Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey

“For many of us, those earlier stories
happened someplace else, someplace away. Now we know the truth: it happened everywhere.”

Purpose & Background

For decades, numerous courageous survivors have spoken their truth and brought lawsuits related to the sexual abuse of children in the Catholic Church throughout New Jersey. Survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and together with their attorneys were able to reveal secret Church records through the courts and civil litigation process. These lawsuits resulted in the release of the identities and histories of sexually abusive individuals, those engaged in sexual misconduct, and the release of documents and records reflecting the knowledge of the institutions that covered up the sexual abuse and misconduct.

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey contains the names of diocesan priests, religious order priests, deacons, nuns, and religious brothers and sisters associated with Catholic Dioceses in the State of New Jersey, including those of whom were assigned within, working in, or living within the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey who have been accused of sexual misconduct. This includes the Archdiocese of Newark and Dioceses of Trenton, Camden, Paterson, and Metuchen. The information in this Anderson Report is derived from publicly available sources, claims made by survivors to the dioceses and religious orders responsible for the offenders, and legal settlements made as a result of claims for sexual abuse.

While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, the vast majority of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil or criminal court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law. All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law.

It is believed that the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey and associated religious orders have not publicly made available the full history, knowledge and context of their sexually abusive agents and employees. The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct, provide the public with vital information, including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. The assignment histories provided are approximations which were compiled from the Official Catholic Directory, BishopAccountability.org, statements attributed to Diocesan and Religious officials, Diocesan and Religious records, and media reports.¹

Supporting New Jersey Abuse Survivors for Decades

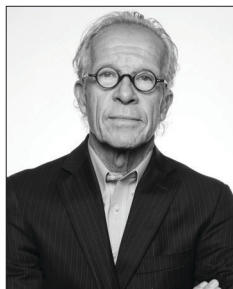

Jeff Anderson & Associates, P.A.

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse in 1983. Through its work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seeks to bring hope, healing, accountability, and justice to survivors of sexual abuse.

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 30 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough, and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect, and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers we have represented thousands of survivors of sexual abuse against individual offenders and the intuitions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

For more than 35 years, Jeff Anderson & Associates, and now in partnership with Gianforcaro Law, have advocated for survivors' rights in New Jersey. In addition to seeking legal accountability, Jeff Anderson & Associates uses novel legal theories, including public nuisance to help prevent child sexual abuse and bring awareness to sexual abuse across the country.

Gianforcaro Law

Gregory G. Gianforcaro graduated from Seton Hall Law School and has been practicing law since 1988. He is a vigilant litigator who has represented hundreds of victims of childhood sexual abuse within the State of New Jersey. Greg, who was raised in Mendham, New Jersey and was a former Boy Scout and altar boy at St. Joseph's Parish, has been advocating on behalf of survivors of abuse throughout the State of New Jersey since 2002. As an advocate for survivors of childhood sexual abuse, Gianforcaro Law has obtained some of New Jersey's largest settlements against the Catholic Church and has represented survivors of sexual abuse through litigation in variety of circumstance, including cases against some of the most prestigious boys' prepschools in the nation.

Gianforcaro Law has worked extensively with the State's legislators to eliminate New Jersey's Charitable Immunity laws, resulting in the passage of a law in 2006 which retroactively eliminated charitable immunity protections for institutions who have employed sexual abusers of children. Greg Gianforcaro remains dedicated to legislative change to empower survivors of sexual abuse, and allow survivors to regain their power and their voices.

Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Archdiocese and Dioceses of New Jersey is intended to be a chronology and analysis of the sexual abuse of children in Catholic institutions within the State of New Jersey.

The data collected illustrates the patterns and practices of Diocesan and Religious Order officials who have enabled the abusers and covered up crimes of sexual misconduct and abuse for decades, including the orchestrating of an institutional cover-up of an enormous magnitude. Modern means of analysis and availability of data through the internet, social media, and otherwise publicly available information are exposing perpetrators who operated in the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey, but until full transparency and accountability exist, children remain in grave danger.

