Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Fresno

“For many of us, those earlier stories happened someplace else, someplace away. Now we know the truth: it happened everywhere.”

Purpose & Background

In 2003, the California legislature opened a one-year, retroactive window for survivors of child sexual abuse to file civil claims against their perpetrator and the institution that covered up the sexual abuse. As a result of the courage of survivors and the lawsuits brought by survivors' attorneys, numerous lawsuits related to the employment of sexually abusive priests in California, including the Diocese of Fresno, were filed. For the first time significant numbers of survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and their attorneys were able to pry open secret church records using the civil legal process. These lawsuits resulted in the release and disclosure of the identities and histories of clerical sexual abusers, those engaged in sexual misconduct, and the release of documents and information reflecting the knowledge of institutions that covered up sexual abuse and misconduct. The Diocese of Fresno was named in multiple lawsuits for having employed sexually abusive priests.

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Fresno contains the names of clergy associated with the Diocese of Fresno, including those of whom were assigned within or working in the geographical boundaries of the Diocese of Monterey-Fresno, before the Diocese of Fresno was formed in 1967, who have been accused of sexual misconduct. While lawsuits were filed involving many of these alleged perpetrators, the vast majority of the claims against these individuals have been settled or have not been fully evaluated in a civil or criminal court. Accordingly, the allegations should be considered just allegations and should not be considered proved or substantiated in a court of law.

All individuals should be considered innocent until proven guilty. In some situations, the statute of limitations has expired preventing the cases from being heard in a court of law. It is believed that the Diocese of Fresno does not make available to the public the full history, knowledge and context of the sexually abusive clerics within the Diocese. The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Fresno is an attempt to compile information already available to the public from various public sources including the public media, bishopaccountability.org, the Diocese's public statements, and other sources that have attempted to chronicle this information for public use. This Anderson Report is intended to raise awareness about the important issue of clerical sexual abuse, provide the public with vital information including assignment histories, and provide awareness to survivors. The assignment histories provided are approximations which were compiled from the Official Catholic Directory, BishopAccountability.org, statements attributed to Diocesan and Religious officials, Diocesan and Religious records, and media reports.¹

¹The abbreviation in parenthesis following each assignment indicates the Diocese the individual was working and/or residing in at the time of the assignment.

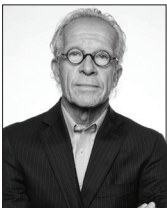

Supporting Fresno Sexual Abuse Survivors for Decades

Jeff Anderson & Associates, P.A.

Jeff Anderson & Associates pioneered the use of civil litigation to seek justice for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. The attorneys have advocated for survivor rights across the country for many decades, having filed their first lawsuit on behalf of a child sexual abuse survivor in the early 1980s. In addition to seeking legal accountability, the firm has supported survivors of abuse by bringing public awareness to the cause and they have testified before numerous state legislatures endorsing reforms to the statute of limitations. Through its work, Jeff Anderson & Associates seeks to bring hope, healing, accountability, and justice to survivors of sexual abuse.

In most cases, childhood sexual abuse goes unreported or victims/survivors break their silence many years after the abuse occurs. While there are many legal barriers to prosecuting those responsible for the abuse, our firm has worked to overcome these barriers for more than 30 years. As pioneers of child protection through civil litigation, we are aggressively committed to this cause and capable of handling the most complex legal issues in courts across the United States.

We are smart, tough, and relentless, but the virtue that ultimately sets us apart is our compassion. We are people who feel deeply and work tirelessly in response to an unjust world. We have a reputation for being the best at what we do and that begins and ends with our ability to support, protect, and guide survivors along their journey toward justice and healing. As sexual abuse lawyers we have represented thousands of survivors of sexual abuse against individual offenders and the intuitions that harbor these offenders. We are engaged with a national network of attorneys who share our mission, and when we take a case, we exhaust every imaginable resource in order to serve our clients' needs.

