persons who have been credibly accused of sexual abuse of minors and who have served in parishes or institutions of the church located within the territorial limits of the Diocese of Gallup." The Diocese of Gallup published an updated list in which Fr. Allison is named again, titled "The following is a list of clergy identified by the Diocese of Gallup as having credible allegations of sexual misconduct made against them." In 2019, Fr. Allison was named on the Diocese of Alexandria's list of, "Clergy duly incardinated or at one time serving in the Diocese of Alexandria accused of sexual misconduct and abuse of minors by allegations brought by victims or by written testimony." Fr. Allison is also named on the Diocese of Monterey's "List of Credibly Accused" in the section, "Credibly accused Clergy previously released or in the public domain who were working in the name of the Diocese of Monterey when the alleged abuse occurred."

Fr. John R. Beno

Ordained, 1959

Notes: Fr. John Beno was ordained in the Diocese of Pueblo. Fr. Beno has been accused of sexually abusing a young minor girl in approximately 1961 while assigned to St. Francis Xavier in Pueblo, Colorado. He has also been accused of sexually abusing a minor teenage girl at Seton High School in Pueblo, Colorado, in approximately 1968 or 1969. The incidents were both reported in 2005 and the Diocese purportedly arranged a financial settlement for the first survivor. The Diocese's Sexual Misconduct Review Board ruled the second survivor's allegation to be substantiated. Fr. Beno was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." Fr. Beno's whereabouts and whether he had access to children from 1983 until his death in 2000 are unknown.

Fr. Bernard J. Casper

Ordained, 1955

Notes: Fr. Bernard Casper was ordained a priest in the Diocese of Pueblo. In 1963, Fr. Casper purportedly took a medical leave and underwent treatment in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Afterwards, Fr. Casper reportedly did not return to the Diocese of Pueblo. In 2002, the Diocese of Albany received a report alleging Fr. Casper sexually abused two minor boys in the early 1970s. After the allegation was reported, it was reportedly discovered that Fr. Casper had been working in the Dioceses of Albany and Rochester for 30 years without authorization. Fr. Casper's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Michael DeScoise

Ordained, 1975

Notes: Fr. Michael DeScoise was ordained a priest in the Diocese of Pueblo. Fr. DeScoise was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, in 2018 a survivor reported to the Diocese of Pueblo that he was sexually abused as a minor by Fr. DeScoise in 1986 or 1987 when Fr. DeScoise was assigned to St. Joseph's in Grand Junction, Colorado. Upon investigation, it was found that the Diocese of Pueblo had received numerous reports of Fr. DeScoise's sexual misconduct with adults, but this was purportedly the first allegation of child sexual abuse received by the Diocese. After admitting to multiple sexual acts with adult males, his faculties were suspended in 2016, but were restored in 2017 after reportedly attending counseling in Denver. Following the survivor's childhood sexual abuse report, Fr. DeScoise's faculties were reportedly suspended again and a report was made to law enforcement. Fr. DeScoise's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Timothy Joseph Evans

Ordained, 1993

Notes: Fr. Timothy Evans was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." The Special Master's Report disclosed that Fr. Evans sexually abused three children. In 2003, a survivor reported to the Archdiocese of Denver that he was sexually abused as a minor boy by Fr. Evans in 1995 or 1996 when Fr. Evans was assigned to Spirit of Christ Parish in Arvada, Colorado. The Archdiocese of Denver was reportedly made aware of sexual abuse by Fr. Evans, but failed to make a report to police or perform any internal investigation. In 2003, another survivor reported to the Archdiocese of Denver that Fr. Evans sexually abused him in 1996, when he was a minor and Fr. Evans was assigned to Our Lady of Fatima Parish in Lakewood, Colorado. In 2004, a third survivor reported to the Archdiocese of Denver that he was sexually abused as a minor by Fr. Evans when he was assigned to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Fort Collins, Colorado. In 2007, Fr. Evans was convicted of three counts of sexual assault of a child in Larimar and Jefferson counties. Fr. Evans is currently incarcerated in Colorado. According to the Special Master's Report, Fr. Evans was laicized in 2013.

Fr. Chester E. Gaiter, S.J.