Historically, the Archdiocese and Dioceses in New Jersey, like many other archdioceses and dioceses around the world, knew of predator priests who posed a significant danger to children and others. Sexual abuse, particularly that of children, has long been a crime in New Jersey. However, Diocesan and Religious Order officials chose and continue to keep these crimes hidden, allowing their priests continued and unfettered access to vulnerable members of society. Over recent decades, occasional bits of information about abuse within Catholic institutions has surfaced, but the Catholic Church's strict policy of secrecy has kept important information and the full extent of the problem hidden from the public. This has continued despite mandated reporting laws.

The Roman Catholic Church in the State of New Jersey is comprised of one archdiocese, four dioceses, approximately 580 parishes, and 246 schools staffed by 1,552 diocesan priests, 324 religious priests, 171 brothers, 1,928 sisters, and 6,619 lay teachers. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory there are 3,527,494 Catholics within the Archdiocese and Dioceses of New Jersey.

Archdiocese of Newark

The Archdiocese of Newark was created by the Holy See in 1853 and erected as an Archdiocese on December 10, 1937. Today the Archdiocese of Newark is comprised of the four counties of Bergen, Hudson, Essex, and Union. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory, the Archdiocese of Newark serves approximately 1,220,143 Catholics and there are approximately 792 priests currently in the Archdiocese of Newark.

Diocese of Camden

The Diocese of Camden was established on December 9, 1937 encompasses New Jersey's largest geographical jurisdiction at 2,691 square miles. There are approximately 231 priests currently in the Diocese of Camden in the counties of Atlantic, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester, and Salem. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Camden serves approximately 495,843 Catholics.

Diocese of Metuchen

The Diocese of Metuchen is the youngest diocese in New Jersey, which was created by the Holy See on November 19, 1981. The geographical boundaries of the Diocese of Metuchen include 1,214 square miles comprised of the counties Warren, Hunterdon, Somerset and Middlesex. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Metuchen serves approximately 646,508 Catholics and there are approximately 212 priests currently in the Diocese of Metuchen.

Diocese of Paterson

The Diocese of Paterson was established by the Holy See on December 9, 1937. The Diocese of Paterson comprises the northern counties of Passaic, Morris, and Sussex. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Paterson serves approximately 430,000 Catholic and there are approximately 376 priests currently in the Diocese of Paterson.

Diocese of Trenton

The Diocese of Trenton is the second oldest diocese in New Jersey, which was created by the Holy See in August of 1881. The Diocese of Trenton comprises the four counties of Burlington, Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean. According to the 2018 Official Catholic Directory, the Diocese of Trenton serves approximately 735,000 Catholics and there are approximately 265 priests currently in the Diocese of Trenton.

Cardinal Theodore E. McCarrick

Cardinal Theodore E. McCarrick was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of New York in 1959¹. Prior to his elevation to Bishop of Metuchen, McCarrick worked in various parishes within the Archdiocese of New York and spent two years on “special assignment” at Catholic University in Puerto Rico.