Abuse in the Diocese of Fresno

The Anderson Report on Sexual Abuse in the Diocese of Fresno is intended to be a chronology and analysis of the sexual abuse of children within the Diocese of Fresno, including a discussion of how the highest Church officials enabled the abusers and covered up crimes of sexual misconduct and abuse.

The data reveals the horrifying scale of priests sexually assaulting minors from early history when the Diocese of Fresno was included within the Diocese of Monterey-Fresno to the present day. The data collected suggests the patterns and practices of Church officials, including the orchestrating of an institutional cover-up of an enormous magnitude. Perhaps most shocking among the discoveries is that some perpetrators were intentionally transferred and retained in trusted positions with direct access to children even when they were known to be abusers. Modern means of analysis and availability of data through the Internet and social media is exposing perpetrators who operated in this Diocese, but until full transparency and accountability exist, children remain in grave danger.

Historically, the Diocese of Fresno, like many other dioceses and archdioceses, knew priests were perpetrators that posed a significant danger to children. The sexual abuse of children has long been a crime in California. However, Church officials chose and continue to keep these crimes hidden, allowing its priests continued and unfettered access to children. During the 1980s and 1990s, occasional bits of information about clerical abuse would surface, but the Church's strict policy of secrecy kept most of the information and the full extent of the problem hidden from the public. This has continued despite mandated reporting laws. The civil window in 2003 subjected the Diocese of Fresno to additional scrutiny that it had never previously faced. This window was one short year. During this time survivors brought claims against the Diocese for abuse by clerics and lay employees of the Diocese. For the first time, a significant number of survivors became plaintiffs in civil lawsuits and their attorneys were able to pry open secret Church records using subpoenas and court orders.

History of the Diocese of Fresno

The Diocese of Monterey – Fresno was established by Vatican decree on June 1, 1922. The new diocese consisted of 12 California counties including Fresno, Mariposa, Merced, Tulare, Kings, Kern, Madera, Inyo, Monterey, San Benito, San Luis Obispo, and Santa Cruz.

In 1967, the Diocese of Fresno and the Diocese of Monterey were separately formed. Auxiliary Bishop of Los Angeles Timothy Manning was appointed Bishop of the Diocese of Fresno effective October 24, 1967. Bishop Manning was transferred to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in 1969 where he supervised hundreds of priests that sexually abused minors until he retired in 1985.

The Diocese of Fresno now includes the eight counties of Merced, Madera, Mariposa, Fresno, Kings, Tulare, Kern and Inyo. The geographic boundaries of the Diocese reach from the coastal foothills extending to the Nevada state line.

Cardinal Roger Mahony

Cardinal Roger Mahony

Cardinal Roger Mahony was Auxiliary Bishop of Fresno from 1975 to 1980, Director of Catholic Charities, and a California licensed clinical social worker. One of Cardinal Mahony's first investigations into clerical child sexual abuse involved Father William G. Allison who was a priest of the Diocese of Alexandria, Louisiana. Fr. Allison received treatment at the Servants of the Paraclete in New Mexico, a facility known to treat sexually abusive priests, he allegedly abused several children in the Diocese of Gallup, New Mexico, before he was transferred to the Diocese of Fresno.

In 1980, Cardinal Mahony was elevated to Bishop of Stockton where he supervised infamous predator priest Fr. Oliver Francis O'Grady. In 1985, Cardinal Mahony was appointed Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, where he supervised hundreds of clerics who sexually abused children, including four accused Archdiocesan Bishops: Juan Aruba, Carl Fischer S.SJ., Alexander Salazar, and George Patrick Ziemann.

