Purpose & Background

For decades numerous courageous survivors have spoken their truth and brought lawsuits related to the sexual abuse of children in the Catholic Church throughout New York. Survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and together with their attorneys were able to reveal secret Church records through the courts and civil litigation process. These lawsuits resulted in the release of identities and histories of sexually abusive individuals, those engaged in sexual misconduct, and the release of documents and records reflecting the knowledge of institutions that covered up the sexual abuse and misconduct.

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Brooklyn contains the names of diocesan priests, religious order priests, and other religious clerics associated with the Diocese of Brooklyn, including those who were assigned within or working in the geographic boundaries of the Diocese, who have been accused of sexual misconduct with minors. The information in this Anderson Report is derived from publicly available sources, claims made by survivors to the dioceses and religious orders responsible for the offenders, and legal settlements made as a result of claims for sexual abuse.

While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, the vast majority of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil or criminal court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law. All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law.

It is believed that the Diocese of Brooklyn has not made available to the public, the full history, knowledge, and context of their sexually abusive agents and employees. The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Brooklyn is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct, provide the public with vital information including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. The assignment histories provided are approximations which were compiled from the Official Catholic Directory, BishopAccountability.org, statements attributed to Diocesan and religious officials, Diocesan and religious records, and media reports.¹

Supporting New York Survivors for Decades

Jeff Anderson & Associates, P.A.

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. The attorneys have advocated for survivor rights in New York for many decades, having filed their first lawsuit in New York on behalf of a child sexual abuse survivor in approximately 1988. In addition to seeking legal accountability, the firm has supported survivors of abuse by bringing public awareness to the cause and they have testified before numerous state legislatures endorsing reforms to the statute of limitations. The firm also filed the first case alleging public nuisance against a New York diocese for refusing to disclose the histories and identities of sexually abusive priests. Through its work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seeks to bring hope, healing, accountability, and justice to survivors of sexual abuse.

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 30 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough, and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect, and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers we have represented thousands of survivors of sexual abuse against individual offenders and the intuitions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

The Diocese of Brooklyn

The Diocese of Brooklyn was created from the Archdiocese of New York in 1853. In 1957, the Diocese of Rockville Centre was formed from the Diocese of Brooklyn. The Diocese of Brooklyn consists of the boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens and currently serves over 1.5 million Catholics. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Brooklyn is comprised of Kings and Queens counties. It includes 186 parishes, 16 private high schools, two Diocesan and parish high schools with almost 100,000 students under Catholic instruction. There are 660 priests in the Diocese, 185 of which are members of religious orders. Another 86 extern priests are working in the Diocese of Brooklyn along with 224 permanent Deacons, 84 religious brothers, 664 religious sisters and 1,754 lay teachers.

Former Bishops of the Diocese include Bishop Thomas Molloy (1921-1956), Bishop Bryan McEntegart (1957-1968), Bishop Francis Mugavero (1968-1990) and Bishop Thomas Daily (1990-2003). In 2003, Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio was appointed the Bishop of Brooklyn.

Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio

Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio

Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio was ordained in 1970. In 1996, he was appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Newark and in 1999 he was named the Sixth Bishop of Camden, New Jersey. In October 2003, Bp. DiMarzio was installed as the Seventh Bishop of Brooklyn. Bp. DiMarzio served as a consultant for the John Jay Report in 2004 which analyzed the nature and scope of the problem of sexual abuse of minors by Catholic priests and deacons in the United States from 1950 to 2002. Bp. DiMarzio publicly admitted in 2004 and reported to John Jay that 73 clerics in the Diocese of Brooklyn were accused of sexual misconduct with minors.

For years, Bishop DiMarzio refused to release a list of names of clergy accused of sexually abusing minors. In November 2017, the Diocese quietly posted the names of eight priests¹ and added five more names to the list over the course of the following year.

On February 15, 2019 Bp. DiMarzio released a list that contained the names of 108 “diocesan clergy for whom the diocese received allegations of sexual misconduct with a minor.”² It is believed that Diocese of Brooklyn has not made available to the public the full extent of this list.

Fr. Romano Ferraro

Fr. Romano Ferraro

Fr. Romano Ferraro is a serial child predator who admitted at trial that he had sexually abused dozens of minor boys. Fr. Ferraro is reported to have sexually abused children in the Dioceses of Brooklyn, Rockville Centre, and Metuchen, and the Archdiocese of St. Louis. He also worked at the U.S. Naval Air Station in Key West, Florida in the Archdiocese of Miami and at a military base in the Philippines. Fr. Ferraro was also sent for treatment at St. Luke Institute, a facility known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Fr. Ferraro was finally laicized in 2011. He is currently serving a life sentence for child sexual abuse at a prison in Massachusetts. (See full history on p. 34)

Msgr. Otto Garcia

Msgr. Otto Garcia

Msgr. Otto Garcia was ordained in 1973 and began his career at St. Michael's in Flushing, New York. He was sent to Rome in 1976 where he remained until 1979 when he returned to St. John the Evangelist in Brooklyn. He was named Vice Chancellor of the Diocese in 1982 and worked as Chancellor from 1985 to approximately 1999. Msgr. Garcia was assigned to the Cathedral-Basilica of St. James in 2000 where he worked until he was assigned to St. Joan of Arc in Jackson Heights in 2007. Msgr. Garcia is a canon lawyer and previously worked as a tribunal judge, Vicar General (2002-2006) and Moderator of the Curia of the Diocese of Brooklyn.

In 2017, Thomas Davis reported to the Diocese of Brooklyn that Msgr. Garcia had sexually abused him when he was a minor boy from approximately 1973 to 1975 at St. Michael's in Flushing, New York. Davis went public with his allegations on February 14, 2019 and Msgr. Garcia remained in ministry at St. Joan of Arc.³

On August 14, 2019 Davis filed a lawsuit against the Diocese and Msgr. Garcia under the New York Child Victims Act. The same day, a second lawsuit was filed by another survivor who alleges Msgr. Garcia sexually abused the man when he was a minor boy in approximately 1973 to 1974 at St. Michael's. Msgr. Garcia was quietly removed from St. Joan of Arc in Jackson Heights, New York sometime in 2019. Msgr. Garcia is listed as the Parochial Vicar according to the September 1, 2019 bulletin of the Church of St. Teresa in Woodside, New York.

Fr. Roberto Cadavid

Fr. Roberto Cadavid

Fr. Roberto Cadavid, a Colombian priest with a history of allegations of abuse, began working in the Diocese of Brooklyn in 2012.⁴ The Diocese bypassed its own internal protocols requiring recommendations from foreign bishops to include a specific assurance that the priest has never been charged with a crime and that the priest “has not manifested behavioral problems in the past that would indicate he might deal with minors in an inappropriate manner” and allowed him to minister anyway. In 2017, the Diocese was informed of Fr. Cadavid’s history of abuse, suspended him, but waited 10 months to inform parishioners about his history.