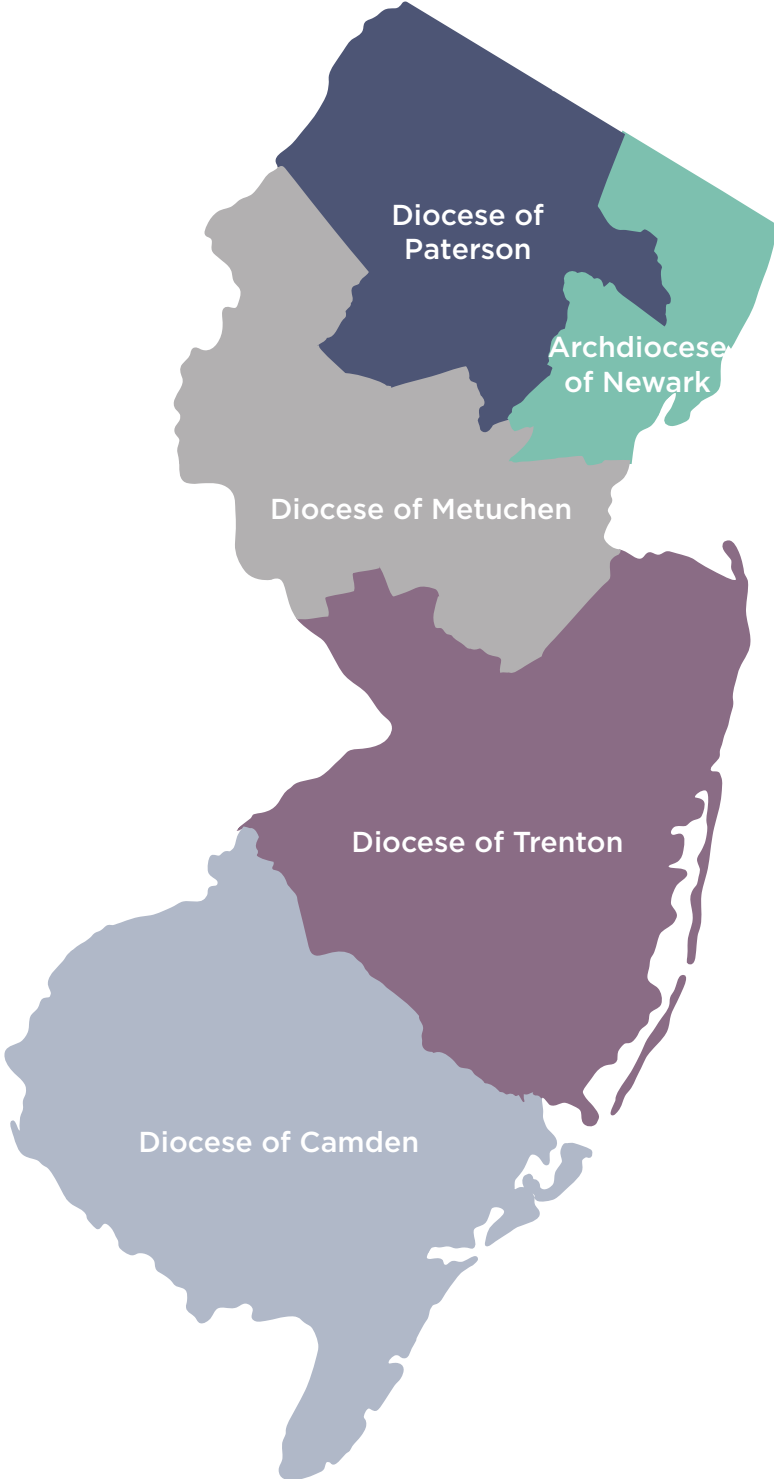

In 1978, Cardinal McCarrick was elevated to Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of New York where he worked until 1981 when he was appointed as the founding bishop of the Diocese of Metuchen. In 1986, McCarrick was appointed Archbishop of Newark. In late 2000, Pope John Paul II appointed McCarrick Archbishop of Washington and he was elevated to Cardinal in 2001.

Pope Francis removed Cardinal McCarrick from ministry in June 2018 after allegations of sexual abuse surfaced against McCarrick. He was allowed to resign from his position in July 2018 and was suspended from public ministry. In February 2019, Cardinal McCarrick was removed from the clerical state at the conclusion of an internal Church adjudication process conducted by the Vatican’s Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith.

Cardinal McCarrick is the highest ranking Catholic official to be removed from the priesthood because of allegations of child sexual abuse. To-date, at least three survivors of abuse have come forward alleging sexual abuse by McCarrick.

Br. Robert “Edmund” Coakley, O.F.M.

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Newark

Assignments:

Br. Robert “Edmund” Coakley, O.F.M., was a member of the Franciscan Friars. He also worked as a Scoutmaster in the Boy Scouts of America within the Archdiocese of Newark. In 1978, two brothers, aged 14 and 11, accused Br. Coakley of sexually abusing them while working as their Scoutmaster. In 1980, the family of the boys filed a lawsuit against Br. Coakley, the Boy Scouts of America, and the Archdiocese of Newark, but the case was later dismissed. Br. Coakley’s name appeared in the Perversion Files released by the Boy Scouts of America in 2012. Br. Coakley reportedly died in 1988.

Br. John H. Dagwell, C.F.X.