Ordained, 1976

Notes: Fr. Chester Gaiter was a priest of the Society of Jesus. He worked as a brother for approximately 14 years before being ordained in 1976. Fr. Gaiter was purportedly ordained at Loyola in Denver, Colorado and thereafter spent a year doing a pastoral internship at Ministry Training Services in Denver prior to his assignment as associate pastor at St. Matthew's Parish in St. Louis, Missouri. Fr. Gaiter worked at Cardinal Ritter Preparatory High School in St. Louis, Missouri from approximately 1984 to 1993. He then worked briefly in the Diocese of Belleville in 1994. Following his time in the Diocese of Belleville, Fr. Gaiter is believed to have retired to the Jesuit Community in St. Louis University after being diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease. In 2007, Fr. Gaiter was one of four priests included in a settlement made to a former student of Cardinal Ritter Preparatory High School, who alleged that he was sexually abused by the four priests as a minor in the 1980s. A second lawsuit was settled in 2009 with another survivor who alleged that Fr. Gaiter sexually abused him when he was a minor student at Cardinal Ritter Preparatory High School in the 1980s. Fr. Gaiter is included in the Jesuits' U.S. Central and Southern Province's "List of Jesuits With Credible Accusations of Sexual Abuse of Minor."

Fr. William (Bill) J. Groves

Ordained, 1980

Notes: Fr. William Groves was ordained a priest in the Diocese of Pueblo. In 1990, Fr. Groves was criminally charged with sexual assault on a child. He pled guilty and was sentenced to 4 years' probation and ordered to attend a sex-offender treatment program. Fr. Groves was removed from ministry in 1990. He reportedly moved to Crushing, Oklahoma, where he began working as a chaplain and addiction counselor. After being fired in 2002, Fr. Groves reportedly resurfaced in Franklin, North Carolina, where, to this day, he is believed to be serving as president and minister at the Spiritual Light Center. In 2009, two survivors filed a lawsuit accusing Fr. Groves of sexually abusing them in the 1980s at St. Mary's in Walsenburg and St. Ignatius in Ignacio, when both survivors were minors. Fr. Groves is included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019."

Fr. Richard L. Lause, C.M.

Ordained, 1977

Notes: Fr. Richard Lause was ordained a priest of the Congregation of the Mission. In 2004, a former seminarian filed a lawsuit in St. Louis against his alleged abuser, Fr. Lause, and religious officials and organizations. The man alleged Fr. Lause sexually abused him as a minor boy in the 1980s at St. Vincent De Paul Seminary. The Midwest Province of the Congregation of the Mission was purportedly made aware of the sexual abuse allegations in 1988. Fr. Lause was subsequently removed from ministry and received therapy. It is believed that Fr. Lause was then allowed to return to ministry in 1989. Another complaint was made in 2003, at which time Fr. Lause was placed on leave. The claim is believed to have been settled in 2005.

Fr. Lucien (Luke, Maurice) J. Meunier (Meunier de la Pierre)

Ordained, 1939

Notes: Fr. Lucien Meunier was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Amos in the Province of Quebec, Canada. Fr. Meunier was a visiting priest in many dioceses throughout the United States and Canada. Multiple reports were made beginning in the 1960s that Fr. Meunier sexually abused minor boys. In 1972, the Bishop of the Diocese of Pueblo reportedly arranged for Fr. Meunier to see a psychologist at Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Fr. Meunier purportedly never went to treatment and fled. Fr. Meunier has been accused of child sexual abuse in multiple civil lawsuits between the 1990s and 2000s in Arizona, New Mexico, Connecticut, Colorado, and Idaho. Fr. Meunier is named on the Diocese of Tucson's 2011 "List of clergy and other Church personnel identified by the Diocese of Tucson with assignments, employment or ministry service within the Diocese about whom the Diocese is aware of credible allegations of sexual misconduct involving a minor," the Diocese of Gallup's 2015 "[l]ist of clergy identified by the Diocese of Gallup as having credible allegations of sexual misconduct made against them," and the Diocese of Hartford's 2019 list of "Information Regarding Clerical Sexual Abuse of Minors" in the subsection "Religious Order Priests and Priests from Other Dioceses Who Have Been Credibly Accused of Sexual Abuse of a Minor That Took Place in the Archdiocese of Hartford from 1953 to the Present." It is believed Fr. Meunier died in the 1980s. His status as a priest, whereabouts, and whether he had access to children prior to his death are unknown.