Msgr. Craig Harrison

In April 2019, Msgr. Craig Harrison was put on leave from the Diocese of Fresno pending an investigation into allegations of sexual misconduct. Brother Justin Galligan stepped forward to tell his own personal story of abuse by Msgr. Harrison. Br. Galligan also witnessed Msgr. Harrison "being inappropriate with children, giving gifts, money, saying sexual jokes, touching, and being alone with them."²

Br. Galligan also met with one of Msgr. Harrison's alleged victims in California on April 11, 2019. John Doe 1 disclosed that he had been sexually abused as a minor by Msgr. Harrison and the following day John Doe 1 was interviewed by the Diocese of Fresno. On April 15, 2019 law enforcement was notified. Twelve days after the Diocese interviewed John Doe 1, Msgr. Harrison was finally placed on administrative leave. Id.

Since Br. Galligan and John Doe 1 have stepped forward to courageously share their stories of abuse by Msgr. Harrison, two more men have come forward for the first time alleging abuse by Msgr. Harrison.

Those Accused of Sexual Misconduct in the Diocese of Fresno

Fr. William G. Allison

Ordained, 1948

Notes: Fr. William G. Allison has a storied history of child sexual abuse, having been accused by numerous individuals in Arizona, New Mexico, Louisiana, and California. The full extent of Fr. Allison's sexual abuse was not uncovered until 2011 when a man filed a lawsuit claiming he had been sexually abused as a child by Fr. Allison at San Carlos in Monterey, California in approximately 1966. A file related to the lawsuit alleged that Fr. Allison was a known serial predator and there was documentation that he underwent treatment for his "psychosexual disorder" at Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse. Despite all of this, Fr. Allison was still allowed into the Diocese of Monterey, where he purportedly continued to sexually abuse children. Due to the ruling on the statute of limitations, the case was dropped. In 2013, Fr. Allison was included in a civil lawsuit, which has since been settled, brought against the Diocese of Gallup for allegedly covering up child sexual abuse.

In 2005, Fr. Allison was named on the Diocese of Gallup "list of priests, religious and other persons who have been credibly accused of sexual abuse of minors and who have served in parishes or institutions of the church located within the territorial limits of the Diocese of Gallup." The Diocese of Gallup published an updated list in which Fr. Allison is named again, titled "The following is a list of clergy identified by the Diocese of Gallup as having credible allegations of sexual misconduct made against them." In 2019, Fr. Allison was named on the Diocese of Alexandria's list of, "Clergy duly incardinated or at one time serving in the Diocese of Alexandria accused of sexual misconduct and abuse of minors by allegations brought by victims or by written testimony." Fr. Allison is also named on the Diocese of Monterey's "List of Credibly Accused" in the section, "Credibly accused Clergy previously released or in the public domain who were working in the name of the Diocese of Monterey when the alleged abuse occurred."

Fr. Brian D. Bjorklund (Bjorkland)

Ordained, 1966

Notes: Fr. Brian D. Bjorklund reportedly served as a Military and Navy Chaplain in South Carolina, Guam, Hawaii, and California. In 2003, Fr. Brian D. Bjorklund was suspended from his position as Navy Chaplain in Lenmoore, California due to allegations that he sexually abused a minor boy in approximately the mid-1970s. In 2004 Fr. Bjorklund was reinstated as a priest in good standing and the Vatican supposedly said that Fr. Bjorklund's child sexual abuse did not violate Church law at the time of abuse.

Fr. John "Jack" A. Bradley, S.J.

Ordained, 1954

Notes: Fr. John A. Bradley was ordained a Jesuit priest. Following ordination in California, Fr. Bradley was moved to the Northeast, where he reportedly worked at various Catholic schools until 1962. In 2003, a survivor filed a lawsuit against Fr. Bradley in which she accused him of sexually abusing her when she was a minor in the early 1960s. The same year, another woman accused Fr. Bradley of sexually abusing her for five months when she was 17 years old and attending St. Agnes Mission in Fresno, California. Fr. Bradley returned to California to work at Our Lady of Angels in San Diego, California. Since 1970, Fr. Bradley's status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Bp. Tod D. Brown

Ordained, 1963

Notes: After Bp. Tod D. Brown was ordained, he spent the next two and half decades rising through the ranks of the Catholic Church. By 1988, he was named Bishop of Boise. After a decade in Boise, Bp. Brown returned to California as Bishop of Orange. Following his new appointment, news broke alleging that Bp. Brown had sexually abused a minor boy in 1965. Subsequently, it was uncovered that, despite his charade of increased sex-abuse transparency, he had a storied history of repudiating victims, covering up sexual abuse, and continually employing perpetrators. Bp. Brown's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Br. Samuel Cabot, O.F.M.

