

Cardinal Timothy Dolan

CARDINAL DOLAN'S HISTORY OF SECRECY, SILENCE AND PROTECTION OF MSGR. JOHN PADDACK

Monsignor John Paddack

2012
ARK59 reports abuse by Paddack to the Bronx County District Attorney.

2013
ARK59 receives settlement in Irish Christian Brothers BK; names Paddack as perpetrator.

View Press Release

2018
Sep. 20, 2018
New York Times article details Dolan's appointment of former federal judge to review how the Archdiocese handles abuse complaints and refusal to release names of credibly accused clergy.

View New York Times Article

2019
Feb. 13, 2019
New York Child Victims Act signed into law.

Feb. 21, 2019
The Anderson Report released, identifying Msgr. Paddack.

Following the release of the Anderson Report seven more survivors of Paddack come forward.

April 2019
Dolan releases list of 120 Archdiocesan clergy credibly accused of sexual abuse of a minor; Paddack is not included.

View the New York Archdiocese Credibly Accused List

June 16, 2019
Joseph Caramanno publicly discloses sexual abuse by Paddack at press conference.

View Press Conference

July 7, 2019
Under increasing public pressure, Dolan allows Paddack to resign quietly.

View Paddack's Resignation Letter

July 16, 2019
Joseph Caramanno files lawsuit against the Archdiocese for public nuisance, speaks at press conference.

View Press Conference

Aug. 14, 2019
New York Child Victims Act takes effect.

Lawsuits filed:
• J. Caramanno
• ARK4
• ARK13
• ARK14
• ARK19
• ARK59

View Press Release

2020
July 29, 2020
Four more survivors come forward alleging abuse by Paddack. Dolan allows Paddack to keep his position and privilege.

Lawsuits filed:
• ARK350
• ARK351
• ARK352
• ARK353

2021
May 04, 2021
Two more survivors come forward alleging abuse by Paddack.

Lawsuits filed:
• ARK382
• ARK383