Ordained, Unknown

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Newark

Assignments:

Br. John H. Dagwell, C.F.X, was a member of the Congregation of Xaverian Brothers. In 1988, Fr. Dagwell pleaded guilty to sexually abusing a 15-year-old student in 1986 while teaching at the Montvale parochial school in Montvale, NJ. Fr. Dagwell was sentenced to probation and was subsequently transferred to Milton, MA. From 1989 to 1992, Br. Dagwell worked at St. Francis House shelter in Boston, MA until residents started to complain of unwanted hugging and kissing by Br. Dagwell, forcing him to resign. In 1995, Br. Dagwell worked at Crossroads Family Shelter in East Boston, run by the Most Holy Redeemer parish. Br. Dagwell was fired two months later after Crossroads learned of his past allegations. Br. Dagwell reportedly left the Congregation of Xaverian Brothers in 2002. Br. Dagwell's whereabouts and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Yusaf Dominic (Dominic Yousaf)

Ordained, 1974

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Newark

Notes:

Fr. Dominic Yusuf was ordained in 1974 to the Archdiocese of Lahore, Pakistan and worked in various parishes throughout the world, serving in England, the United States, and Italy. In 1996, two survivors came forward and accused Fr. Dominic of child sexual abuse in the 1980's in England. Fr. Dominic was subsequently arrested and sent to Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Before he could be tried in England, Fr. Dominic fled back to his native country of Pakistan in 1997 where he worked until 2002. Fr. Dominic had previously tried to work as a priest in the United States but had been denied work by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Diocese of Brooklyn. However, in 2002, the Diocese of Newark hired him to work at St. Francis of Assis in Ridgefield, New Jersey where he reportedly worked for about two months. In 2004, Fr. Dominic was found working as a priest in Italy. Fr. Dominic's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Br. Jerome "Jerry" Heustis, C.F.C.

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Newark

Assignments:

Brother Jerome "Jerry" Heustis was accused of sexually abusing one boy between 1963 and 1967 at Essex Catholic High School in Newark, New Jersey. The boy who was allegedly sexually abused committed suicide in 1978. Br. Heustis later worked as principal at Palma High School in Salinas, California for six years in the late 1970s and early 1980s. Br. Heustis was also accused of sexually abusing a minor when he worked at St. Laurence High School in Burbank, IL. Br. Heustis is included in the Christian Brothers' list of "current, former and deceased brothers who were identified in at least two (2) sexual abuse claims filed as proofs of claim in the bankruptcy matter In re: The Christian Brothers' Institute, et al." The list, released June 11, 2014, identifies Br. Heustis as deceased.

Br. Timothy Joseph O’Sullivan, C.F.C

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Newark

Assignments:

Br. Timothy Joseph O’Sullivan, C.F.C., was a member of the Congregation of Christian Brothers. In 2016, Br. O’Sullivan was added to Attorney Mitch Garabedian’s list of accused clerics named in civil claims resulting in settlements or arbitration awards. Multiple survivors have filed and settled lawsuits that accuse Br. O’Sullivan of child sexual abuse, mainly in the early 1970s at Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, NJ. Br. O’Sullivan’s status as a brother, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Sr. Regina

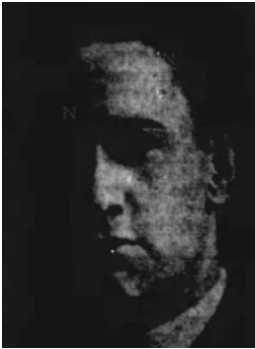

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Newark

Assignments:

Sister Regina was a member of the Pallatine Sisters and worked in the Archdiocese of Newark. A 2005 lawsuit accused Sr. Regina of child sexual abuse at Sacred Heart Orphanage in the early 1940s. The lawsuit, filed by two 80-year-old men, alleged that Sr. Regina sexually abused one of the men when he was in 7th grade. Sr. Regina's clerical status, her whereabouts, and whether she has access to children is unknown.

Sr. Eileen Shaw, (Sisters of Charity)

Assignments Within the Archdiocese/Diocese(s) in New Jersey: Paterson

Assignments:

Sr. Eileen Shaw was a member of the Sisters of Charity. Sr. Shaw worked in various locations within the Diocese of Paterson including, Visitation Academy in Paramus, NJ and at St. Cecilia elementary school in Kearney, NJ. In 1994, a woman accused Sr. Shaw came forward to accuse Sr. Shaw of sexually abusing her beginning when she was 15-years-old at Paramus Catholic Girls High School. The abuse occurred from approximately 1968 until 1992. Once the allegations of child sexual abuse surfaced, Sr. Shaw was removed from her position as principal at Visitation. As of 2019, it was reported that Sr. Shaw is still a nun but has restricted access to outside ministry. Sr. Shaw's whereabouts and whether she has access to children are unknown.