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Br. Samuel Cabot was a member of the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara, part of what is formally known as the Order of Friars Minor. In 2002, Br. Cabot was removed from public ministry at the Sierra Retreat House in Malibu, California. Br. Cabot has been named in at least three civil lawsuits. In 2019, Br. Cabot was included in the Franciscan Friars Province of Santa Barbara's "List of Franciscan Friars from the St. Barbara Province with Credibly (sic) Claims of Sexual Abuse of a Minor" in the section, "Deceased Former Province of St. Barbara Friars Who Have Been Credibly Accused." According to this list, a report was made in 2002 alleging that Br. Cabot sexually abused a minor from approximately 1977 to 1985. Br. Cabot's status as a brother and whether he had access to children from 1986 until his death are unknown.

Fr. Hermy Dave O. Ceniza

Ordained, 1977

Notes: In 2010, a man sued the Diocese of Fresno for fraud, claiming the Church had "duped" him concerning sexual abuse perpetrated by Fr. Hermy Dave O. Ceniza that had occurred nearly 20 years previously. The plaintiff, who at the beginning of the abuse was a minor, alleges he was sexually abused by Fr. Ceniza for two years in approximately 1991 when Fr. Ceniza worked at St. Francis in Bakersfield, California. After the survivor brought the child sexual abuse to the attention of Bishop Steinbock, he was given the promise that Fr. Ceniza would no longer be a priest or have access to children. Having been given that promise, the boy agreed to not pursue legal action. Two decades later, upon hearing about another case involving the Diocese of Fresno, alleging that a priest accused of sexual abuse had been secretly moved to another parish, the plaintiff looked into what happened to Fr. Ceniza. After finding that Fr. Ceniza remained a priest, the plaintiff reportedly decided to sue. Fr. Ceniza's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Assignments:

Br. Gerald T. Chumik, O.F.M.

Ordained, Unknown

Notes: Br. Gerald Chumik was a member of the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara, part of what is formally known as the Order of Friars Minor. Criminal charges were filed against Br. Chumik and he was subsequently restricted from ministry in 1990 and removed from ministry in 1993. In 2019, Br. Chumik was included in the Franciscan Friars Province of Santa Barbara's "List of Franciscan Friars from the St. Barbara Province with Credibly (sic) Claims of Sexual Abuse of a Minor" in the section, "Credibly Accused Friars Still Living." According to this list, a report was made in 1990 alleging that Br. Chumik sexually abused a minor in approximately 1973. Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara report that Br. Chumik is currently living in Missouri. His current status as a brother and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Assignments:

Fr. Mario Walter Cimmarrusti, O.F.M

Ordained, 1957

Notes: Fr. Mario Cimmarrusti was ordained a Franciscan priest. Allegations of sexual abuse arose against Fr. Cimmarrusti prior to his time spent at Servants of the Paraclete, an institution known for treating priests accused of child sexual abuse, in 1981 and 1982. In 1994, Fr. Cimmarrusti was accused of child sexual abuse at St. Anthony's Minor Seminary in Santa Barbara, California and was named in a civil lawsuit in 2003. In 2006, a settlement was reached in a case involving Fr. Cimmarrusti and seven other priests accused of sexually abusing students at St. Anthony's Seminary High School, the Santa Barbara Boys Choir and the Santa Barbara Mission all in Santa Barbara, California. At least 12 survivors have come forward to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles alleging sexual abuse between 1962 and 1969. Fr. Cimmarrusti was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' "Report to the People of God: Clergy Sexual Abuse Archdiocese of Los Angeles" in the "Religious Order Priests and Brothers" section. Fr. Cimmarrusti's last known address was the San Damiano Retreat House in Danville, California. From approximately 1994 to his death in 2012, Fr. Cimmarrusti's whereabouts, his status as a priest and whether he had access to children until his death are unknown.