Msgr. James W. Rasby

Ordained, 1952

Notes: Msgr. James Rasby was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Denver. Msgr. Rasby was the co-founder of Samaritan House with Fr. Woodrich. Msgr. Rasby was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, child sexual abuse allegations were made against Msgr. Rasby in 1975 and 1990. Msgr. Rasby held positions as Rector at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception and as Pastor at St. Vincent de Paul when he allegedly sexually abused minor children. The Archdiocese of Denver allegedly did not report either child sexual abuse allegation to law enforcement. After the second allegation was made to the Archdiocese in 1990, they purportedly required that Msgr. Rasby undergo a psychological evaluation. In 2003, Msgr. Rasby's faculties were removed. Msgr. Rasby's status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 1996 until his death in 2014 are unknown.

Fr. Joseph A. Reade

Ordained, 1954

Notes: Fr. Joseph Reade was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Pueblo. Fr. Reade was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, child sexual abuse allegations were made against Fr. Reade in 1986 and 1994. Fr. Reade allegedly sexually abused a minor, from approximately 1969 to 1971, while he worked as a chaplain at the Veterans Administration Hospital and St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Junction, Colorado. In approximately 1986, Fr. Reade allegedly sexually abused a minor while he was a retired priest and exercised limited ministry in the Diocese of Pueblo. The Diocese of Pueblo purportedly reached a financial settlement with one of the survivors and claimed a second allegation was unsubstantiated. In approximately 1986, the Diocese of Pueblo briefly suspended Fr. Reade's faculties and restored them that same year. According to the Special Master's Report, Fr. Reade's file does not indicate that either alleged child sexual abuse report was ever reported to law enforcement. Fr. Reade's status as a priest and whether he had access to children from 1980 until his death in 1990 are unknown.

Fr. Lawrence M. Spellen (Fr. Jerome M. Spellen, O.S.M.)

Ordained, 1946

Notes: Fr. Lawrence M. Spellen was ordained Fr. Jerome M. Spellen in the Diocese of Rockford in Illinois. Fr. Spellen was a member of the Servites until 1953 when he entered the Diocese of Salt Lake City. Fr. Spellen bounced around numerous parishes and assignments throughout his career. In 1975, it is believed Fr. Spellen began working at Damien Memorial High School in Honolulu, Hawaii where he sexually abused at least one minor boy. Fr. Spellen told Bishop Weigand in 1993 that he was being accused of sexual misconduct during the mid-1980's. Diocesan officials in Salt Lake City investigated the matter and found merit in the accusations. Fr. Spellen was placed on leave and the matter was reported to child protective services. In 2013, Fr. Spellen was named in a civil lawsuit in Hawaii for the sexual abuse of the boy at Damien Memorial High School. From 1988 until his death, Fr. Spellen's status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he had access to children are unknown.

Fr. John Francis Stein

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Fr. John Stein was a priest of the Archdiocese of Denver. Purportedly, in 1946, Fr. Stein was arrested in Golden, Colorado, and charged with "taking indecent liberties" with a minor boy. Fr. Stein was subsequently convicted and sentenced to 18-months in prison. The Archdiocese of Denver reportedly bailed Fr. Stein out of jail, worked to minimize publicity, and ultimately won an exception for him so that he did not have to serve his sentence. Sometime in the 1950s, Fr. Stein allegedly sexually abused three minor children while he worked at St. Catherine of Siena in Iliff, Colorado. Fr. Stein openly and repeatedly confessed to sexually abusing one of the three minors and admitted he knew he had "no will power, especially with [his] thoughts concerning young boys." Sometime in 1956, Fr. Stein was arrested again on child sexual abuse charges. The Archdiocese of Denver purportedly sent their legal counsel to convince local law enforcement to drop the charges. The Sterling Police Department reportedly agreed to release Fr. Stein as long as he left Sterling permanently. Fr. Stein's file reflects that he sexually abused at least four victims in New Mexico after the Archdiocese of Denver got his charges for sexually abusing a minor dismissed. In November 1958, Fr. Stein was laicized. Prior to his laicization the Archdiocese of Denver had sent Fr. Stein to the Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Fr. Stein was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, the Archdiocese of Denver received three separate child sexual abuse reports made against Fr. Stein in 1956, 1991, and 2002. Purportedly, on February 27, 2019, the Archdiocese of Denver reported to law enforcement the child sexual abuse allegations made against Fr. Stein in 2002. Fr. Stein's whereabouts and whether he had access to children from 1959 until his death are unknown.

