victims/survivors and pay any costs incident thereto; limited objections have been filed opposing certain relief sought in the Motion; no objections have been raised to the Debtor's continued payment of certain psychological counseling and therapy for victims/survivors; and it appearing that Debtor's continued payment of certain psychological counseling and therapy for victims/survivors is in the best interest of the Debtor's estate, its creditors, and other parties in interest; and it appearing that the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334; and it appearing that this proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and it appearing that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and notice of the Motion and the opportunity for a hearing on the Motion was appropriate under the particular circumstances and that no other or further notice need be given; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefore;

It is hereby ordered:

1. The Motion is GRANTED in part, as set forth herein.
2. The Debtor may pay for certain psychological counseling and therapy for Victims/Survivors, as more fully detailed in the Motion, with an annual cap on such expenditures of $100,000.
3. Should the Debtor believe it necessary to spend more than $100,000 annually for certain psychological counseling and therapy for Victims/Survivors, it may present a motion to this Court requesting such authority and nothing in this Order will be deemed to prejudice such request.
4. At a later date the Court will rule on the other relief sought in the Motion.