Br. Dennis Duffy, O.F.M.

Ordained, 1997

Notes: Br. Dennis Duffy is a member of the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara, part of what is formally known as the Order of Friars Minor. He was included in the Franciscan Friars Province of Santa Barbara's "List of Franciscan Friars from the St. Barbara Province with Credibly (sic) Claims of Sexual Abuse of a Minor" in the section, "Credibly Accused Friars Still Living." According to this list, child sexual abuse allegations involving Br. Duffy were reported in 1990. The sexual abuse allegedly occurred in approximately 1975. He was removed from ministry in 1990 with a safety plan, however, continued to work within different Dioceses following the credible allegations of child sexual abuse. Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara report that Br. Duffy is currently in California. His current status as a brother and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Don D. Flickinger

Ordained, 1964

Notes: In a 2011 civil lawsuit, Fr. Flickinger was accused of sexually abusing a young boy at St. Paul Catholic Parish and School in San Francisco, California. According to the lawsuit, Fr. Flickinger had a history of alleged child sexual abuse stretching back 40 years, and three dioceses—Fresno, San Jose, and San Francisco—were supposedly aware of Fr. Flickinger's misconduct but failed to take action. Two additional lawsuits related to child sexual abuse have named Fr. Flickinger. All three cases were settled in 2013. The Diocese of San Jose included Fr. Flickinger on their list of "Clergy with Credible Allegations of Sexual Abuse of Children" where it is reported that he engaged in "sexual misconduct with children at St. Frances Cabrini in San Jose, California and at Sacred Heart, in Saratoga, California in the 1990s and early 2000s." The list also states that the Diocese of San Jose received reports of child sexual abuse by Fr. Flickinger in 2002, 2005, and 2006.

Fr. Flickinger is named on the Diocese of Santa Rosa's "Diocese Responds to the Request for Transparency." In this document, Fr. Flickinger is designated as one of "the names of accused priests who had varying degrees of connection with the Diocese of Santa Rosa and who had claims brought against them in other places." Fr. Flickinger is retired and, as of 2018, is believed to be residing in the Diocese of Fresno. Fr. Flickinger's current whereabouts, status as a priest, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Robert Gamel

Ordained, 1997

Notes: After 25 years of working as a priest, in 2014, Fr. Robert Gamel was put under investigation for "internet related sex crimes" and subsequently placed on administrative leave. A few months following the start of the investigation, Fr. Gamel was reportedly removed and transferred to another location where he ministered to senior citizens. Over a year after the investigation first began, Fr. Gamel was formally charged with possession of child pornography. A few months later, Fr. Gamel pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 11 months in county jail and four years of probation. Less than six months after being released from jail, Fr. Gamel was charged with possession of child pornography with a prior conviction. Fr. Gamel pleaded no contest to the charge and was sentenced to four years in state prison, where he reportedly remains. His status as a priest is unknown.

Fr. Louis Aloysius Garcia

Ordained, 1963

Notes: Fr. Louis Aloysius Garcia worked in the Diocese of Monterey-Fresno and later in the Diocese of Fresno. After working for multiple years at Porterville State Hospital in Porterville, California, Fr. Garcia was accused of sexually abusing several young developmentally disabled patients. He was charged with 19 counts relating to child sexual abuse which involved six male and two female patients. Some of the charges were dismissed, but he was eventually convicted and sentenced to six years in prison. Fr. Garcia's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Msgr. Craig Francis Harrison