Br. Barnabus Stelzner, O.S.B.

Notes: Br. Barnabus Stelzner was a Benedictine monk. Sometime in the early 1980s, Br. Stelzner allegedly sexually abused a minor child while he worked at the Holy Cross Abbey in Canon City, Colorado. In 1997, Br. Stelzner was reportedly still assigned to the abbey, but working in Kansas. Br. Stelzner has been named in at least one child sexual abuse lawsuit. Br. Stelzner's current whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. William C. Wehrle, S.J.

Ordained, 1950

Notes: Fr. William Wehrle, was ordained a priest of the Society of Jesus. Fr. Wehrle was reportedly assigned to Georgetown Preparatory School in North Bethesda, Maryland and Gonzaga College High School in Washington, D.C. prior to his ordination. Church files reveal Fr. Wehrle was accused of child sexual abuse in the mid-1980s. Following the allegation, Fr. Wehrle was reportedly removed from his assignment at St. Alphonsus in Woodstock, Maryland. Multiple allegations of child sexual abuse have been made against Fr. Wehrle in Maryland, Colorado, and Washington, D.C. beginning as early as the 1960s. Fr. Wehrle is listed on the Archdiocese of Baltimore's 2002 "List of Priests and Brothers Accused of Child Sex Abuse." Fr. Wehrle is also listed on the Jesuits' Maryland Province's 2018 list of "Jesuits with an allegation of an offense against a minor (anyone under the age of 18) that could not be fully investigated to determine credibility, but for which there is a reasonable possibility (semblance of truth) that the alleged offense occurred."

Fr. George Weibel

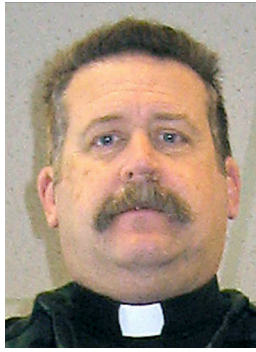

Ordained, 1948

Notes: Fr. George Weibel was ordained a priest in the Archdiocese of Denver. Fr. Weibel was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Fr. Weibel allegedly abused two minors between 1966 and 1972. One survivor reported the alleged abuse in 1988 to an Archdiocese of Denver priest who allegedly failed to report the allegations to Denver Archdiocesan officials until 1993. A second survivor reported the alleged abuse to the Archdiocese in 2014. Fr. Weibel's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 2000 until his death in 2008 are unknown.

Fr. Robert Whipkey

Ordained, 1983

Notes: Fr. Robert Whipkey was ordained a priest in the Archdiocese of Denver. Fr. Whipkey was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Fr. Whipkey sexually abused four minor boys at Sanborn Camps in Florissant, Colorado in 1988. The boys reported the alleged abuse by Fr. Whipkey to the Archdiocese that same year. The Archdiocese, after interviewing Fr. Whipkey, some of the boys, and all 8 of the boys' parents, determined that Fr. Whipkey was "not a danger or risk to any third person." Fr. Whipkey was reportedly sent for a 3-day evaluation at the St. Louis Consultation Center and received individual therapy for one year. His therapist allegedly reported to the Archdiocese that therapy alone would not protect children from sexual abuse by Fr. Whipkey in the future, but the Archdiocese reinstated Fr. Whipkey to ministry despite the report. In 2007, Fr. Whipkey, while assigned to St. Scholastica and St. Theresa, was arrested for indecent exposure, reportedly having been jogging naked. The Archdiocese purportedly placed Fr. Whipkey on leave. Fr. Whipkey's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Harold Robert White