Ordained, 1987

Notes: On April 12, 2019, a survivor made a report of childhood sexual abuse perpetrated by Msgr. Harrison to the Diocese of Fresno. Three days after receipt of this report, the Diocese allegedly contacted the Firebaugh Police Department. Msgr. Harrison was reportedly put on paid administrative leave due to an allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor that occurred decades prior in Firebaugh, California. Since then, two other survivors have come forward alleging childhood sexual abuse by Msgr. Harrison. One of the survivors purportedly previously reported the sexual abuse by Msgr. Harrison in 1998, and again in 2002. The Diocese deemed the allegation unsubstantiated and Fr. Harrison continued his priesthood. A survivor who has alleged sexual abuse against Msgr. Harrison is a Catholic monk that referred to Msgr. Harrison as a mentor and felt compelled to come forward after hearing other allegations. Msgr. Harrison's current whereabouts, status as a priest, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Gerald Hartz

Ordained, 1959

Notes: In 1996, a survivor came forward to accuse Fr. Gerry Hartz of alleged child sexual abuse in approximately 1995 in the Diocese of Sioux City, Iowa. Father Hartz was not charged for this offense, and stayed active in ministry. Fr. Hartz recently provided ministerial support services for a time at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Bakersfield, California and is believed to have been assisting at Christ the King Church in Fresno, California. Fr. Hartz's status as a priest, current whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Msgr. Anthony G. Herdegen

Ordained, 1959

Notes: Msgr. Anthony G. Herdegen worked as a priest for nearly four decades before retiring in 1995. In 2003, he was accused of sexually abusing a boy for fourteen years, beginning when the survivor was a young minor. The boy's older brother also accused Msgr. Herdegen of sexually abusing him after the brother attempted to protect his younger brother. The case was initially dismissed due to lack of evidence; however, later, an appellate court unanimously agreed that Msgr. Herdegen had sexually abused the brothers but that the Church had no knowledge of the events and thus was not liable. During the trial, it is reported that one of the plaintiffs' attorneys received a call from a man claiming that Msgr. Herdegen had sexually abused him in 1967, two years prior to the sexual abuse of the brothers. The man claims to have told the school principal about the abuse, but no action was ever taken. As of 2009, Msgr. Herdegen had admitted to sexually abusing the two brothers, but he remained a retired priest in good standing. Msgr. Herdegen's status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 2005 until his death are unknown.

Fr. Edgardo (Edgar) Arrunataegui Jimenez

Ordained, 1983

Notes: Fr. Edgardo (Edgar) Arrunataegui Jimenez is a Peruvian priest that was ordained in Peru before arriving in the Diocese of Orange in 1987. After about four years in the Diocese of Orange, Fr. Jimenez left the Diocese of Orange and went to Peru, reportedly for mission work. He returned to California in 1998, this time working in the Diocese of Fresno. Fr. Jimenez left the Diocese of Fresno in 2002 and is believed to have fled the country. It wasn't until 2004 that the reason for Fr. Jimenez's abrupt departure from the Diocese of Orange – allegations of child sexual abuse – was released. Around this time, Fr. Jimenez was recorded as working at a parish in Madrid, Spain. The last record of Fr. Jimenez in Spain was recorded in 2009. In 2017, an investigative news team found Fr. Jimenez working as a hospital chaplain for the Diocese of Chimbote, Peru.

Fr. David (Dave) Johnson, O.F.M.

Ordained, 1984

Notes: Fr. David (Dave) E. Johnson was a member of the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara, part of what is formally known as the Order of Friars Minor. Fr. Johnson has been named in at least five civil lawsuits alleging child sexual abuse. In 2001, Fr. Johnson reportedly left the order and was laicized. Fr. Johnson was included in the Archdiocese of Seattle's "List of Clergy and Religious Brothers and Sisters for Whom Allegations of Sexual Abuse of a Minor Have been Admitted, Established, or Determined to be Credible." In 2019, Fr. Johnson was included in the Franciscan Friars Province of Santa Barbara's "List of Franciscan Friars from the St. Barbara Province with Credibly (sic) Claims of Sexual Abuse of a Minor" in the section, "Former Province of St. Barbara Friars Who Have Been Credibly Accused Who Have Left The Order." According to this list, reports were made in 1993, 2006, 2007, and 2009 alleging that Fr. Johnson sexually abused minors from approximately 1978 to 1982. As of 2016, Fr. Johnson was believed to be living in Hurricane, Utah. Whether he has access to children is unknown.

Fr. Stephen (Steven) Kain, O.F.M.

Ordained, 1974

Notes: Fr. Stephen Kain is a member of the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara, part of what is formally known as the Order of Friars Minor. Fr. Kain was named in a 2004 civil lawsuit alleging child sexual abuse involving at least one student while he worked at St. Anthony's Seminary High School in Santa Barbara, California during the 1980s. In 2001, it was reported that Fr. Kain sexually abused a minor while working at St. William's in Los Altos, California. A priest has testified that even though multiple Franciscans knew about Fr. Kain's history of child sexual abuse prior to St. William's in Los Altos, California, parishioners were never warned of the prior abuse allegations. As a result of the allegations of child sexual abuse, Fr. Kain was purportedly transferred to St. Boniface in San Francisco, California. Fr. Kain was included in the Franciscan Friars Province of Santa Barbara's "List of Franciscan Friars from the St. Barbara Province with Credibly (sic) Claims of Sexual Abuse of a Minor" in the section, "Credibly Accused Friars Still Living." According to this list, reports were made in 1993, 2004, 2006, and 2008 that Fr. Kain allegedly sexually abused minors from approximately 1981 to 1987. This list also states that Fr. Kain is currently living at an Elder Care Facility in California. His current status as a priest and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Gregory Kareta, O.F.M.Conv.

Ordained, 1956

Notes: Fr. Gregory Kareta was ordained a priest of the Order of Friars Minor Conventual. In approximately 1985, Fr. Kareta allegedly admitted that he sexually abused a child, but the Archdiocese of Los Angeles permitted him to remain in ministry. In 2003, Fr. Kareta was accused of sexually abusing a minor boy from approximately 1973 to 1974 in the Diocese of Monterey. Fr. Kareta was criminally charged in 2002 after being arrested for lewd and lascivious acts with a child under the age of 14. The criminal charges were dropped in 2003. Fr. Kareta was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' "Report to the People of God: Clergy Sexual Abuse Archdiocese of Los Angeles" in the "Religious Order Priests and Brothers" section. Fr. Kareta's status as a priest, whereabouts, and whether he had access to children from 2004 until his death are unknown.

Br. Jorge Ortiz Lopez, O.F.M.

Ordination, Unknown

Notes: Br. Jorge Ortiz Lopez was a member of the Franciscan Friars of the Province of St. Barbara, part of what is formally known as the Order of Friars Minor. At least one survivor has come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Fr. Lopez in approximately 1975 to 1976 at Sacred Heart in Prescott, Arizona. Allegedly Fr. Lopez admitted to the sexual abuse and promised to pay for the survivor's counseling, but neglected to actually do so. Fr. Lopez has been named in at least one civil lawsuit. Fr. Lopez was included in the Franciscan Friars Province of Santa Barbara's "List of Franciscan Friars from the St. Barbara Province with Credibly (sic) Claims of Sexual Abuse of a Minor" in the section, "Deceased Former Province of St. Barbara Friars Who Have Been Credibly Accused." This list also states that Fr. Lopez moved to Mexico in 1997. Br. Lopez's whereabouts, status as a brother, and whether he had access to children from 1998 until his death are unknown.