Ordained, 1960

Notes: Fr. Harold White was ordained a priest in the Archdiocese of Denver. Prior to his ordination, Fr. White worked as Deacon at Holy Family in Denver, Colorado, where he allegedly sexually abused a young boy. The minor boy reported the abuse to a nun at the time, but was assaulted by the nun and told to never speak of the abuse again. Archdiocese internal documents reveal officials received reports in 1960 of Fr. White sexually abusing 4 boys. Purportedly, the Archdiocese was made aware of another allegation of child sexual abuse against Fr. White in 1961. Since 1961, multiple reports of Fr. White sexually abusing children have been submitted to the Archdiocese. In 1993, Fr. White reportedly left active ministry. At least 30 men and woman have filed civil lawsuits alleging child sexual abuse by Fr. White. Lawsuits filed in 2005 and 2006 resulted in a 2008 settlement, which included the release of Archdiocesan secret documents regarding Fr. White's sexual abuse. Fr. White was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." Fr. White's status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 1993 until his death in 2006 are unknown.

Fr. Adrianus “Andrew” Johannes Willemsen, C.M.

Ordained, 1954

Notes: Fr. Adrianus Johannes Willemsen was ordained a priest for the Congregation of the Mission, commonly known as the Vincentians, in the Netherlands. In 1982, Fr. Willemsen was incardinated in the Diocese of Austin. While working in Bremond, Fr. Willemsen reportedly abused at least one minor boy. Fr. Willemsen was purportedly allowed to return to the Netherlands in 1989, where he worked as pastor in parishes in the villages of Steensel and Duizel. Fr. Willemsen was reportedly removed from ministry in 2004. Fr. Willemsen was named on the 2019 “Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston Clergy Disclosure List” in the subsection “Religious Order Priests.” Fr. Willemsen is also named on the Diocese of Austin’s 2019 “[l]ist of clergy and religious who have been credibly accused of committing sexual abuse against a minor.” According to the Diocese of Austin’s list, Fr. Willemsen held a presence in Denver, Colorado. Fr. Willemsen’s status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 1999 until his death in 2012 are unknown.

Fr. Charles Wolfe, O.F.M. Cap.

Ordained, 1979

Notes: Fr. Charles Wolfe was ordained a priest of the Capuchin Franciscan Friars. Fr. Wolfe is listed in the 2019 “Audit of the Capuchin Province of Mid-America (aka Province of St. Conrad)” as a “member found to have had credible allegations of sexually inappropriate/criminal behavior against minors.” The Register of the Catholic Diocese of Salina estimates that Fr. Wolfe sexually abused at least one minor in approximately 1976. Fr. Wolfe was reportedly dismissed from the Order in 1987. The Register of the Catholic Diocese of Salina reports that Fr. Wolfe was assigned to Good Shepard Friary in Shawnee, Kansas, and St. Joseph’s Friary in Hays, Kansas. Fr. Wolfe’s current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019

Father A

Ordained, 1959

Notes: Father A is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Father A was ordained in New York in 1959 and, in 1973, petitioned to work in the Archdiocese of Denver, where he was incardinated in 1978 and worked for approximately 5 years. Father A retired from active ministry in 2005, but retained his faculties and continued parish work. In 2010, a survivor alleged she was sexually abused by Father A in the early 1970s when she was a minor. The survivor reported her abuse to the Archdiocese of Denver in 2010 and alleged that abuse occurred while Father A was assigned to Our Lady of Pompeii Parish in the Archdiocese of New York. The Archdiocese of Denver purportedly suspended Father A's faculties and notified the Archdiocese of New York. The Archdiocese of Denver initiated a canonical investigation and notified the District Attorney's Office for the County of New York who declined to prosecute based on the statute of limitations. In 2016, the Archbishop of Denver issued a decree announcing that the canonical trial found Father A not guilty and reinstated Father A's faculties. Father A's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Father C

Professed Vows, Unknown | Ordained, 1989

Notes: Father C is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Father C was ordained by the Archdiocese of Denver in 1989, after working as a Benedictine monk for 25 years and attending seminary. In 1972, while assigned to Holy Cross Abbey in Canon City, Colorado, Father C was alleged to have engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor boy. He was charged and pled guilty to sex assault on a child over 14 years old. A 1997 civil lawsuit against the Benedictines brought Father C's felony child sex abuse conviction to light again. According to the Special Master's Report, the Archdiocese of Denver investigated the incident from 1972 prior to ordaining Father C. However, it does not appear that the Archdiocese of Denver knew Father C had been convicted of this crime until days after his ordination, and further, that he had been promoted to Pastor in 1994 and ultimately retired in 2002 after agreeing to participate in monthly counseling and reporting to his supervisors. Father C's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Father D

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Father D is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Father D was named in the Philadelphia grand jury report published in August 2018 for his alleged sexual misconduct with children in Pennsylvania. The grand jury purportedly found that he sexually abused children from 1978 to 1980. Father D purportedly worked as an extern priest in the Archdiocese of Denver and the Diocese of Colorado Springs from 1982 to 1985. In 2003, a survivor notified the Bishop of the Diocese of Colorado Springs of the abuse by Father D. Father D's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Father F

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Father F is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019" in the substantiated allegations of misconduct with minors subsection. According to the Special Master's Report, Father F committed sexual misconduct with a minor in late 2010 or early 2011, and the Diocese of Pueblo had received at least 2 prior reports of Father F's sexual misconduct with adult women. According to the Special Master's Report, the Diocese of Pueblo sent Father F for evaluation and counseling at least 5 times over the course of 7 years; one of which evaluation and counseling interludes was in 2009 and upon Father F's return, the Diocese of Pueblo transferred him. Father F's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Father H

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Father H is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." Father H was excommunicated from the Diocese of Wichita and incardinated in the Diocese of Pueblo in 1969. According to the Special Master's Report, in 1994, after Father H had retired but while he was exercising limited ministry in Durango, Colorado, a survivor accused Father H of sexual abuse when he was a minor in approximately 1967 to 1969. Father H admitted to sexually abusing this minor on several occasions and further admitted to having sexually abused 2 other minor boys from 1963 to 1969. In 1994, the Diocese of Pueblo purportedly suspended Father H's faculties and sent him to a therapist in Utah and, in 1995, to treatment at the St. Luke Institute in Suitland, Maryland, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Father H subsequently returned to Utah and, in 1999, with seemingly full knowledge of Father H's history, the Bishop of Salt Lake City granted him faculties. In 1998, when the survivor's civil lawsuit was dismissed by a court of appeals (on statute of limitations grounds) the Diocese of Pueblo restored Father H's Faculties. Father H purportedly ministered in Utah until 2002, when the Dallas Charter required the Bishop of Salt Lake City and Pueblo to suspend Father H's faculties. Father H's current status as a priest and whether he had access to children from 2002 until his death in 2003 are unknown.

Father J

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Father J is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Father J sexually abused at least 1 minor boy in New York in 1983. The Archdiocese of New York purportedly suspended his faculties and sent him for evaluation and therapy. In 1985, Father J returned to ministry on a temporary basis without any restrictions in the Diocese of Pueblo. Father J worked as an Assistant Pastor and Parochial Vicar in 4 parishes from 1986 to 2002 in Pueblo. In 2002, after the District Attorney in Manhattan conducted a review of sexual misconduct allegations, the Archdiocese of New York notified the Diocese of Pueblo that it was removing Father J's faculties as of March 2002, yet Father J's file indicates that he did not retire from ministry in Colorado until 2004. Father J's current status as a priest, his whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Father K

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Father K is an unidentified priest that was included in the Colorado Attorney General's Special Master's Report on "Roman Catholic Clergy Sexual Abuse of Children in Colorado from 1950 to 2019." According to the Special Master's Report, Father K was incardinated in the Diocese of Pueblo in 1956, but only worked for 4 years in the diocese; however, he held a variety of assignments over the next 40 years and allegedly had the permission of the Diocese of Pueblo to take each new assignment. While in the Diocese of Pueblo, Father K allegedly worked at 3 different parishes in his first year, then moved to an orphanage the next year, a hospital the following year and became a chaplain in the U.S. Naval Reserve. Father K later went on to work as a teacher and a chaplain in a Catholic high school in Wichita Falls, Texas, where he was later accused of sexually abusing a minor boy. According to the Report, there are indications in Father K's file that the Pueblo Diocese knew he had sexually abused a boy before it allowed him to minister in Texas. In 2015, a survivor came forward in a lawsuit alleging that Father K had sexually abused him as a high school student in Wichita Falls in 1990. Father K died in 2004, still incardinated in the Pueblo Diocese, without any restrictions on his ministry.