Cardinal Roger M. Mahony

Ordained, 1962

Notes: At least two survivors have come forward alleging child sexual abuse by Cardinal Mahony, between approximately 1970 and 1993. Neither claim was substantiated. Cardinal Mahony was included in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' "Report to the People of God: Clergy Sexual Abuse Archdiocese of Los Angeles" in the "Incardinated Priests" section. Documents released as part of the Archdiocese's 2007 settlement with survivors of child sexual abuse showed that top officials, including Cardinal Mahony, "maneuvered behind the scenes to shield molester priests, provide damage control for the church and keep parishioners in the dark." (Samantha Tata, Former Cardinal Mahony Stripped of Public Duties for Role in Shielding Alleged Priest Child Molesters, NBC Southern California, Jan. 31, 2013). Archbishop Jose Gomez announced in 2013 that retired Cardinal Mahony would be relieved from any administrative or public duties in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. He was, however, permitted to continue offering Mass at his North Hollywood parish and remained a priest in good standing. It is believed Cardinal Mahony is living in North Hollywood, California, but his current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Fr. Vincent A. (J.) O'Connell, S.M.

Ordained, 1939

Notes: Fr. Vincent O'Connell is an Irish priest ordained a priest of the Society of Mary. He reportedly work briefly at St. Anthony of Padua in Fresno, California, before returning to Ireland. In 2003, after reading a magazine story on priest sexual abuse, a survivor came forward to accuse Fr. O'Connell of child sexual abuse in 1970 while he was working at St. Anthony of Padua in Fresno, California. The female survivor reported the child sexual abuse to a parish deacon and parish priest in her local diocese. After no action was taken, she filed a lawsuit against the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Fr. O'Connell's current status as a priest, his whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.

Msgr. Joseph Pacheco (Pecheco)

Ordained, 1957

Notes: In 2003, a lawsuit was filed against the Diocese of Monterey claiming it had covered up child sexual abuse by Msgr. Joseph Pacheco. The child sexual abuse reportedly took place at parishes in Tulare, California and Merced, California in the early-to-mid 1960s. The lawsuit was settled in 2006, at which point Bishop Steinbock publicly apologized for the sexual abuse perpetrated by Msgr. Pacheco and reportedly acknowledged that Msgr. Pacheco sexually abused several other boys as well.

Fr. John R. Shepard, S.J.

Ordained, 1951

Notes: Fr. John R. Shepherd was ordained a Jesuit priest. Fr. Shepherd was named in the "2018 Update to the Report to the People of God (Allegations of Sexual Misconduct by Priests Reported to Archdiocese of Los Angeles Since 2008)" in the section, "Allegations Involving Priests Belonging to Religious Orders." According to the report, allegations were brought to the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in 2015 regarding Fr. Shepherd's sexual misconduct with minors that occurred in the 1970s and 1980s. The details of the allegations are unknown. It is believed that Fr. Shepherd was never laicized and worked within several dioceses until his death.

Fr. Eric Swearingen

Ordained, 1987

Notes: Fr. Eric Swearingen has worked at more than 10 parishes. In 2002, Fr. Swearingen was accused of sexually abusing a minor altar boy from 1989 to 1993 while working at Our Lady of Guadalupe in Bakersfield, California. The alleged victim filed a lawsuit which went to trial in 2006. The jury was posed with two questions: is Fr. Swearingen guilty of sexual misconduct and is the Diocese of Fresno guilty of wrongdoing? The jurors found Fr. Swearingen guilty of child sexual abuse; however, the jury fell short of the nine votes required to find the Diocese of Fresno guilty of wrongdoing. Due to this, it ended in a mistrial. Instead of a retrial, Fr. Swearingen and his accuser entered a binding arbitration to settle the lawsuit, the conclusion of which has remained secret. Fr. Swearingen was found guilty of sexual abuse, but has faced no punitive action and was allowed to continue working as a priest, overseeing youth ministries. As of 2018, Fr. Swearingen was working at Good Shepherd Catholic Parish in Visalia, California. Fr. Swearingen's current status as a priest, whereabouts, and whether he has access to children are unknown.
